B. Raymond Brandes School 65 Facility

Cody Stipes presented.

Raymond Brandes School 65 (southeast side of Indianapolis near Univ of Indianapolis) was let go from IPS during Rebuilding Stronger as an elementary school. (Closed in 2022) It is on the "unused school" database, and within 30 days of that notice any interested school interested in purchasing the building for $1.00 can submit a letter of interest that is non-binding. All interested parties are then invited to tour the facility at a later date.

Stipes stated that there are possibilities of interest to expand knowing that we cannot replicate our exact program but replicate the STEM aspects in a different setting. Cold Spring is Cold Spring and will remain a K-8.

Q&A

- B. Petranoff asked why this building was available. Stipes stated that this building had a composite score of 76/100. The building was only 45% utilization at the time of closing.
- C. Wise asked if we would be using our existing charter if we pursued opening a secondary campus. Stipes stated we would not as it is tied to this location.
- B. Petranoff asked if there was any known population density study was done about the area. Stipes stated that the information is there but is unknown at this time.
