I. Opening Items

A. Call the Meeting to Order

Alicia Malet Klein called a meeting of the board of directors of Making Waves Academy to order on Thursday May 7, 2026 at 4:04 PM.

Jeremy Cruz Perez was officially recognized by the board as the prospective new student board member to be voted on later in this same meeting.

B. Record Attendance

II. Additional Opening Items

A. Remarks by Board President

Alicia noted that the focus area was student outcomes, with a particular focus on math (WASC/LCAP Goal 1). Bryann Fitzpatrick was praised and appreciated for leading the WASC efforts.

B. Public Comment

No public comment.

III. Closed Session

A. Closed Session

1. Public Employee Appointment, Executive Director, Section 54957

- No action was taken.

2. Confidential Student Discipline Matter – Consideration of Potential Expulsion Case No. 2026001

- Board voted unanimously to uphold the expulsion.

IV. Standing Reports

A. Mission Connection - Middle School Athletics

The Mission Connection video highlighted the MS athletics' focus on holistic development, demonstrating how sports are used to teach core values like scholarship, resilience, responsibility, and respect both on and off the court. The board commended the video for effectively centering student and coach voices while showcasing the real-world application of these values.

B. Middle School ASB

The Middle School ASB student leaders provided an update on their yearly accomplishments, highlighting successful collaborations with the Upper School, a new middle school club fair, and student-led committees. They reflected on overcoming challenges, such as varying student maturity levels and low spring dance attendance, by proposing grade-specific events and implementing more engaging meeting activities. The Board commended the students for their thoughtful reflection, inclusivity, and advanced leadership capabilities.

C. Upper School ASB Update

The Upper School ASB student leaders presented an end-of-year update, highlighting successes such as a spirit-boosting pep rally, Teacher Appreciation Week, and an impactful new alumni mentorship panel. In a student "State of the Union" address, they noted rising school spirit, increased participation in the arts, and improved trust with teachers, while also candidly sharing student concerns regarding athletics and the academic and environmental impacts of artificial intelligence. The Board highly commended the graduating students for their visionary leadership, resilience in adapting event plans to support mental health, and lasting positive impact on the school's culture.

D. Deep Dive: Academic Outcomes

The Deep Dive on math outcomes highlighted positive growth in iReady benchmark scores and ongoing strategies to increase SBAC proficiency. To support this academic progress, the math team is heavily invested in professional development, utilizing personalized coaching, vertical alignment between divisions, and structured Professional Learning Communities to enhance instructional rigor and student engagement. The Board commended the strong cross-division collaboration and suggested incorporating PSAT results as an additional metric to track student math development.

E. Q&A on Written School Report

The Board reviewed the written school report, commending the middle school's targeted interventions and data tracking that successfully decreased fifth and sixth-grade failure rates. Members also discussed upcoming ELA curriculum transitions, shifts toward a co-teaching model in Special Education, and the local measures impacting ELD reclassification. The discussion noted the plan to replace the social worker role with a credentialed school counselor to better align with the MTSS model and provide focused mental health support.

F. Q&A on Chief Executive Officer Report (CEO)

Board members will submitted any questions or comments directly to Alton.

G. Q&A on Interim Executive Director Report

The board noted the hiring strategies memo and requested a follow-up report from Liz detailing the current candidate pipeline for vacant positions. The board also noted an appreciation for AI centered conversations and planning that is occurring.

H. Q&A on Written Finance Report

The board noted no questions and that this is an "off-cycle" for finance.

I. Break

V. Non-Action Items

A. Engagement with Interim ED

The Board reviewed the recent leadership transition engagement sessions, noting strong staff, parent and student participation as Liz shared her core values of honesty, integrity, and intellect. She outlined her "people over paper" leadership approach, emphasizing systemic improvements for ELD and Special Education, increased campus visibility, and a continued focus on teacher retention. Additionally, board members commended her impactful operational work, particularly her implementation of restorative practices that contributed to a 90% reduction in student suspensions.

B. Board Work and Advisory Committee Updates

Student board member , Valeria Serrano, highlighted the success of the recent "Waves Connect" networking event and announced her upcoming enrollment at USC.

Additionally, Falecia Selva, as a member of the Parent Leadership Team (PLT) shared that the group recently successfully launched two highly-requested pilot programs: a well-attended college readiness with a financial aid workshop, and a four-part Health and Wellness Institute focused on stress management and emotional well-being for families.

The Board received an update from the Spring CIRAC/WASC committee meeting, highlighting successful accreditation outcomes and the introduction of new Advanced Patient Care and Principles of Finance courses. To further support student success, the administration is expanding 8th and 11th-grade pilot programs focused on easing campus transitions, building social belonging, and extending the on-ramp for college readiness. Additionally, the school will implement "turnkey" curricula to reduce teacher workloads and ensure high-impact instruction, with a formal pilot review scheduled for October 2026.

C. LCAP Public Hearing

In the public hearing for the LCAP, the board provided feedback on improving clarity, such as noting philanthropic funds in the budget overview and using plainer language for terms like "success audits." They also flagged issues with tracking teacher retention and satisfaction metrics and a scheduling conflict affecting sophomore CTE capstone credits. Finally, the Board requested that the final summary explicitly highlight the specific student subgroups facing challenging outcomes.

D. Declaration of Need

The Board reviewed and accepted the annual Declaration of Need. No questions were asked.
