- Lowest cash flow in 25 years
- Going to have tough conversations in March & April
- The goal is to get back to a 3% year-end balance
- Information has been shared for the last 18 months
- Waiting for TK funding answers. We are funded through February and partially in March at this time. If this funding is not received through the end of the year, it could mean RIFs.
- The General Fund does not have the funds to carry other areas not funded

VIII. Board Comments

A. Comments

- Dave Teague wanted to thank Joanna DePeralta and parents for all their hard work. He wants people to know we are all tax payers and work for the district. The state and McCleary are failing us. Programs have changed the funding. We need to help our district maintain its success. I understand the frustration as a tax payer. We will justify every penny spent, but cannot control what the state does. We are doing everything to be good stewards. We want our staff to feel valued even when they take their positions at a discount. We will take care of what we can.
- Danielle Santman wanted to reassure the audience that they are looking out for the best interest of the students. She can't account for the state, but we are neighbors working together.
- The school board thinks we should reach out to TK parents to give them another heads up regarding what the state is doing with TK as soon as we know.

IX. Visitor Comments & Concerns

A. Visitor Comments

Mr. Stocker gave a suggestion to call the HUB to see if they have ideas to help with custodial shortages. He also thought things are good. He explained how McCleary changed finances and has added to school finance problems. Continue being transparent and keep working together.
