II. Management Updates

A. CEO Update

CEO Darilek began her update noting that it was the start of the fourth quarter of the school year. She welcomed High School Principal Hueber Stoetzer back from maternity leave, and thanked Assistant Principal Clarke for her commitment and strong leadership during Principal Hueber Stoetzer's leave. CEO Darilek noted the recent Chauvin verdict, and remarked on opportunities to show support of students and staff as they processed the verdict.

She then recognized and acknowledged the tremendous amount of work accomplished by leadership and staff at all of the schools:

- At the Elementary School, leadership and staff accomplished the goal of offering in-person instruction to two classrooms per grade level four days a week, without compromising the quality of virtual learning for students that will stay home. Additionally, play dates for elementary school students have begun.
- The Middle School held a family meeting after the Chauvin verdict to honor the moment and assess family needs.
- Accomplishments at the High School include instituting creative schedules, preparing for in-person AP classes, and commencing sports programs.

Last, CEO Darilek provided updates on enrollment, screening testing, recent testimony she provided on the PCSB's proposed at-risk preference process, and announcements from the Mayor on UPSFF and expectations for schools during the 2021-2022 school year.
