A.

Homeschool Program Changes

Board discussion and approval was requested to limit the Homeschool program to 25 students and one teacher next year and to eliminate the Enrichment classes. Lisa Hildebrand reported that the proposed changes would not result in dis-enrolling any current students. We would not enroll new students until we go under 25. We need to build a waiting list; fluctuating enrollment has a negative impact on staff salaries.

Members had a lengthy discussion and asked a number of questions including if there were other homeschool options for parents.

Cecilia Johnston made a motion to Minimize the Homeschool program by eliminating enrichment classes and limiting enrollment to 25 students and one teacher next school year.

Eva Oxelson seconded the motion.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.
