CEO Report

State Assessment Release is included in Board documents.

- Fall Facilities
  - Carpet repairs have been made.
  - Looking at installing carpet squares for easier replacement.
  - Cabinetry - converted computer lab to 3rd grade classroom.
  - Replaced desks and chairs.
- DIBELS testing ended today. Working on uploading data. It will be in the dashboard.
  - CTTs set goals for data. Amie is meeting with the teachers regularly to help them use data.
- Staff Training
  - Fight back training for active shooter. Training staff to disarm/fight as a last resort. Teachers were required to attend, but not required to participate in practice. Most staff practiced. Teachers were given tools to use if they choose to use them. We are looking to bring the trainers in to do an assembly for students.
- Trailer roll-over on Oregon Trip
  - Parent chaperone rolled the borrowed trailer of another parent. Trailer was not insured. We are working on replacing the trailer. All parties have been respectful. We would like to consider purchasing a school trailer and tow vehicle. The Board will make an analysis of possible outcomes and create checklists for scenarios.
- Events
  - Parent Teacher Conferences today and tomorrow.
  - Title I annual parent meeting tomorrow morning; additional meeting in conjunction with October PTC.
  - Family Art nights have started.
  - Soccer is doing well. First lost yesterday.
  - Cross Country is seeing lower numbers than past years; however, those involved are doing well.
  - Young Runners will start mid-October on Thursdays.
  - OPAPO Carnival will be October 11.
  - Fun Run will be October 13.
