Joe Mattos, representing the Maine Alliance of Public Charter Schools, talked about Section 6 of the Performance Framework. This is the section that allows schools to create their own customized targets based on their mission and vision. The Alliance plans to work with schools to make these customized targets "rigorous" and wonders what the Commission's thoughts are on the rigor across the portfolio.

- Constantly referring to school mission and vision, want to win students/families over to their mission/vision by providing excellent service for them with constant communication and offering of resources.
- 96% retention rate last year, trying to improve. Communication is main tool.
- Individualized, continuous cycle of assessment, instruction, and remediation.
- Students receive on demand tutoring in any subject.
- Offer of mix of activities and clubs.

James Ford arrived at 1:48 PM.

VIII. Executive Director/Commission Staff Report

A. School Updates

- Harpswell Coastal Academy - As previously noted, the school closed on 6/30/23. They are in the final stages of their FY23 audit and anticipate excess funds around $160,000. Currently the challenge is determining who the funds should be sent to. Lana is working with the MDOE for clarification and will continue to keep the Commission updated.
- Maine Connections Academy - Held an in person Open House for students and families at their location in Scarborough. The school reports a "great turnout" for the event and shared that a student traveled from Millinocket to attend.
- ACADIA Academy - Spent some time over the summer redesigning certain areas of the school to make it more functional for students and staff. They are also engaged in the Building Assets Reducing Risks (BARR) program. Commission staff are anxious to hear more about the program and will share with the Commission as updates become available.
- Maine Arts Academy - Started the school year in its new facility and reports that the opening "has been smoother than it's ever been". They are hosting a college fair later this month and their ribbon cutting ceremony is scheduled for 10/11/23 at 2:00pm.

B. Organizational Updates

- We are on track to release the new charter school application in mid-November. NACSA reviewed the existing application and provided feedback. There are no major content overhauls and the application was described as "comprehensive and rigorous". Lana will take the feedback, incorporate it, and share the final version with Commission members before it's released.
- The SY2022-23 Annual Monitoring Reports are on track to be presented to the Commission for review in November. The reports will not include academic outcomes as the MDOE has not yet released the results of the Spring Through Year Assessment.
- Staff are working behind the scenes to move all Commission and Committee-related documents to the BoardOnTrack platform.
- Lana will be traveling to Oakland, California later this month to attend the annual NACSA Leadership Conference. While there she will be co-presenting about "Values Based Authorizing" with Naomi Deveaux from the National Charter Schools Institute (NCSI). Lana will share a copy of the PowerPoint presentation when it's available.
- Due to the delayed release of Spring state assessment data, the School Performance Committee agreed to extend the NWEA MAP Assessment testing waiver for an additional school year. The schools that requested the waiver are ACADIA Academy, Fiddlehead School of Arts & Sciences, and Maine Connections Academy. Staff will revisit the waiver after looking at the data in the Spring of 2024.

- Staff is working with NCSI to design a self-evaluation for Commission members. This evaluation will take 15-20 minutes to complete. NCSI will compile the results and present them to the Commission. These results will help drive further Professional Development as well as the Strategic Plan.

"Amy Carlisle's vision of MeVA endures. Over the past ten years, Amy was most concerned about all the people: students, families, teachers, and staff. Amy was instrumental in setting the priorities that helped MeVA grow and thrive."

"Peter Mills' guidance was instrumental to MeVA's academic success. The school will remember the Board Meeting in winter of 2020 in which he gave clear direction to maintain the school's commitment to the assessment calendar, specifically administering the NWEA MAP Growth three times during the school year. NASBE Honors Maine State Board of Education Chair Fern Desjardins with Distinguished Service Award

NASBE | National Association of
State Boards of Education

Congratulations!

Fern Desjardins
Maine State Board of Education Chair

2023 DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD
RECIPIENT

The National Association of State Boards of Education (NASBE) has awarded Maine State Board of Education Chair Fern Desjardins the 2023 Distinguished Service Award. This national award honors current and former state board members who have made exceptional contributions to education. It represents one of the highest awards NASBE can bestow on a state board of education member.

Fern Desjardins currently chairs the Maine State Board of Education. She came to the state board in 2018 after a more than 40-year career in public education, first as a classroom teacher and then as a principal and superintendent in a rural school system. The U.S. Department of Education named Dr. Levesque Elementary a Blue Ribbon School during her tenure as its principal. Desjardins taught graduate courses at the University of Maine as an adjunct faculty member for almost a decade, was a member of the Maine Small Schools Coalition and the Maine Department of Education's Multilingual Learner Advisory Council, and was a grant reader for Maine's 21st Century Community Learning Centers Program.

"Beyond Fern's formal titles and responsibilities, she is simply a person of great character who cares deeply about students, educators, and our state," said fellow board member Kristin Bishop. "She models a genuine commitment to public service and a desire to contribute to the common good, one that is central to her identity and the work she holds dear; it is clear that education is her calling."

A thoughtful, purposeful board leader, Desjardins has represented the board and its strategic plan in legislative testimony and has participated in at least five educator preparation program reviews. She also chairs the School Construction Committee and has been involved in other standing and ad hoc committees, including Certification and Higher Education, Legislative Action, and Student Membership. She previously served four years as board representative to the Maine Charter School Commission.

Desjardins is also an engaged member of NASBE. She was elected to be the new member representative on NASBE’s Board of Directors and served in this role for two years before becoming secretary-treasurer in 2021. In that same year, her keen interest in formulating policy and the governance of education led to her chairing the organization’s Public Education Positions Committee. She has participated in NASBE conferences and events and presented to fellow members about state board strategic planning and school building maintenance and construction.

“Fern exemplifies what it means to be the citizen’s voice in education,” said NASBE President and CEO Paolo DeMaria. “She is a passionate, dedicated public servant and her impact on public education in Maine will be felt for years to come. We are delighted to honor her with the 2023 Distinguished Service Award.”

NASBE’s full slate of annual awards will be presented during its Annual Conference in San Diego, California, October 25-28, 2023.

Bill Lifting Enrollment Cap on Maine's Virtual Charter Schools Slated For Consideration in Legislature Next Year

themainewire.com/2023/10/bill-lifting-enrollment-cap-on-maines-virtual-charter-schools-slated-for-consideration-in-legislature-next-year/

By Libby Palanza

October 12, 2023

Charter schools may once again be a topic of discussion in Augusta next year.

A bill lifting the enrollment cap on Maine's virtual charter schools — sponsored by Rep. Barbara A. Bagshaw (R-Windham) of the Education and Cultural Affairs Committee — was listed among the 60-plus working titles released by the Legislature last week.

This past Friday, the Legislature released its list of bill requests that are slated for screening going into the second regular session, which is scheduled to begin January 3, 2024.

The preliminary list is comprised of each request's working title and sponsor. No additional information is yet available concerning the specific contents of these potential bills.

Despite this, Rep. Bagshaw's intentions for the bill are quite clear from the working title included in Friday's publication — "An Act to Remove the Enrollment Cap on Maine's Virtual Charter Schools."

Maine's two virtual charter schools — Maine's Virtual Academy and Maine Connections Academy — are currently capped at a combined enrollment of 1,000 students.

This restriction was implemented by the State Legislature in 2019 at the same time that they voted to indefinitely institute a measure allowing no more than 10 charter schools to operate in Maine at a given time.

[RELATED: Reform Needed to Expand Access to Charter Schools in Maine]

Out of all Maine's charter schools, Maine's Virtual Academy and Maine Connections Academy have the two largest wait lists for the 2022-23 school year, comprised of 57 and 93 students respectively.

"A strong cap on virtual charter enrollment is not serving students and families," Bagshaw told the Maine Wire.

"Undoubtedly there is a need for workable remote learning solutions. Red tape is keeping many needy students and families out of the mix," Bagshaw said. "This cap hurts students and families who are looking for another option."

"It's a simple fix that will empower parents and students with options for them to achieve a more satisfactory education experience," Bagshaw said.

Of the five bills sponsored by Bagshaw during the first legislative session, four were related to education, and two were specifically aimed at expanding opportunities for educational freedom.

One of the bills — LD 1741 — aimed to address a number of education-related issues, including the restrictions currently in place for charter schools.

In addition to lifting the enrollment cap on virtual charter schools, LD 1741 also sought to remove limitations on the total number of charter schools, as well as expand the list of eligible authorizers to include the University of Southern Maine and certain non-profit organizations.

This bill was ultimately defeated by a party-line roll call vote in the House and a nearly-partisan roll call vote in the Senate, where one Democrat lawmaker — Sen. Mike Tipping (D-Penobscot) joined the Republicans in support of the measure.

Given the omnibus nature of this bill, it is unclear whether LD 1741 serves as a useful predictor of how Bagshaw's bill — which is significantly more limited in scope — will fare this session should it move forward in the legislative process.

This was the only working title submitted by Bagshaw for consideration going into the legislature's second session in January.

Maine Arts Academy unveils conversion of former veterans' home in Augusta

COURTESY / MAINE ARTS ACADEMY

By Laurie Schreiber

The Maine Arts Academy, a charter school for the arts, unveiled its larger space in a ceremony on Oct. 11. The building, a former Maine Veterans' Homes site, is about six times larger than the academy's previous location in Sidney. The school bought 310 Cony Road for $3.25 million in a deal that closed early this year.

Financing for the purchase and renovation of the new campus was helped by a loan of $1.7 million and a loan guarantee of the same amount from the U.S. Department of Agriculture Rural Development. Additional financing was provided by Kennebec Savings Bank.

The Maine Arts Academy is a public charter school for grades 9 through 12. It offers studies in dance, music, theater, visual arts and film, as well as English, math, science, social studies and world languages. Charter schools in Maine are publicly funded schools through the state, but do not receive local tax support. They rely on state money, grants and donations.

With the larger space, the school will be able to offer more programs and increase enrollment from 245 to 400.

Festivities at the ribbon-cutting included student performances.

Maine Arts Academy has grown in enrollment every year it has been open, the academy's head of schools, Heather King, previously told Mainebiz.

Up until this year, Maine Arts Academy was in a leased building of about 12,000 square feet at 11 Goldenrod in Sidney. The Sidney lease expired in June.

With the former veterans' home, the charter school took on a 69,615-square-foot building on nine acres, located near the Capital Area Sports Complex and Viles Arboretum.

The original part of the building dates to 1983; it was added onto in 2003. Renovations in Augusta included taking down some walls to optimize space and installing elements such as flooring for the dance studio.

Maine Arts Academy cut the ribbon last week on its Augusta campus, after relocating for Sidney.

Free and equitable access to education and the arts are critical to Maine's rural communities, said USDA Rural Development Maine State Director Rhiannon Hampson.

"Seeing the student artwork and performances underscores how essential the arts and humanities are to Mainers of all ages," said Hampson. "This project demonstrates that the community building work of USDA Rural Development is not limited to public safety buildings, medical facilities, and municipal structures.

Established in 2016, the academy offers education in the visual and performing arts as well as a full academic curriculum to high school students. The free public charter school has students enrolled from 13 Maine counties.

Diary of a High School Senior: Navigating college admissions

October 8, 2023

By Freyja Pacheco

Freyja Pacheco is a senior at Baxter Academy in Portland. Her dream college is Columbia University and she hopes to study history, political science, and journalism. She works at Salvage BBQ in Portland, where she has been a waitress since she was 14.

It's time for college applications, and all the stress that goes with it. But thank goodness for a quality school, quality counselors and quality classmates.

For high school seniors, college application season has arrived. All around me, fellow seniors are making college lists, scrambling for recommendation letters, and typing first, second and third drafts of college essays.

However, each student's plan and situation is unique. There are many who have had this process planned out since middle school and are hiding anxiety behind a well-practiced answer to the dreaded "So where do you want to go to college?" question. Then there are those who feel lost, overwhelmed, and like they are drowning in expectations.

Tension and stress levels are high, and self-esteem, mental health and hours of sleep are low.

I'm a student at Portland's Baxter Academy for Technology and Science, which bills itself as a project-based learning, college prep high school. We have about 400 students, 100 per grade, who have come as far as Jay, about 65 miles away, to benefit from the STEM-based curriculum.

Baxter is known for its broad range of classes, amazing fabrication lab and community-based activities. During college admission times, Baxter supports its seniors by offering time, space, and teachers who can help with the process. Our two guidance counselors stay very busy through these months with recommendation letters, answering questions, running in-school college visits and much more.

Asked what support they hope to provide, guidance counselor Emily Kelly said: "The purpose of the guidance department during this time is to address students where they're at, so no matter what their goals are they have a touch point through us and we will help them navigate their plans."

From what I can see, most students cannot pay for college out of pocket. Therefore hundreds of scholarships and other financial aid opportunities must be reviewed, signed up for and applied to by their deadlines. These scholarships can seem to make the difference between being able to afford a dream school or not, and can be as intimidating as the college applications themselves.

The self-worth tied to getting into college varies. Plenty of my peers believe they will thrive wherever they end up and put much less pressure on themselves. But many students, myself among them, tie their academic ability and self-value to whether we can get into a selective institution.

It is unfortunately a time when students question many of the academic decisions they made in the past and whether those decisions will make a difference in achieving their dreams. What high school we decided to go to, what classes we signed up for, where did we slack, and what clubs, activities and programs did we decide to join or not join?

This is a time of overthinking what different decisions we could have made that would make our applications look better to those on admission boards.

There are numerous things in the past few years that shifted the senior college application process a great deal. Many are related to COVID-19, such as the two free years of community college that was extended only last year to include 2024 and 2025 graduates.

Gov. Janet Mills proposed a $20 million fund to provide the deal to classes graduating from 2020 through 2025. Many students are taking advantage of it by preparing to transfer after two years or choosing fields that only need an associate's degree.

Because of the free community college option, many students' college lists are looking more different than usual. The percentage of kids graduating from Baxter and going straight into college has gone up since the deal became available. For example, 82% of the 2022 graduates reported going to a two- or four-year university and 75% made the same decision in 2023.

I asked five seniors the same three questions about their experience with college applications. First, I asked where they felt the most and least prepared for college apps. Second, I asked what helped them the most, and lastly I asked where they needed more support.

There were definitely common answers. Three of the five students said they were least prepared in understanding financial aid and needed more support. A significant change to the application process this year is the opening date to apply for federal student aid changed from Oct. 1 to Dec. 1. That means applicants will not have a set financial aid package until much later in the year. This, and the pandemic's long-lasting effects on many individual financial situations, has caused more anxiety and confusion with the daunting task of paying for college.

Many students also agreed certain classes they were taking at Baxter were playing essential roles in easing college stress, including Senior Seminar, a once-a-week required course where seniors can ask questions and receive support from guidance counselors, and Science Technology and Ethics, a 400-level English course in which part of the syllabus is writing and editing your college essay.

One student in my Science Technology and Ethics class said, "It's nice to be able to work and get our questions answered in the moment," and another said of the teacher, "He really takes the time to look over our ideas and answer our questions."

Students say getting good recommendation letters and writing essays are two of the least stressful parts of the college application.

Although this is a time of stress, we must remind ourselves each and every 2024 graduate is a smart, capable student. Here at Baxter, we are lucky to have the support of an impressive school, and we continue to inspire each other to push through this season and prioritize our mental health as well.

This time next year, when we have made our decisions and many of us are sitting in college classrooms, I'm sure we will look back on this time, and be grateful we put in the work to reach our goals.

Maine Virtual Academy Amendment Request – Enrollment Expansion

Charter District Information

Date of Request: July 18, 2023.

Charter District Name: Maine Virtual Academy (MEVA).

Mailing Address: 6 East Chestnut Street, Suite 230, Augusta, Maine 04330.

Contact Person: Dr. Melinda Browne, Head of School.

Contact Telephone Number: (207) 613-8900.

Contact Email Address: mbrowne@mainevirtualacademy.org.

Please address all the following criteria in your request.

- 1. Describe how the amendment request is consistent with the school's mission and vision.*

MEVA's mission and vision focus on helping students' academic achievement, proficiency, and growth, postsecondary readiness, and twenty-first century skills. MEVA develops excellent virtual teachers and faculty who work tirelessly to improve students' outcomes. Given our differentiated educational alternatives and strong stakeholder satisfaction, MEVA wishes to serve more students and families.

- 2. Describe the need to adjust enrollment and/or increase the grade span. How was that need determined? Demonstrate a compelling case that there is demand for the expansion.*

MEVA benefits from expanding enrollment for funding an added science teacher and sustaining our summer programming. We decided MEVA's needs through the multi-year financial planning process.

3. Provide evidence that the school has engaged and responded to community stakeholders, including families and school staff.

MEVA weighed the proposed enrollment expansion with our faculty. The MEVA governing board reviewed and discussed the enrollment expansion proposal at their July 18th, 2023, governing board meeting. The expansion responds to the families who want to join our school community, but who are on the waitlist due to space limitations. MEVA’s waitlist was typically about one hundred students.

4. Describe the desired results from an enrollment adjustment and/or increase in grade span.

MEVA is requesting to increase our enrollment cap from 390 students to 450 students, keeping the plus/minus ten percent margin.

5. Provide a table showing the historical distribution of enrolled students in the present grade span, and the projected distribution of students by grade if the amendment request is granted.

Grade	10/1/2021	10/1/2022	Projected
7	38	31	40
8	44	56	60
9	67	55	60
10	94	85	90
11	98	113	100
12	96	98	100
Total	437	438	450

The proposed enrollment expansion increases our student count by about a dozen students during the first year of implementation.

6. Explain any unique circumstances related to the school's academic performance and academic growth, and corrective actions taken to address challenges in these areas of school performance.

Supporting documents in the attached Appendix illustrate that:

- MEVA students outperformed the state during the spring 2022 Maine Educational Assessment (MEA) math and English Language Arts.
- MEVA students met fall to spring growth targets and increased their achievement percentiles in combined grades 7-11, math, reading, and language usage, for School Year 2022/2023.
- Longitudinal NWEA data (2018-2023) indicates that students who stay enrolled at MEVA make consistent academic gains year after year.
- MEVA School Year 2022/2023 Maine Charter School (MCSC) Annual Monitoring data shows that MEVA is meeting/exceeding its academic performance measures.
- MEVA is addressing students' learning losses due to the pandemic and other disruptions by applying aggressive interventions, including offering customized courses and high-quality tutoring during the academic year and summer.

7. Provide an action plan for implementation. Include: a timeline, action(s) to be taken, designated point person, and start date and projected completion date.

MEVA is requesting to implement the enrollment expansion beginning in spring 2024, with a view towards enrolling 450 students by 10/1/2024.

8. Provide a staffing chart and narrative staffing plan to support the planning and implementation of the proposed increase in enrollment and/or grade span.

MEVA Faculty	SY-2023/2024 (Current)	Projected
CEO/Head of School	1
Classroom Teachers:
• Math	6
• English	7
• Science	4	+1
• Social Studies	4
• Fine Art	2
• Physical Education/Health	1
• World Languages	2

Special Education Teachers/Case Managers	8

Academic Administrator	1
Special Education Administrator	1
Attendance Technology Support Liaison	1
Registrar	1
Secretaries	2
Human Resources/Accounts Payable	1
Business Manager	1
Total Headcount	61	+1

As the above table illustrates, MEVA plans to increase our current employee headcount by one science teaching position, resulting in a faculty of sixty-two (62) people.

9. Describe the financial resources that are necessary to implement the school's expansion, including the sources of revenue for the successful implementation of the proposed change. Describe contingency planning for potential challenges in cash flow or budget shortfalls.

MEVA's strong financial position allows us the flexibility to implement the proposed enrollment expansion using our existing revenues and reserves.

10. Provide financial projections for the proposed expansion. Financial projections should reflect both immediate and long-term considerations that have been identified in implementation of the proposed amendment. Provide a detailed narrative explaining the financial forecasts, and the assumptions.

MEVA is sending a multi-year financial plan, under separate cover, which incorporates the proposed enrollment expansion. We have no concerns about the school's financial forecasts.

11. Indicate if the current facility will accommodate the expansion, or if additional space and/or renovations will be required.

MEVA's current facility will accommodate the enrollment expansion.

12. If the school contracts with an ESP, describe how the ESP will support the planning and implementation of the proposed amendment.

MEVA contracts with Stride (K12) for our enrollment services. We are confident that the Stride enrollment team can support MEVA's proposed expanded enrollment. Stride has an excellent record to date.

Academic Performance on the Assessments by Student Population

State and federal laws require that all students participate in summative assessments in designated content areas and grades. These assessments are a single data point and do not fully demonstrate what a student can do. Summative assessments should be used in conjunction with local assessments and other measures to help educators, parents and educational leaders support students.

NOTE: As a direct result of the pandemic and need for Maine educators to have immediate access to assessment data to inform teaching and learning regardless of the mode of instruction, Maine transitioned to the NWEA assessment during the 2020-21 school year. The NWEA assessment (2021-2022) and the prior eMPowerME assessments (2015-2019) are not the same type of assessment. The student data or results cannot be compared.

MEVA students in grades 7-11 completed the NWEA MAP math, reading, and language usage three times during the academic year. MEVA students’ median conditional fall to spring growth percentile exceeded the target in math for grades 7, 8, and 11, and in language for grade 10. MEVA students’ median fall to spring growth percentile met the target in math for grade 10, in reading for grades 10 and 11, and in language for grades 7, 8, 9, and 11. MEVA students’ median fall to spring median growth percentile approached the target in math for grade 10, and in reading for grades 7, 8, and 9.

MEVA met the customized target in all three subject areas (math, reading, and language usage) for combined grades 7-11.

Overall, we believe that these strong results show that MEVA takes its growth-oriented mission and vision to heart and works tirelessly to improve students’ academic achievement outcomes. .

Please Note – The school's Amendment Request must be submitted at least 3 weeks prior to the next MCSC Business Meeting (held on the 2nd Tuesday of each month) in order to make it onto the agenda. Provide a brief narrative description of the request.

We have 3 sections of our bylaws that have been updated by the board of directors. Our bylaws really needed an overall review and update. The board took a careful look at each section to see what updates should be made that best fit Maine Arts Academy.

The completed Amendment Request must be uploaded and submitted to the Maine Charter School Commission through Epicenter.

On an additional page, please address the following criteria in your request, as applicable.

- o Provide a redlined copy of the proposed changes to the current bylaws.
- o Provide a finalized, clean version of the bylaws with the proposed changes included.

- o Describe why the school has proposed the changes to its bylaws.

We have 3 sections of our bylaws that have been updated by the board of directors. Our bylaws really needed an overall review and update. The board took a careful look at each section to see what updates should be made that best fit Maine Arts Academy.

- o Describe the desired improvements that will result from the change in the school's bylaws.

In Article IV, the board has a lengthy thorough discussion regarding extending the current director's terms to 4 consecutive terms. There is a historical value to our board composition that allows for some board members who have been with the school since its inception to hold historical facts and experiences that guide Maine Arts Academy to continue to improve decision making for the school's success. There are also newer board members who add a fresh perspective and energy. This make-up of the board members really provides a board that is operating at an optimal level. Allowing directors to extend their terms allows board members with history to continue to represent Maine Arts Academy.

The changes in Article VI came about due to this section not matching the Maine Charter Commissions requirements for posting board minutes and board agendas within 5 days after a board meeting and 5 days before a board meeting takes place. This change will support the Charter Commission's requirements.

The Changes in Article VII simply allow officers to not have a limit on the terms they serve. There was extensive discussion regarding this as well and it was determined that the officers serving have a lot more time for the commitment to the board.

REDLINED VERSION

Article IV, Section 3 Term and VoteThereafter, Board members shall serve three-year terms with approximately one-third of the Directors elected at each annual meeting. Each Director shall hold office until the annual meeting when his or her term expires and until his or her successor has been elected and qualified, except in cases of death, resignation or removal of the Director. No Director shall serve more than four consecutive terms, after which they must take a minimum of two years off from serving as a Director before being eligible to be reconsidered for nomination as a Director.....

Article VI, section 4, Notice of Meetings of the Board of Directors. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and the agenda for the meeting, except as herein otherwise provided, shall be provided by posting notice thereof with an agenda not less than five days prior to the date of the meeting on the School's website, and by providing the same by email or facsimile transmission to individual Directors. The notice will include copies of the proposed minutes of the previous meeting if the minutes have been prepared by the Secretary. Minutes that thoroughly capture the discussion and decisions of the board shall be posted to the School's website not less than five days following approval by the board.

Article VII, Section 2 Election and Term for Officers The Governance Committee shall present a slate of officers to the Board of Directors. All officers shall be elected by the Directors at their annual meeting and shall hold office for a term of one year. Each officer shall continue in office until his or her successor has been elected and qualified, or until his or her death, resignation, or removal. Maine Virtual Academy's Independent Third Party Evaluation

MEVA 2023-2024
Evaluation Proposal
Submitted: September 2023

Introduction

This proposal is being submitted by Dr. Madden and Associates, a research and consulting company that specializes in the areas of education, health, and human services. Dr. Madden has a Doctor of Philosophy in education, human development, and women's studies. Her resume is attached. Dr. Madden has served as the external evaluator for the Maine Virtual Academy for the past two years. This proposal follows up on key findings in the 2022-2023 evaluation report. In that evaluation, a small number (N=4) of families participated in a case study. The findings were interesting, but the small number of case studies were a limitation of the study. Therefore, in 2023-2024 we seek to conduct a multi-case case study with the intent of using the individual case studies to identify themes, patterns, similarities, and difference in the experience of MEVA families.

Evaluation Questions

- Why do students and their families choose MEVA?
- How do they acclimate to MEVA during the first four to six weeks including the culture, and expectations?
- What do students find most challenging about acclimating to MEVA and what supports do they seek out to deal with the challenges?
- After at least one semester at MEVA, how does the experience at MEVA meet, or not meet, students' and parents' expectations, especially in addressing the reason they sought out MEVA?

Methodology

The methodology for this study will be a multi-case case study approach. This enables the evaluator/researcher to use replication to identify trends, differences, and similarities. The goal is to recruit 15 families (parents and students) that are new to MEVA to participate in an interview after they have been at MEVA for approximately four to six weeks. Middle and high school students and their families will be recruited to participate. We will do our best to achieve a balance of younger and older students. These parents and students will be asked to participate in a follow-up interview near the end of the academic year.

Interviews

The Program Manager of Operations at MEVA will take the lead on recruiting participants. She will contact families, explain the study, and schedule students and parents, who agree to participate. We will initially attempt to recruit 10-12 families from each semester to increase our chances of reaching our goal of 15 families.

Dr. Madden will conduct the interviews virtually. Prior to the first interview question the purpose of the interview, confidentiality, and other participants rights will be explained to both parents and students. Students are required to have their parent's permission to participate. Each family will have the choice to participate in the same interview or separate interviews. Each interview will be about 30 minutes.

Questions for the interviews will be developed based on questions used in 2022-2023 case study interviews, learnings from the case studies, and MEVA's Panorama Survey results. The initial interview will focus on reasons for selecting MEVA and their experiences with onboarding and acclimating to the virtual school. The second interview will be conducted at the end of the school year and focus on assessing the student's and parent's overall experience with MEVA including whether the experience met their expectations and addressed their initial reasons for enrolling in MEVA. Each participant will receive a gift card thanking them for partaking in the interview. Gift cards will likely be to Starbuck or Amazon card.

Analysis, Interpretation, and Findings

Interviews will be recorded to ensure data has been accurately captured. Transcripts will be developed for each interview. Qualitative data will be analyzed using Dedoose, a software for analyzing qualitative and mix-method data. A case study based on the initial and year-end interviews will be developed for each student and their parent/legal guardian.

Following the development of the individual case studies, Dr. Madden will conduct an analysis across the case studies to identify themes, similarities and differences for the students and their families. The cross-case analysis will be used to develop recommendations for MEVA to enhance the experience of students and families.

A final report will be available and presented to the MEVA School Board in September 2024. The report will describe the context, the evaluation questions, methodology, description of analysis and interpretation, findings of the study, and recommendations for MEVA.

Below are the estimated expenses for the 2023-2024 proposal.

Estimated Expenses

Evaluator	72 hours @150. Per hour	$10,800
Editor	15 hours at @150 per hour	$2,250
Transcription services	1.50 per minutes of recording for	$1,350

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Maine Charter School Commission is the authorizer of nine charter districts. Each charter district holds a contract with the Commission containing a Performance Framework of indicators and targets the district shall meet to continue operating in Maine. The charter districts are evaluated annually as required by state statute. Data are gathered through the Maine Department of Education, Charter Districts, and Site Visits, as applicable.

The Maine Charter School Commission has established a monitoring visit table for visit frequency and intensity. A copy of the Site Visit Manual can be found HERE. ACADIA Academy was not on cycle to have a Site Visit at the end of the 2022-23 school year. Charter districts that are scheduled for “Document Review Only” are required to submit the same documentation as schools that receive an in-person visit.

Key documents and other information reviewed to determine progress on the charter district’s performance framework and alignment with its mission are as follows:

Document is a major component of the Maine Charter School Commission's monitoring process, which happens throughout the year. Charter districts are required to submit reports and data for review. The table below summarizes the charter districts' report and data submission completion throughout the 2022-23 school year:

2022-23 NARRATIVE

As a result of the 2022-2023 monitoring process, the charter district is encouraged to consider the following:

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AND GROWTH: Considerations will be determined once the MDOE releases data from the administration of the spring 2023 Through-Year Assessment.

SCHOOL CLIMATE: Because of the recent dissolution of the partnership with the school's Education Service Provider, and the below-average teacher, staff and student satisfaction scores reported via the Panorama survey, we recommend that school develop clear and specific strategies for increasing stakeholder investment in and satisfaction with the school.

In school year 2022-23, ACADIA Academy was successful in the following areas of the Performance Framework:

- Board effectiveness, including holding the required number of meetings and public posting of agendas and minutes on time;
- Submitting accurate, on-time reports to the Commission (91% of the time with 100% accuracy);
- A chronic absenteeism rate of 9%, exceeding expectations on the Performance Framework;
- A facility that supports learning; and
- Student Persistence, exceeding expectations in the number of students that remain at the school throughout the school year and year-to-year.

Additionally, the school identified several other areas of demonstrated strength in the SY2022-23 Self-Assessment Report, including:

- Mission and Vision: “Our focus became restructuring our academic schedule to meet existing academic areas of concern. Further, we provided additional training and resources so that we could strengthen our staff’s education in SEL curriculum (Next Step) and restorative practices protocols. We found that the implementation of a dedicated experiential block, with accompanying exhibition, created a culture where students and staff felt comfortable interacting with “key experience” (experiential) focused projects.”
- Discipline: “We saw a marked decline in administrative intervention. We provided ongoing internal training and resources on restorative practices and contracted with a BCBA for individualized classroom behavioral management support. Because of our many new initiatives, we tracked less moderate or greater classroom behaviors (outside of those students with specific behavioral plans).”
- Student Needs: “ACADIA partnered with the Auburn Public Library to provide bi-weekly library services to all ACADIA students; this included monthly visits to the library and support from the organization. Physical wellness was also an identified area of need. This year, we hosted many student wellness clinics (i.e. dental, vision, other services) that were free of charge to all ACADIA families. Each clinic was hosted during and after the school day. We received considerably positive feedback for these events.”
- Recruitment, Retention, and Enrollment: “Enrollment has been a bright spot for ACADIA. After our initial lottery, we have maintained a waitlist across all grade levels (PK-6). After open enrollment, we quickly filled our spots with an expectation of 255-260 students for next year. Although we have had some impact on enrollment with the JFM/MMCC departure notification in April, we remain confident that the greatest challenges with that relationship ending has passed. We have, however, lost a number of students in May and June of this year. Each of these departures were a result of family circumstances (i.e. moving etc.) or our relationship with JFM/MMCC ending. We are fortunate that our efforts to expand and connect with the most vulnerable in our community has been paying off. We were very pleased by the number of new families, without a connection to the school, who joined this year’s lottery. In general, we continue to look for new avenues to explore recruiting different populations of diverse students within our typical catchment. The greatest challenge that we need to solve is the development of a food program. For many families, ACADIA is difficult to consider knowing we don’t have a school lunch program.”

- Family Involvement: Although the school did not meet the 35% participation rate on the Panorama survey that the Commission Requires, the 25% of families that filled out the survey rate the school in the 80-99% percentile nationally. In the Self-Assessment Report, the school noted that “ACADIA provides a considerable amount of opportunities for family involvement. Our survey data would indicate that families feel they have adequate opportunities to participate in the ACADIA community and their child’s education. We have a school wide committee dedicated to the exploration and provision of family engagement.”

ACADIA has demonstrated areas that require growth on the Performance Framework in the following areas:

- Student and Teacher/Staff Panorama Survey Results: Both stakeholder group are in the the “does not meet expectations” range; and
- Board Trainings: All school board members did not complete the required online training modules.

Notably, at the end of the 2022-23 school year, ACADIA dissolved their long-standing relationship with John F. Murphy Homes, their Educational Service Provider. The organizational change was deemed necessary by the School Board and school leadership, while also providing challenges to the school climate and finances. The school noted in the Self-Assessment Report that “Since the original concerns were raised by the commission in 2016 (our founding year) about the structural relationship with JFM, the relationship has continued to deteriorate. Recently, this relationship has been tumultuous with their leadership. ACADIA has endured a steady increase in prices that peaked in April of this year. For several years, ACADIA has not operated with an existing contractually defined relationship, nor a fee for service table. Our new school leadership prioritized an examination of this relationship (SPED and HR/Finance) to determine long-term efficacy and appropriateness. We determined in March of 2023 that we would transition all HR and finance functions away from JFM.”

ACADIA leadership reported that “ACADIA was met with several very large financial challenges for 22-23. The financial increases with JFM put our second and third quarters into a deficit. Although the SPED financial problems hit us hard, we are able to budget SPED appropriately for 23-24 with these services being fully in house. Bringing on a CFO has provided us with greater financial transparency and communication; this will prevent the types of increases that were not proctored appropriately before. The creation of new controls and protocols have already increased staff satisfaction particularly with our new payroll processor. Our operating budget for 23-24 will be fully balanced and should meet all school-wide needs.”

In the Self-Assessment Report, the school leaders noted the additional challenge of food services. “Providing a school lunch program is a continued area of need and exploration. Given the feedback we received in the community, it is evident that we can widen our enrollment within our catchment by providing one. We have several problems associated with this move: lack of clarity from MDOE on funding, physical infrastructure, and staffing. We’re hopeful this will change for 24-25. Our ESP relationship has put an enduring burden on our school finances this year with marked increases in SPED services.”

PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK OUTCOMES

Exceeded Expectation	Met Expectation	Approached Expectation	Did Not Meet Expectation
----------------------	-----------------	------------------------	--------------------------

In the spring of 2023, the Maine Department of Education changed its state-wide assessment from the NWEA MAP Assessment to the Through-Year Assessment. As the assessment was new, the Commission asked schools to report the percentage of students assessed at each grade level, the percentage of students “at state expectation” and “above state expectation” on proficiency in both ELA and Math. Ratings would be developed once baselines were established.

Due to the Maine Department of Education’s delay in releasing data from the Spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment, there are no proficiency outcomes that can be reported at this time.

Subsequently, schools expressed a concern with the possibility of double testing students in the spring of 2023 (i.e., administering the NWEA MAP Assessment and the Through-Year Assessment). There were assurances made by the MDOE that the Through-Year Assessment results would show academic growth comparable to the growth results from the NWEA MAP Assessment and based on those assurances schools were allowed to apply for a waiver of the Commission-required NWEA MAP Assessment. ACADIA Academy applied for, and was granted, the waiver for the administration of the NWEA MAP Assessment in the spring. Because the data from the spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment has not been released, academic growth outcomes for students in grades 3-8 cannot be determined; nor can any subgroup analysis be done at this time.

An addendum to this report will be provided once the data are released and analyzed by school personnel and Commission staff.

Below is a report that was written after staff visited with ACADIA Academy in March of SY2022-23. This visit was a chance to gauge the school's progress relative to the Performance Framework. This was a snapshot in time and is not reflected in the final year-end outcomes above.

MID-YEAR MEETING REPORT

2022-23 Mid-Year Meeting
ACADIA Academy

March 21, 2023

On March 16, 2023, the Maine Charter School Commission staff completed a mid-year meeting in person and via Zoom with Amy Dieterich, the ACADIA Academy Governing Board Chairperson; Casey Baugher, Executive Director; and Heather Bucklin, the Coordinator of Teaching and Learning. Topics covered included academic proficiency and growth, student attendance, finances, student enrollment and recruitment, facilities, and the governing board.

Recommendations

- COMPLETE THE AUDIT PROCESS EARLIER - The School Administration and Board Finance Committee should review the audit process to ensure timely reporting. Review loan documents to determine if there is a timeline requirement for the audit to be completed.

Academic

In SY 21-22, ACADIA Academy outperformed the state average in both Reading and Math on the NWEA MAP Growth Assessment. 95.6% of the school's students met or exceeded expectations in Reading (state average: 83.8%) and 89.5% of the students met or exceeded expectations in math (state average: 81.3%). The school reported lower than average growth on the NWEA Map Growth Assessment from Fall 2022 to Winter 2023; reporting 34% of students meeting projected growth in reading and 29% in Math. If the school maintains similar growth projection percentages on the Spring NWEA MAP Growth Assessment, they will not meet expectations on the Performance Framework. School leadership discussed the “high proficiency/low growth” trend in the data and hypothesized several contributing factors, such as a lack of investment in standardized tests, and the relative challenge of students with high proficiency also demonstrating high growth.

The school noted students that fall into lower growth categories are targeted for small group intervention. The school chose to administer the optional winter NWEA assessment, and prioritized increasing investment in the assessment.

The school leadership noted a concern that due to the required “double testing” in the Spring with the NWEA Map Growth required by the Maine Charter School Commission, and the Maine Through-Year Assessment, required by the state, students may experience test fatigue, which could impact results negatively.

Attendance

ACADIA Academy reports a significant decrease in chronic absenteeism this year. In SY 2021-22, ACADIA’s chronic absenteeism was 42.2%. Currently, for SY 2022-23, the school is projecting that 16% of their students are chronically absent. ACADIA attributes this decrease in chronic absenteeism to adjusted COVID protocols, and the strong relationships between staff and families. If the school maintains the rate of 16% of students being chronically absent until the end of the year, they will meet expectations on the Performance Framework.

Financial Performance

ACADIA is currently reporting “low risk” on almost all criteria in the Performance Framework. The school noted that the combination of a decrease in enrollment and the increasing cost of services for students on IEPs is reflected in their budget. The school will fill all seats for SY 2023-24, and maintain a waitlist, which will alleviate the strain from the enrollment decrease in further years. The school leadership named staff changes and COVID restrictions as drivers of their temporary enrollment decrease.

The school partners with John F. Murphy Homes (JFM) to provide services to students at ACADIA on IEPs, including the hiring and management of school staff who serve students on IEPs. School Leadership noted that the service is expensive and that they are reviewing the partnership closely to determine if it is affordable moving forward.

ACADIA's finance team is going through a staffing transition. The school is moving away from contracting with JFM as a financial service provider, and is bringing finance and human resources work in-house. The school recently hired personnel to manage finance. JFM will continue to be involved during the transition of the new personnel and with the 3-year financial plan development.

The school leadership notes that they benefit from significant financial support from one donor family, for which they feel grateful.

The SY 2022-23 financial audit was received at the end of December 2022. Commission Staff advised the school to complete the audit earlier to assist with financial planning. The staff advised the school to review their debt agreement for a deadline to complete the annual audit to ensure they are in compliance with their debt agreement, or if they should apply for a timeline waiver from the bank.

Student Enrollment and Recruitment

At the time of the mid-year meeting, ACADIA reported 248 students enrolled in the school. The projected enrollment next year is 262 students. There are 105 students on the waitlist for next year, with a waitlist at every grade level. School leadership attributes the increase in enrollment to several factors, including a strong community where students and families choose to stay. The school has had only one student unenroll this year and one student who is currently enrolled choose not to enroll next year. The school has prioritized student and family events throughout the year, such as the "Eagle Soar" events, and the establishment of afterschool clubs for students.

ACADIA piloted the use of Lotterease to streamline enrollment and lottery logistics and report that it is a helpful tool that they plan to continue to use.

School leaders report that they are committed to increasing the diversity of their student population to be more representative of the Lewiston community. The high student retention provides a small window to increase diversity, as more open seats are in Pre-K and 50% of next year's open seats will go to siblings of current students, who are prioritized in the lottery. The school attends community forums to advertise the school and confront misconceptions about the charter schools.

Facilities

The school reports that the facility is in strong shape and there are no current plans to improve or expand the facility.

Governing Board

The Board Chair reports strong board performance. The Executive Director provides a report at monthly board meetings on academic successes, challenges and operational issues. There is a Finance Committee that meets regularly and at minimum quarterly finance reports to the full board. The board makes modifications to the budget as needed and reviews and signs off on the annual audit. Heather Bucklin, the Coordinator of Teaching and Learning, joins board meetings periodically to discuss assessment data and report on student interventions.

The Board Chair reports that there is a core group of board members that have been with the school since before it was founded and she is planning for succession in board leadership roles.

The Board Chair cited staff turnover as a current challenge. While the school offers competitive pay to local school districts, the benefits are not comparable, as the school cannot fund MainePERS and health insurance costs are high because of the small staff.

Mission

Inquiry leads learning at Baxter Academy for Technology and Science, a public charter high school free to Maine students. Our project-based STEM curriculum emphasizes real-world problem solving and is paired with a humanities program that connects ideas across disciplines and cultivates strong communication skills. Students design innovative projects through Flex Friday, a unique program requiring initiative, perseverance, and collaboration, as well as reflection on the work and its impact in the community.

Vision

Our students choose work that inspires their imaginations. They persevere through setbacks and innovate with curiosity, conscience, and creativity. They solve real-world problems. Our students matter not only to their school but also to a strong future for Maine.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Maine Charter School Commission is the authorizer of nine charter districts. Each charter district holds a contract with the Commission containing a Performance Framework of indicators and targets the district shall meet to continue operating in Maine. The charter districts are evaluated annually as required by state statute. Data are gathered through the Maine Department of Education, Charter Districts, and Site Visits, as applicable.

The Maine Charter School Commission has established a monitoring visit table for visit frequency and intensity. A copy of the Site Visit Manual can be found HERE. Baxter Academy for Technology and Science was not on cycle to have a Site Visit at the end of the 2022-23 school year. Charter districts that are scheduled for “Document Review Only” are required to submit the same documentation as schools that receive an in-person visit.

Key documents and other information reviewed to determine progress on the charter district’s performance framework and alignment with its mission are as follows:

Document is a major component of the Maine Charter School Commission's monitoring process, which happens throughout the year. Charter districts are required to submit reports and data for review. The table below summarizes the charter districts' report and data submission completion throughout the 2022-23 school year:

2022-23 NARRATIVE

As a result of the 2022-2023 monitoring process, the charter district is encouraged to consider the following:

CHRONIC ABSENTEEISM: Given the slight increase in chronic absenteeism from SY21-22, we recommend that the school develop clear and specific goals and strategies to increase attendance for the cohort of students most at risk to be chronically absent.

SCHOOL CLIMATE: Because of the below average student satisfaction scores reported via the Panorama survey, we recommend that the school implement their strategies for increasing student investment with fidelity and closely monitor the student experience throughout the year.

In school year 2022-23, Baxter Academy for Technology and Science was successful in the following areas of the Performance Framework:

- High School Completion: The school reported a 4-year graduation rate of 96.7% “exceeding expectations” on the Performance Framework and above the state annual target for 2023;
- Post-Secondary Readiness: 86% of students completed at least one post-secondary activity;
- Board effectiveness, including holding the required number of meetings and “exceeding expectations” in the board training criteria;
- Submitting accurate, on-time reports to the Commission (93% on time with 100% accuracy);
- A facility that supports learning;

- Student Persistence, exceeding expectations in the number of students that remain at the school throughout the school year and year-to-year; and
- Exceeding expectations in the customized goals related to student's performance on the SAT and Flex Fridays.

Additionally, the school identified several other areas of demonstrated strength in the SY2022-23 Self-Assessment Report, including:

- Academic Program: "Our Academic Program, as a reflection of STEM/STEAM has expanded to include greater investments in pre-health sciences, industry, and building on design that can serve as a fast-track for productive careers. In addition, our curriculum has become more disciplined/strategic in the use of the 9th Grade Experience to prepare students for Flex Friday with project management, research, and collaborative skills. We have improved in the tracking of our special student populations. Not only has this made a difference in our ability to serve students, but it has also facilitated our ability to tell our story to funders."
- Assessment: "Baxter continues to think out of the box in the areas of assessment; not only do we help kids know they are on the right track by our evaluation by course, but we also have standards achievement to help students determine the right next level of challenge for them. Students engage in project-based learning through our Flex Friday program. They have opportunities for career and college exploration through our internship program, and across their classes and the Flex Friday can engage in student led inquiry that is personally meaningful and community connected. A Baxter education seeks to connect the power of STEM in the hands of students to make a difference in our communities."
- Climate and Discipline: "As a result of continued development of our school information system, the work of Flex Friday has had a higher rate of inclusion of student transcripts and our student participation rate has been near 100%, indicating improved rigor where academic climate is concerned. In the areas of discipline, we have seen significant improvement in student misbehaviors, especially bathroom vandalism; this has been correlated with a rise in student leadership."
- GPA: "The end of year GPA view of all students shows that there is a general trend of success for our students in classes. The school average GPA is 3.37. We do not see a significant gender effect, but do see that while students who hold IEPs, 504s and on free and reduced lunch meet competency benchmarks at a higher rate at 3.0, but that pattern changes for students who are excelling at 4.0 in their classes."
- NWEA (10th Grade): "The NWEA score shows that for growth, Baxter is in the 50th percentile, but for achievement in the highest quartile and top third for Math; in reading students performed in the 50th percentile for growth but achievement was higher, and in language usage both growth and achievement are in the top quartile by the spring testing.”

Baxter Academy has demonstrated areas that require growth on the Performance Framework in the following areas:

- Student Panorama Survey Results: Student results “did not meet expectations” in School Climate. While the teacher/staff results are positive, Baxter Academy staff did not meet the participation threshold of 75%, thus resulting in a “did not meet expectations” on the Performance Framework.
- Timely Reporting of Board Meeting Agendas and Minutes: The school failed to post the Board Meeting agenda and/or minutes publicly in a timely manner 3+ times over the course of the year.
- Student Attendance: Baxter reported a chronic absenteeism rate of 36.21%.

The school noted that they have planned for improvement after analyzing the Panorama survey results. Specifically, “in our most recent Panoramic Survey, despite improvements in Parent and Teacher surveys we found that we still have work to do. Our students need more activities for community engagement. We do not have sports that are common to standard public schools. This lack of extracurricular engagement will continue to be an issue. As a part of the strategic planning process moving into 23/24, we are exploring means of developing these opportunities. BA does not have a nutrition program. For the first time, we anticipate receiving Title I/IV monies that will make this support possible.”

The school team reflected on the chronic absenteeism rate and noted that “there is greater sensitivity about not getting other people sick which has driven up absences. This is paired with teacher practices that will support student continued learning asynchronously to not penalize students for wellness-related absences.”

The school leadership team has identified the following as areas of academic improvement:

- “Math alignment in terms of curricular progression and STEM cross-departmental collaboration
- Belonging and community building to address stronger learning environment and a health and wellness track

- Rich network of volunteer/non-certified/supplemental support of a Spanish student teacher, Volunteer Flex Friday Coaches, parent classroom volunteers, and leveraging organizational relationships.
- Attention to marginalized populations and reflecting pathways of study that provide clinical/industrial certifications and furthering our External Partnerships to provide meaningful context to student learning. We seek to support the building of a workforce in Maine.
- Baxter Distinguished Scholars, a pathway for students dedicated to the most rigorous learning institutions.”

PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK OUTCOMES

----------------------	-----------------	------------------------	--------------------------

In the spring of 2023, the Maine Department of Education changed its state-wide assessment from the NWEA MAP Assessment to the Through-Year Assessment. As the assessment was new, the Commission asked schools to report the percentage of students assessed at each grade level, the percentage of students “at state expectation” and “above state expectation” on proficiency in both ELA and Math. Ratings would be developed once baselines were established.

Due to the Maine Department of Education’s delay in releasing data from the Spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment, there are no proficiency outcomes that can be reported at this time.

An addendum to this report will be provided once the data are released and analyzed by school personnel and Commission staff.

Below is a report that was written after staff visited with Baxter Academy for Technology and Science in March of SY2022-23. This visit was a chance to gauge the school's progress relative to the Performance Framework. This was a snapshot in time and is not reflected in the final year-end outcomes above.

MID-YEAR MEETING REPORT

2022-23 Mid-Year Meeting
 Baxter Academy for Technology and Science

April 6, 2023

On March 6, 2023, the Maine Charter School Commission staff completed a mid-year meeting in-person and via Zoom with Thorn Dickinson, Baxter Academy for Technology and Science (Baxter Academy) Governing Board Chairperson, Ruth Dean, Vice-Chairperson, Cicy Po, Head of School, and Anna Marie Klein-Christie, Executive Director. Topics covered included academic proficiency and growth, student attendance, projected graduation rates, finances, student enrollment and recruitment, facilities, and the governing board.

Recommendations

- Finance: Review the details of your loan compliance covenants and other restrictions including audit delivery deadlines and minimum free cash flow for debt service to ensure you are in compliance with loan regulations.

Academic

Baxter Academy’s Math and ELA NWEA MAP Growth results are suppressed by the state and so we are unable to report a state comparison. The school reports that from Fall 2022 to Winter 2023, 47.14% of 10th grade students met their projected RIT Growth on the NWEA MAP Growth assessment, putting them within the national average. In Reading, 43.94% of 10th grade students met their projected RIT growth, performing below the national average. The school team noted that these scores are an improvement from last year. When reviewing subgroup data the school found that “students who hold IEPs had a higher percent meeting their projected Math RIT scores. The trends were downward for students who hold 504s, Free and Reduced lunch, but not for African American students in Math. It should be noted that when we take a closer look at projected RIT scores, those at the higher achievement have low growth. Our young women students had higher projected ELA RIT scores and our young men had higher projected Math RIT scores.”

The school reports that their current GPA average is 3.32 and that “students with disabilities have a higher rate of meeting standards in a course at an assessment of 3.0 for that course, but lower for exceeding expectations of standards. Of the students who do not successfully complete a course, rates are higher for students who hold IEPs, 504s or free and reduced lunch.”

The school leadership is focused on Flex Fridays and highlighted that the 9th grade class as a cohort had a more structured entry into Flex Friday compared to previous new students resulting in 100% of 9th grade students submitting final podcast projects. “Upon completion of the projects, the Roux Institute will be hosting TedEx style presentations for the students that will be open to the public and live streamed.”

Attendance

In SY2021-22, Baxter’s chronic absenteeism was 32%. This year, the school has shown improvement and is reporting a current rate of 28.45%. If the school maintains this rate until the end of the year, they will not meet expectations on the Performance Framework.

The school team reports that a high level of student mental health challenges has impacted attendance negatively. The school counselors are managing high caseloads of students with significant challenges.

The school notes that changes to their attendance tracking system are needed to generate a more accurate picture of student attendance. When students are in school, but not in class - such as at the guidance counselor's office - they may be marked as absent. Or, when students are taking college courses, they are marked absent. The school is revisiting how to update their attendance systems.

Graduation

In SY2021-22, 93.6% of students graduated from Baxter. Baxter will maintain a strong graduation rate this year, anticipating that 95.4% of seniors will graduate. In June, full data will be available as to the students’ next steps, including whether they intend to attend college, university, trade school, or transition directly into work or a certification program. The staff reviews a graduation audit list each week and supports students to make-up standards for graduation that are needed.

The school maintains its focus on college-readiness. However, the school recognizes a nationwide shift in thinking about college-for-all programs, recognizing that non-college pathways, such as internships, can lead to positive post-secondary outcomes for students.

Financial performance

Baxter Academy is low risk in most financial measures. “Baxter Academy has been operating in a solid financial standing for multiple years. Last year, the Board of Directors voted to pay debt service above the regular obligation by making additional payments of $600,000 on 05/09/22 and $100,000 on 09/30/22 towards the mortgage on our campus. While it is reflected in cash on hand, no other indicators were negatively affected, and it will be a considerable savings to Baxter Academy in reduced interest expense.”

Student Enrollment and Recruitment

Baxter Academy’s current enrollment is 347 students. The school experienced a temporary decrease in enrollment in SY2021-22, from which they are recovering this year. Currently, the school has a waitlist of around 30 students. The freshman and senior classes are full, with openings in sophomore and junior classes. The school anticipates classes of 100 students per grade in SY2023-24. The school team and board attributes the dip in enrollment to Baxter closing during COVID more than other schools because of their large catchment area.

The school notes that “while effectively functioning through a public lottery system, Baxter Academy is strategically cultivating opportunities for/with students not typically served by a STEM education program – in particular, underrepresented BIPoC students or New Americans. In the six months between the Lottery (March 1) and the first day of school, there is typically movement within the student population of net 6-7%. In engaging new students, our partners will be the Maine Association of New Americans (MANA), the New England Organization of Arab Americans (NEOAA), the Boys & Girls Club, ILAP, and the YMCA. In addition, we are co-hosting STEM camps with the University of Southern Maine on site and in partner locations.”

Facilities

The school team continues to find their facility adequate to host 400 students and has no current plans to expand or relocate.

Governing Board

The board reports that “The Baxter Academy Board of Directors is currently full with the recent addition of Dan Mickool, from the Husson University School of Pharmacy. His addition represents the strategic expansion of curricular priorities to reflect broader STEM opportunities for the students in Southern Maine in pharmacy and health sciences. He will be working closely with our Academic Team to create a certification program where our students are able to work in local pharmacies during their Flex Friday projects and are fast-tracked into training programs that meet the healthcare needs of Maine Communities. The Baxter Academy by-laws permit the addition of 2-3 Board members, and we are working to secure them in the marine biology, energy, and business development fields.”

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

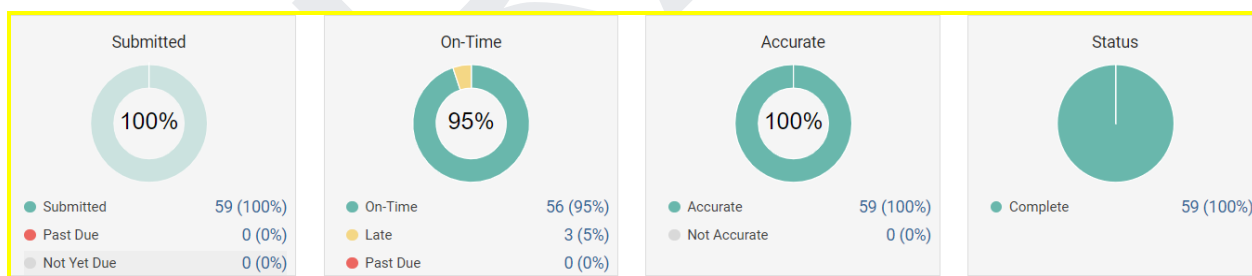

The Maine Charter School Commission is the authorizer of nine charter districts. Each charter district holds a contract with the Commission containing a Performance Framework of indicators and targets the district shall meet to continue operating in Maine. The charter districts are evaluated annually as required by state statute. Data are gathered through the Maine Department of Education, Charter Districts, and Site Visits, as applicable.

The Maine Charter School Commission has established a monitoring visit table for visit frequency and intensity. A copy of the Site Visit Manual can be found HERE. Community Regional Charter School was on cycle to have a Site Visit at the end of the 2022-23 school year.

Key documents and other information reviewed to determine progress on the charter district's performance framework and alignment with its mission are as follows:

Document is a major component of the Maine Charter School Commission’s monitoring process, which happens throughout the year. Charter districts are required to submit reports and data for review. The table below summarizes the charter districts’ report and data submission completion throughout the 2022-23 school year:

2022-23 NARRATIVE

As a result of the 2022-2023 monitoring process, the charter district is encouraged to consider the following:

CHRONIC ABSENTEEISM: Given the increase in chronic absenteeism from SY21-22, we recommend that the school develop clear and specific goals and strategies to increase attendance for the cohort of students most at risk to be chronically absent.

SCHOOL CLIMATE: Because of the below average student satisfaction scores reported via the Panorama survey, we recommend that the school implement their strategies for increasing student investment with fidelity and closely monitor the student experience throughout the year.

In school year 2022-23, Community Regional Charter School was successful in the following areas of the Performance Framework:

- Academics/NWEA Assessment Results: CRCS is exceeding or meeting expectations in all reading, math, and language criteria, including both the whole school population and subgroup populations;
- High School Completion: With 92% of students graduating in 4 years, CRCS's graduation rate is exceeding expectations and above the state annual target for 2023;
- Academics/Postsecondary: Accuplacer results will not be included on the Annual Report until SY2023-24. However, CRCS already has 82% (reading) and 83% (math) meeting the goal, including all subgroups of students;
- Postsecondary Activities: CRCS is exceeding expectations, with 81% of students participating in at least one postsecondary opportunity;
- Teacher/Staff Satisfaction: The school is exceeding expectations as measured by the Panorama survey;
- Governing Board Effectiveness: The school has held the required numbers of meetings and is meeting expectations in timeliness of posting minutes and agendas publicly;
- Timely and Accurate Reports: The school is exceeding expectations in the percentage of reports that are delivered on-time and accurate to the Commission;
- The Facility: The facility is welcoming and supports programming;
- Student Persistence: The school is exceeding expectations in the number of students that remain at the school throughout the year, as well as the number of students that plan to return next year; and
- Customized NWEA Goal: The school exceeded expectations in all three of the customized NWEA goals.

At the conclusion of SY2022-23, CRCS successfully completed an Intervention Plan on which the school was placed in SY2021-22. The Commission reviewed the progress that CRCS had made on the criteria in the Level 2 Intervention Plan and determined that the school had met the majority of targets, specifically related to improving overall student performance and facility planning. The Commission will continue to encourage improvement in lowering the school's chronic absenteeism rate.

The school provided context to support the areas of demonstrated strength in the SY2022-23 Self-Assessment Report, including:

Academics: CRCS has demonstrated notable improvement in SY2022-23. At all campuses, the percentage of students meeting the NWEA MAP Growth goals increased from last year, resulting in the school meeting or exceeding expectations in all NWEA subjects (reading, language and math), including with student subgroups. In the school's Self-Assessment Report, the team reported that "We place a heavy emphasis on STEAM and innovation in all three of our buildings. This year, we transitioned a staff member from working primarily at one building to working at all three of our buildings to support STEAM integration. We have been working hard to change our thinking on mathematics instruction. At Overman we have established two ways in which we help learners to strengthen math proficiency. This year we created a pathway for each child that learners are placed in based on their academic level, not through choice. Additionally, many of our seminars continue to have a math component where learners are learning math in a more hands-on way."

Supporting All Learners: The leadership team reflected on supporting all learners, and reported the following: "The staff at both buildings have been developing skills to strengthen the MTSS system. At Overman, we started using a new data collection tool called the Raven Record where we record and analyze data about behavior successes and academic success. We started using this at the end of April and saw that we had better conversations with families and with each other. We had several parent meetings for tier 2 & 3 kids to put plans in place for the upcoming school year. The system is not perfect, but we have learned a lot in the last two months of school and look forward to adapting the tool for next year. We created a modified schedule for learners who were close to graduation that were at high risk of dropping out. Each learner had an individual plan for attendance and academic work. Out of the 4 learners on these plans, three demonstrated proficiency on the Accuplacer and completed learning targets necessary for graduation. The fourth learner will be continuing next year and is projected to graduate with his class in 2024. Without these intensive plans and determination of staff these learners would have likely dropped out."

Summer Programming: The school notes that "We have added summer school offerings district wide for the month of July 2023. These summer school offerings are curricular and co-curricular, from math intensives to gardening, to technology and writing camps. These offerings are taught by CRCS staff and open to currently enrolled CRCS learners for four weeks."

Family Engagement: The school reported that "In regards to the parent survey, all of the categories on Panorama showed an increase, with our greatest increase in regards to culture and climate. Last year, 67% of families responded favorably and this year we had 79% respond favorably. We attribute this increase to a couple of different factors- the first being our commitment to communication and getting all families using Seesaw to see their learner's work and progress as well as communicate easily and effectively with all staff. The second factor was an increase in parent engagement opportunities. We offered multiple events throughout the school year for families to come in and be involved in their child's education and school culture. Some activities were celebration of learning nights, loved ones luncheons, field day, and multiple field trip opportunities."

CRCS has demonstrated areas that require growth on the Performance Framework in the following areas:

- Student Panorama Survey Results: Student results "did not meet expectations" in School Climate. While the family results are positive, CRCS families did not meet the participation threshold of 35%, thus resulting in a "did not meet expectations" on the Performance Framework.
- Student Attendance: CRCS reported a chronic absenteeism rate of 40%.

In the SY2022-23 Self-Assessment Report, the school noted areas of improvement, including:

- Academics: "Teaching interdisciplinarily and thematically while also customizing learning for individual levels and targets is an area we are continuing to refine and improve."
- Student Panorama Survey Results: "The Panorama survey gives us valuable information to reflect on and use for improvement. When reviewing Panorama survey results and the Panorama playbook, we are saving strategies from the playbook to use schoolwide. One such strategy we have chosen for next year is "Safe Spaces" - lessons about physical safety, emotional safety, and intellectual safety. At Dimensions Academy, on the student survey one area that we are diving into is the question kids were asked about "how much does the behavior of other students help or hurt your learning?" We only had 20% of our 3rd-5th grades respond favorably. This is an area we intend to dive more into when our staff attends Responsive Classroom training this August. To continue to improve culture and climate, this Responsive Classroom training is pivotal. At Overman, one of our areas of concern is the learner's perspective of the culture and climate. This is a difficult thing to address, but coming out of the pandemic it is still something we are working towards improving."

----------------------	-----------------	------------------------	--------------------------

In the spring of 2023, the Maine Department of Education changed its state-wide assessment from the NWEA MAP Assessment to the Through-Year Assessment. As the assessment was new, the Commission asked schools to report the percentage of students assessed at each grade level, the percentage of students “at state expectation” and “above state expectation” on proficiency in both ELA and Math. Ratings would be developed once baselines were established.

Due to the Maine Department of Education’s delay in releasing data from the Spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment, there are no proficiency outcomes that can be reported at this time.

An addendum to this report will be provided once the data are released and analyzed by school personnel and Commission staff.

Below is a report that was written after staff visited with Community Regional Charter School in March of SY2022-23. This visit was a chance to gauge the school's progress relative to the Performance Framework. This was a snapshot in time and is not reflected in the final year-end outcomes above.

MID-YEAR MEETING REPORT

2022-23 Mid-Year Meeting
Community Regional Charter School

April 7, 2023

On March 2, 2023, the Maine Charter School Commission staff completed a mid-year meeting in-person and via Zoom at Community Regional Charter School (CRCS) with Elizabeth Firnkes, the Building Principal of Overman Academy; Susan Muzzy, the Building Principal of Creative Children’s Center and Dimensions Academy; Danielle Denis, Board Chair; Jill Alves, Business Manager; Nicole Reinholt, Board Member; and Travis Works, Executive Director. Topics covered included academic proficiency and growth, student attendance, projected graduation rates, finances, student enrollment and recruitment, facilities, and the governing board.

Recommendations

Facilities: As noted in your Intervention Plan, the Commission continues to be concerned that the current configuration of facilities is unsustainable. We ask that School Leadership and the Board plan with urgency to resolve the construction and facilities projects by, initially, documenting a facilities plan and financial assessment.

Data: When you complete the NWEA data longitudinal analysis, we would like to see it.

Chronic Absenteeism: Because your chronic absenteeism rate is currently stagnant at a high level, consider providing the Commission with data that shows improvement. While not on the Performance Framework, it may be helpful for the Commission to understand if you have seen improvement in attendance from your group of students who are currently chronically absent.

Auditor:

1. As noted in your Intervention Plan, in order to protect the organization we recommend hiring a different auditor. Please consider different, larger, firms who have a background in auditing charter schools. Joe Drago is able to provide guidance, if helpful.
2. Review loan documents to determine if there is a timeline requirement for the audit to be completed.

Academic

The NWEA Growth MAP assessment data from the state is suppressed in both Math and Reading. At this time, we do not have access to state comparison data for CRCS. At the mid-year meeting, 48% of students met their projected RIT scores in reading, which is within the range of the national average. In Math, 43% of students met their projected RIT scores, which is below the national average. The overall scores have remained relatively consistent to the scores reported by the school last year.

The school leadership team noted that if you take the standard deviation of NWEA scores into account, 64% of students met projected RIT in Reading and 69% in Math. The school team reported several successes that they saw in the academic data, including grade levels 1, 5 and 8, doubling or tripling their growth goals. The team added that the students in 5th grade have continued to underperform compared to their goals. The team attributes the success of certain grade levels to the multi-tiered systems of support (MTSS) at the Overman campus. The team noted that students, particularly in 11th grade, are experiencing mental health challenges that are impacting attendance and academic performance.

The school reports that students on IEPs are performing on par with the regular education student population and that students from low-income households are outperforming their peers in Reading, but not Math.

The leadership team reports that they review the data with teachers at weekly staff meetings to goal-set and action plan. They use the data to inform curriculum development work. The team also showed several examples of student data that shows growth over time (fall to fall or over multiple years). The examples demonstrated that a student may not meet their annual RIT growth goal, but may still make progress over multiple years. The school team is in the process of completing the data analysis for all students in the school to ascertain if the longitudinal growth trend is true for the full student population.

Attendance

In SY2021-22, CRCS's rate of chronic absenteeism was 35.1%. At the time of the mid-year meeting, the chronic absenteeism rate district-wide was 35% (39% at Creative Children's Academy, 37% at Dimensions Academy, and 32% at Overman Academy), the same rate as last year.

The school team reported that they are disappointed that the rate of chronic absenteeism has not improved since last year. They attribute the high chronic absenteeism to prolonged COVID and flu sickness, transportation challenges with students missing the bus, or not being allowed to ride the bus because of poor behavior, and families of the youngest students keeping them home often.

The school completes weekly attendance audits and is working closely with families to support transportation challenges and absences due to family appointments.

Graduation

In SY2021-22, CRCS's graduation rate was 80%. At the mid-year meeting, the school reports that 96% of students are on track to graduate in four years, which would be a significant improvement and put the school in the "exceeds" category on the Performance Framework. The school notes that four 11th grade students are planning to graduate early.

CRCS works closely with each student on their post-secondary plans. Currently, in their senior class:

- 13% are planning to attend a 4-year college,
- 41% are planning to attend a 2-year college,
- 3% are planning to attend the military,
- 9% are considering Job Corps,
- 9% are entering the workforce with a certification (welding and CDL), and
- 25% are entering the workforce.

The leadership noted that all students have access to college dual enrollment beginning in 10th grade, which has helped students proactively plan post-secondary pathways.

Financial Performance

As of the mid-year meeting, three out of eight of the financial criteria in the Performance Framework are calculated as higher-risk, three are moderate risk and two are lower-risk. Currently, both the end of year FY22 numbers and the middle of the FY23 numbers show a deficit. The school reports that the deficit and decrease in cash are due to:

- Capital improvements (repaving),
- Fuel costs over budgeted amount,
- Utilities over budgeted amount,
- Septic System upgrade,
- Replacement of the electricity and pump to well at Dimensions, and
- Significant depreciation amount in P&L (approximately $300,000).

CRCS is budgeting next year for 359 students, based on the 10/1/22 certified student count, though they plan to serve 370. Because of a Pre-K Expansion Grant received by the MDOE, 16 additional Pre-K students will be funded in real-time - without the typical annual delay.

Student Enrollment and Recruitment

At the time of the mid-year meeting, there were 339 students enrolled at CRCS. The school is budgeting next year for 359 learners, which is based on the 10/1/2022 student count. The school is anticipating having 370 students enrolled on 10/1/2023. The team noted that they have room for 386 students without adding additional space.

CRCS is hoping to enroll 32 students in each grade. Their ideal long term steady state enrollment scenario is 50 students per grade.

Facilities

The school continues to have significant facilities challenges and reports that their current configuration of three campuses constricts their optimal student enrollment. The team noted that they have room for 386 students, but anything beyond that will require additional space being added. The team notes that “Dimensions Academy needs physical space added and Overman Academy needs current space divided and reconfigured. The administration and board are working on a comprehensive plan on necessary space to match future enrollment projections.”

In order to house the additional 16 Pre-K students that are enrolling for SY2023-24 (funding in real-time via a grant from the MDOE) the school hopes to add a portable building rather than house the students in an existing building. However, the school needs to add a sprinkler system to the portable, which is cost-prohibitive at approximately $110,000.

The school is hoping to build capital to invest in space during SY2024-25. The school would like to build a new, central building to house all campuses, but do not currently have a feasible plan to do so. Instead, they are considering ways to add square footage to their existing buildings. The school team reports that Overman Academy has existing square footage that can be divided up and that eight additional classrooms need to be added at the Dimensions Academy campus.

Governing Board

The Board reports that seven board positions are filled. They note that “over the last two years, the board has made a tremendous amount of growth and progress. That work continues today and one of the greatest assets has been the decision to utilize Board on Track. The board needs to continue improving and making progress on the board goals. For example, the board needs to develop a succession plan in the event a board member or even the board chair does resign.”

the Ecology Learning Center

Mission

The mission of the Ecology Learning Center is to deeply root students in Maine's ecological & cultural landscapes, foster authentic real-world learning through mentorship & craft, and cultivate compassionate and resilient leaders prepared to engage in the challenges of today & tomorrow.

Vision

Our vision is to inspire high school students from Waldo County and beyond to roll up their sleeves and engage in their local communities through service learning and apprenticeships. Guided by the unifying theme of "ecology" (the student of the relations between organisms and their environment), students will enact and embody ecological principles by making meaningful connections between school and community. We will help students develop the knowledge, skills, and commitment to work collaboratively to address important local challenges. Students will take active roles in every aspect of their education, always with the support and guidance of teachers and local experts.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Maine Charter School Commission is the authorizer of nine charter districts. Each charter district holds a contract with the Commission containing a Performance Framework of indicators and targets the district shall meet to continue operating in Maine. The charter districts are evaluated annually as required by state statute. Data are gathered through the Maine Department of Education, Charter Districts, and Site Visits, as applicable.

The Maine Charter School Commission has established a monitoring visit table for visit frequency and intensity. A copy of the Site Visit Manual can be found HERE. Ecology Learning Center was not on cycle to have a Site Visit at the end of the 2022-23 school year. Charter districts that are scheduled for “Document Review Only” are required to submit the same documentation as schools that receive an in-person visit.

Key documents and other information reviewed to determine progress on the charter district’s performance framework and alignment with its mission are as follows:

Document is a major component of the Maine Charter School Commission's monitoring process, which happens throughout the year. Charter districts are required to submit reports and data for review. The table below summarizes the charter districts' report and data submission completion throughout the 2022-23 school year:

2022-23 NARRATIVE

As a result of the 2022-2023 monitoring process, the charter district is encouraged to consider the following:

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT: In SY2023-24, Accuplacer results will be rated on the Performance Framework. Given that the current percentage of students meeting the goal is low, we recommend that the school develop specific strategies for increasing the academic achievement required of graduates.

CHRONIC ABSENTEEISM: Given the increase in chronic absenteeism from SY2021-22, we recommend that the school develop clear and specific goals and strategies to increase attendance.

In SY2022-23, the Ecology Learning Center was successful in the following areas of the Performance Framework:

- High School Graduation: The school held its first graduation and 100% of seniors graduated, in addition to two juniors who graduated early;
- Postsecondary activities: The school reported that 100% of seniors are involved in at least one postsecondary opportunity;
- Student Experience: On the Panorama survey, the school ranked in the 99% nationally when compared with like-school on students' satisfaction rate with school climate;
- Governing Board Meetings: The Governing Board meets regularly and surpassed the minimum required board meetings;
- A facility that supports learning;
- Student Persistence, exceeding expectations in the number of students that remain at the school throughout the school year and year-to-year; and

- Passion Projects: The school exceeded expectations on the customized sections of the Performance Framework, surpassing the goal of 95% participation with at least 75% of students earning an overall score of 80%-100% on their week-long winter Passion Project.

Additionally, the school identified several other areas of demonstrated strength in the SY2022-23 Self-Assessment Report, including:

- Academics: The school reported that “We further developed and refined our academic program this year, adding two dual enrollment college courses through which students received credit from UMaine Farmington (Environmental Studies and English). Every teacher met one-on-one with curriculum coordinator Korah Soll of Rural Aspirations, to review and revise their standards-based Scope & Sequences. We implemented Infinite Campus for the first time to track attendance and grades, and allow students and parents to view their progress throughout the year.” Additionally, “The school’s fall to fall NWEA MAP growth projection was strong, with 64% of students meeting projected RIT growth in Math and 63% of student meeting projected RIT growth in ELA. We exceeded our Custom Target goal, centered on a week-long winter Passion Project. 80% of our students earned an overall score of 80%-100% on the projects. The intended outcome was for students to explore and develop an independent interest that will prepare them for future education and employment opportunities. This was our third annual and largest Passion Project Expo, held at MOFGA with community members present including Representative Benjamin Hymes.”
- Enrollment: The school noted that “We grew from 77 students to 102, once again exceeding the original goal in our application which was 96 students at full capacity. Of the 102 students enrolled during the 2023 academic year, 23 had IEPs and 7 had 504 plans.”
- First Graduating Class: “We graduated our first ever senior class, with 24 out of 24 seniors and 2 juniors graduating early - a 100%+ graduation rate. This is an especially noteworthy accomplishment given that one third of this unique graduating class had been at risk of dropping out of school when they first entered the Ecology Learning Center, and half of the graduates had IEPs. The commencement ceremony took place at MOFGA's beautiful timber-framed Exhibition Hall, and included every student speaking before the audience of nearly 200 people as a collective student-centered keynote address. Four students received Honors recognition, and four High Honors. Additionally, the faculty nominated five students for unique mission-aligned awards: Environmental Leader, Community Leader, Hands-On Leader, Compassionate Leader, and Resilient Leader. Our own string quartet of underclassmen played the processional and recessional.”

- Student, Family and Staff Experience: Although ELC did not meet the participation rates for families and staff, those that completed the survey were positive, placing the school in the exceeding expectations range, if they had met participation requirements.
- Staff Retention: “We have a high staff return rate, with 22 employees returning of the 24 who were offered positions. Our strategy of hiring elective course teachers in a full-time capacity, teaching their content area (Spanish language, Art, Music) part time and working as Ed Techs part time has helped greatly with staff retention and team cohesion.”

The Ecology Learning Center has demonstrated areas that require growth on the Performance Framework in the following areas:

- Teacher/Staff and Family Panorama Survey Participation Rates: Both stakeholder groups are in the “does not meet expectations” range because the school did not meet the participation requirements. However, the results are strong for the stakeholders that took the survey.
- Board Trainings: All school board members did not complete the required online training modules.
- Attendance: The school reported a chronic absenteeism rate of 49.48%.

Though not rated this year on the Performance Framework, the school noted that they want to see growth in the Accuplacer results. Specifically, “This was our first year conducting Accuplacer testing. The results were low, and we hope to improve these numbers in the future. 17 students took the test: 35% met the College Readiness indicator of 239 or above in reading and 53% met the College Readiness indicator of 226 or above in math.”

PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK OUTCOMES

----------------------	-----------------	------------------------	--------------------------

In the spring of 2023, the Maine Department of Education changed its state-wide assessment from the NWEA MAP Assessment to the Through-Year Assessment. As the assessment was new, the Commission asked schools to report the percentage of students assessed at each grade level, the percentage of students “at state expectation” and “above state expectation” on proficiency in both ELA and Math. Ratings would be developed once baselines were established.

Due to the Maine Department of Education’s delay in releasing data from the Spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment, there are no proficiency outcomes that can be reported at this time.

An addendum to this report will be provided once the data are released and analyzed by school personnel and Commission staff.

Below is a report that was written after staff visited with Ecology Learning Center in March of SY2022-23. This visit was a chance to gauge the school's progress relative to the Performance Framework. This was a snapshot in time and is not reflected in the final year-end outcomes above.

MID-YEAR MEETING REPORT

2022-23 Mid-Year Meeting Ecology Learning Center

March 28, 2023

On March 7, 2023, the Maine Charter School Commission staff completed a mid-year meeting in-person and via Zoom with Laura Graham, the Ecology Learning Center Governing Board Chairperson; Carol McGovern, Board Member/Secretary and Chair of the Governance Committee; Kayla Higgins, Dean of Students and Guidance Counselor; and Leza Packard, Head of School. Topics covered included academic proficiency and growth, student attendance, projected graduation rates, finances, student enrollment and recruitment, facilities, and the governing board.

- Please provide the details of loan compliance covenants and other restrictions including audit delivery deadlines and minimum free cash flow for debt service.

Academic

Ecology Learning Center's (ELC) SY 2021-22 end-of-year English Language Arts (ELA) NWEA Map Growth data was suppressed at the state level. We do not currently have information about how the school is performing relative to the state average in ELA. The school has 76.2% of students at or above state expectations in Math, which is slightly below the state average (81.3%).

The school's fall to fall NWEA MAP growth projection is strong, with 64% of students meeting projected RIT growth in Math and 63% of student meeting projected RIT growth in ELA. The school is currently meeting expectations for NWEA Projected Growth on the Performance Framework.

MCSC staff noted that subgroup populations are making strong growth, with the exception of students whose families are low income. The school is interested in exploring this trend further.

The school attributes their strong student growth to the relationships formed between the teachers and students, which is possible due to the small size of the school. The staff prioritizes listening to the student perspective and taking time to meet their needs. The school is focused on each student having a portfolio which demonstrates their success throughout their time at ELC. Teachers at ELC make their own curriculum in alignment with a standards progression.

The school team praised the efforts of their teachers and their excitement about using lab-based instructional methods in math, science, and humanities. In addition to academics, the school places an emphasis on non-cognitive skill-building and supporting students to develop skills for postsecondary success.

This year will be ELC's first graduating class of seniors. The school leadership team is focused on post-secondary outcomes. Currently, they expect more than 50% of seniors to enroll in Community College. Nine seniors were accepted into a welding program at EMCC. 35% of students are enrolled in dual enrollment.

This year the school raised the expectation for graduation, moving the grade to pass a course from 60% to 70%.

Attendance

In SY 2021-22, 22.4% of students were chronically absent, which is lower than the state average and approaching expectations on the Performance Framework. The school is currently reporting a chronic absenteeism rate of 33.67%, which is an increase from last year. The school attributes the increase in chronic absenteeism to a flexible mindset about attendance with some of their families, particularly those whose children were homeschooled before attending ELC. Approximately $\frac{1}{3}$ of the student population at ELC has a background of homeschooling and parents who support "flexible learning". The school is reaching out to families to explain the importance of attendance and the legal ramifications of not sending students to school. Additionally, the school reports high levels of anxiety among students, especially post-COVID, that has increased chronic absenteeism.

Graduation

This school year is ELC's first graduating class of seniors. The school expects 100% of seniors to graduate. The Head of School praised the work of the Dean of Students in working with the cohort of seniors who will graduate this year.

She noted that many of the senior class were marked as “dropped out” when they enrolled at ELC and now each one will graduate in the spring.

Financial performance

The school reports that “as of February 28, 2023, the bank balance is $128,697.88. Many of our near term measures are low risk, including the current asset to liability ratio, financial obligations, and debt to asset ratio. Our cash on hand and cash flow has been high risk, and is now trending to moderate and lower risk. The enrollment variance, since we are such a small school, has been high (7% last year, 3% this year). These percentages are high due to our small school size, while overall our enrollment has indicated positive growth.”

The school recently hired a new bookkeeper, in conjunction with the Finance Committee, who is performing well. The school's audit went well and was an improvement from last year, though the school would like the turnaround time from the auditor to be faster.

Student Enrollment and Recruitment

ELC has 103 students currently enrolled. The school reports that as of 2/14/23, 57 students have enrolled with 11 of these enrollments being new students. The school projects 106 total students for next year with an average of 26 students per grade, as almost all students are returning. The school aims for 26 new 9th graders to enroll, as well as 2-5 more 10th and 11th graders. Because the 11th grade class is currently at 30 students, they do not plan to enroll any new 12th graders. The recruitment and outreach plans include:

- 2/15, 3/2, 3/30, 4/5 Open Houses
- Troy Howard Middle School visit
- Newspaper public notices
- Student Government and Student Leadership Outreach.

Facilities

The school is currently utilizing two facilities located across the street from each other, in addition to two greenhouse spaces. The school has no current plans to expand the facility or enrollment further, though continue to be considered that the space is small for their needs.

Governing Board

The Board Chair reports strong board involvement. The board noted that “Seven engaged and committed board members serve on the ELC’s Board, including our newest board member who joined in January, 2023. In pursuit of the best and most diverse talent, the Board publishes ELC board service opportunities with VolunteerMatch and VolunteerMe and our application for board membership is on our website. Our long-term goal continues to be to grow to 13 members. With the commission's help, the Board once again hired a facilitator for its annual retreat. The focus of the retreat was on building a shared understanding of Board work, behavior, and ethics with the goal of creating more alignment between the parts of our organization and developing a firmer foundation upon which to build the next stage of our Strategic Plan. At our Retreat, the Board adopted the following top priorities for the current year:

Governance

- Improve communications across the Board (including Chair/ED practices)
- Roles and responsibilities review: Board, Chair, ED, Staff
- Add 3-5 board members
- Board professional development: Finance 101; Charter Commission requirements and resources
- Review HR policies and procedures/legal review

Finance/Fundraising

- Review financial model and identify any misinformation concerning role of Public Charter Schools
- Fundraising tools and practices: identify what is needed today
- Develop three-year facilities plan with financial projections

Strategy/Impact

- Evaluate org status on Performance Standards
- Initiate Strategic Planning project

The Board is diligently working through each of these priorities with some specifics identified below:

- Finance/Fundraising priorities – We now have an agreement for the purchase of the adjacent lot and we have the benefit of a good landlord/tenant relationship for the property across the street that houses the balance of our classrooms. Upon reaching our full capacity enrollment goal and adding the necessary facility requirements to accommodate this growth, the Board aims to adopt a formal three-year facilities plan and corresponding three-year financial forecast. Furthermore, with the help of a capacity-building grant from the Unity Foundation, the Board is undergoing professional Development Training to improve its capacity for fundraising and financial support.
- Strategy/Impact. We continue to look for ways to evaluate and document the effectiveness (and the challenges) of our school's progress toward its mission. The Academic Excellence Committee has worked with our Director to document and present clear data to the board regarding specific mission goals. A mid-year presentation was delivered to the Board in January. Each month a faculty member is invited to the board meeting to present a “mission moment”, describing individual impacts from our mission in action. With respect to our Strategic Plan, we are designing a process by which our community and other stakeholders are invited into our strategic planning process. Our educational philosophy is place-based, getting the points of view and learning from our neighbors is essential to our long-term success. As we follow this process, we will have an updated Strategic Plan that will guide us in the coming years – including a fresh look at our facilities needs at that time coupled with the likelihood of a capital campaign to fund facilities improvements and upgrades.

Our greatest challenges (on the Board) continue to be the successful recruitment of qualified board members and ensuring a solid financial foundation for the school.”

The board commented that they recently completed the mid-year evaluation for the Head of School. The Board is interested in incorporating the educational philosophy of the school into the accountability framework. The board noted that they are confident in the performance of the school. They have a tight financial model due to the small size of the school, and are conscious of supporting the Head of School and teachers so as to minimize work overload within that small budget.

The board and school commented on the positive relationship with RSU 3, specifically the mutual benefit of their transportation partnership.

The board members noted that they are excited about the customized section of the Performance Framework and optimistic about the Panorama survey results.

The Board Chair is monitoring the board training requirement. Currently the board has a 50% participation rate.

Finally, the board and school team members noted that their first graduation is June 8th. The graduation will be student-led and faculty-guided.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Maine Charter School Commission is the authorizer of nine charter districts. Each charter district holds a contract with the Commission containing a Performance Framework of indicators and targets the district shall meet to continue operating in Maine. The charter districts are evaluated annually as required by state statute. Data are gathered through the Maine Department of Education, Charter Districts, and Site Visits, as applicable.

The Maine Charter School Commission has established a monitoring visit table for visit frequency and intensity. A copy of the Site Visit Manual can be found HERE. Fiddlehead School of Arts & Sciences was not on cycle to have a Site Visit at the end of the 2022-23 school year. Charter districts that are scheduled for “Document Review Only” are required to submit the same documentation as schools that receive an in-person visit.

Key documents and other information reviewed to determine progress on the charter district’s performance framework and alignment with its mission are as follows:

Document is a major component of the Maine Charter School Commission's monitoring process, which happens throughout the year. Charter districts are required to submit reports and data for review. The table below summarizes the charter districts' report and data submission completion throughout the 2022-23 school year:

2022-23 NARRATIVE

As a result of the 2022-2023 monitoring process, the charter district is encouraged to consider the following:

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AND GROWTH: Considerations will be determined once the MDOE releases data from the administration of the spring 2023 Through-Year Assessment.

STUDENT AND TEACHER/STAFF SCHOOL CLIMATE: The school is not meeting expectations in student and teacher/staff satisfaction rates, as measured on the Panorama survey. We recommend that the school probe to uncover the root cause of the dissatisfaction and develop strategies to increase investment with students and teachers/staff.

CHRONIC ABSENTEEISM: Given the increase in chronic absenteeism from SY2021-22, we recommend that the school develop clear and specific goals and strategies to increase attendance.

In school year 2022-23, Fiddlehead School of Arts and Sciences was successful in the following areas of the Performance Framework:

- Family Engagement: On the Panorama survey, the school ranked in the 70-90% of like-schools nationally on family satisfaction;
- Governing Board Meetings: The School Board held the required number of meetings;
- Facility: The facility supports learning;
- Student Persistence: The school met or exceeded expectations for student retention over the course of the year and year-to-year; and
- Customized Section: The school met or exceeded expectations in all customized goals outlining codification of the academic program.

Additionally, the school identified several other areas of demonstrated strength in the SY2022-23 Self-Assessment Report, including:

- Program Codification: The school reported that they “are nearing completion of a MODEL framework grade by grade that we will use for possible future expansion. This year we strengthened our focus on Emergent Curriculum Approach for grades Pre-K through 2nd; Inquiry Based Approach for grades 3rd through 5th; and Project Based Approach for Grades 6th – 8 th – with an 8th Grade Capstone. The Capstone was once again a HUGE success this past spring.”
- Enrollment: The school received “165 Letters of Intent to Enroll...for September 2023, an all-time high.” This represents 15 school districts and 35% of students from families who identify as economically disadvantaged.

Fiddlehead School of Arts and Sciences has demonstrated areas that require growth on the Performance Framework in the following areas:

- Student and Teacher/Staff School Climate: The school is not meeting expectations in student and teacher/staff satisfaction rates, as measured on the Panorama survey.
- Governing Board Training and Timely Publication of Meeting Minutes and Agendas: The Governing Board did not attend the required number of online trainings, and failed to publish Board Meeting agendas and minutes in a timely way.
- Attendance: The school rate of chronic absenteeism increased in SY22-23 to 35%.

The school provided additional content regarding school climate in their Self-Assessment Report: “The primary take away from our survey is that our culture has been damaged by the pandemic, the separation that was necessary during the pandemic, and the loss of key leadership. We will continue to work on rebuilding our community connection for families and for the staff.”

PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK OUTCOMES

----------------------	-----------------	------------------------	--------------------------

In the spring of 2023, the Maine Department of Education changed its state-wide assessment from the NWEA MAP Assessment to the Through-Year Assessment. As the assessment was new, the Commission asked schools to report the percentage of students assessed at each grade level, the percentage of students “at state expectation” and “above state expectation” on proficiency in both ELA and Math. Ratings would be developed once baselines were established.

Due to the Maine Department of Education’s delay in releasing data from the Spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment, there are no proficiency outcomes that can be reported at this time.

Subsequently, schools expressed a concern with the possibility of double testing students in the spring of 2023 (i.e., administering the NWEA MAP Assessment and the Through-Year Assessment). There were assurances made by the MDOE that the Through-Year Assessment results would show academic growth comparable to the growth results from the NWEA MAP Assessment and based on those assurances schools were allowed to apply for a waiver of the Commission-required NWEA MAP Assessment. ACADIA Academy applied for, and was granted, the waiver for the administration of the NWEA MAP Assessment in the spring. Because the data from the spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment has not been released, academic growth outcomes for students in grades 3-8 cannot be determined; nor can any subgroup analysis be done at this time.

An addendum to this report will be provided once the data are released and analyzed by school personnel and Commission staff.

Below is a report that was written after staff visited with Fiddlehead School of Arts & Sciences in March of SY2022-23. This visit was a chance to gauge the school's progress relative to the Performance Framework. This was a snapshot in time and is not reflected in the final year-end outcomes above.

MID-YEAR MEETING REPORT

2022-23 Mid-Year Meeting
Fiddlehead School of Arts and Sciences

March 23, 2023

On March 17, 2023, the Maine Charter School Commission (MCSC) staff completed a mid-year meeting in-person and via Zoom with the Fiddlehead School of Arts and Sciences (FSAS) Governing Board Chairperson, Joe Mattos; Executive Director, Jacinda Cotton-Castro; RTI & Assessment Coordinator, Jenn Merrill; and Business Manager, Denise Johnson. Topics covered included academic proficiency and growth, student attendance, finances, student enrollment and recruitment, facilities, and the governing board.

Recommendations

- COMPLETE THE AUDIT PROCESS EARLIER - The School Administration and Board Finance Committee should review the audit process to ensure timely reporting. Review loan documents to determine if there is a timeline requirement for the audit to be completed.

- PHILANTHROPY - The Commission encourages the board to consider a donor development and advancement campaign to support sustainability.

Academic

Fiddlehead Academy outperformed the state average in Reading on the NWEA MAP Assessment with 87.5% of the students meeting or exceeding expectations (state average for SY2021-22 was 83.8%). 40% of students met or exceeded projected growth from the Fall 2022 NWEA Map Assessment to the Winter administration. If the trend of 40% continues in the Spring assessment, the school will not meet the expectation in the Performance Framework. In Mathematics, Fiddlehead was close to the state average with 79.6% of students meeting or exceeding the state expectations (state average in math for the SY2021-22 was 81.3%). 45% of students met or exceeded projected growth from the Fall 2022 NWEA Map Assessment to the Winter administration, which is within the range of the national average.

The School Leadership reports that they have prioritized assessment participation and have seen improvement in the number of families participating in testing. During the fall NWEA administration, 0% of families opted out. They noted that they appreciate the insight that the NWEA data provides teachers for instructional purposes and are planning to find additional time in their professional development for teachers to analyze and action plan from the data to inform instruction. The school has professional development for teachers every Friday, where teachers work together to plan in “pods” or participate in whole-school development. Moving forward, the school plans to find two hours of classroom coverage for each teacher after the NWEA administration, so that they can review the data and form action plans with the RTI & Assessment Coordinator.

The School Leadership credits the Reggio Emilia philosophy with their above-state-average Reading scores, as literacy is a key component of their curriculum. The school reports that they had brought in a new math program that was going well pre-COVID and has lost momentum recently. They plan to re-engage with the math curriculum during professional development.

The School Leadership noted several additional areas of academic prioritization, including writing, critical thinking and developing a consistent daily academic schedule. The school plans to develop a measurement tool to assess critical thinking and hopes to incorporate it into future customized criteria in the Performance Framework.

Finally, the school reported that their Principal is not returning next year and will be missed. They are planning to hire for the position.

Attendance

Fiddlehead has recently made great strides in lowering the chronic absenteeism rate, and is currently projecting a rate far below the state average. In SY 2020-21, the school's chronic absenteeism rate was 28.5%, which dropped to 3.8% during SY 2021-22. Thus far this year, the school's rate is 10.8%. If the school maintains a similar rate for the remainder of the academic year, they will meet expectations on the Performance Framework.

Financial Performance

Fiddlehead is currently reporting "low risk" in most Performance Framework financial measures. Fiddlehead School's FY2022 audit was signed off in December and presented to the School Board by the auditor in January 2023. The Commission staff encouraged the school to move this timeline up if possible to assist in their financial planning. The Commission staff encouraged the school to review its loan documents to ensure they complete the audit within the timeline required by the loan provider.

The school noted several philanthropic efforts, including a "Monthly Giving Program" that has brought in additional revenue.

The School Leadership noted that their biggest financial challenge is the additional resources, such as staff, that is required to serve the population at the school of students on IEPs, which has increased. They are researching programs that may be able to support this specific funding challenge.

The school reports that they are interested in expanding their space to have more room to serve students with IEPs, as well as incorporate nature seamlessly into the daily curriculum, as encouraged in their mission. The school plans to submit an amendment to the Commission to expand their facility footprint.

Student Enrollment and Recruitment

Fiddlehead School's current enrollment is 191 students. The enrollment lottery was held on March 15th and the school has every spot in the school filled for next year (208 students), with a waitlist of 173 students. This is a historically high enrollment and waitlist for the school, which has prompted the school to strategically think about future expansion to meet the student and family demand.

Facilities

The Fiddlehead facility reflects its mission and is a warm, welcoming space for students. Because the school is meeting their max student enrollment of 208 students in the current facility, they are eager to expand their facility footprint. While continuing to operate from their current facility, they hope to relocate their youngest grades to yurts on Thompson Apple Orchard in the future to be able to accommodate more students, and support the mission, which is focused on nature-based education.

Governing Board

Joe Mattos, the Board Chair, attended the meeting and reported that the Board and all committees are high functioning. The Board Chair noted that the Board holds the Executive Director and school accountable to annual goals, and staying true to its mission. The Board is engaging with the Executive Director in conversations about future planning, facility expansion and enrollment growth.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Maine Charter School Commission is the authorizer of nine charter districts. Each charter district holds a contract with the Commission containing a Performance Framework of indicators and targets the district shall meet to continue operating in Maine. The charter districts are evaluated annually as required by state statute. Data are gathered through the Maine Department of Education, Charter Districts, and Site Visits, as applicable.

The Maine Charter School Commission has established a monitoring visit table for visit frequency and intensity. A copy of the Site Visit Manual can be found HERE.

Key documents and other information reviewed to determine progress on the charter district's performance framework and alignment with its mission are as follows:

Document is a major component of the Maine Charter School Commission's monitoring process, which happens throughout the year. Charter districts are required to submit reports and data for review. The table below summarizes the charter districts' report and data submission completion throughout the 2022-23 school year:

2022-23 NARRATIVE

On October 11, 2022, under MRS 20-A §2411(7), the Maine Charter School Commission acted not to renew the charter contract for Harpswell Coastal Academy (HCA). As such, the charter expired on June 20, 2023.

Renewal decisions are based on merit and objective evidence of the school's performance over the term of the charter contract in accordance with the Performance Framework developed by the Commission pursuant to Title 20-A, section 2409 and set forth in the charter contract. The Maine Charter School Commission “Resolved, that Harpswell Coastal Academy’s application for renewal was not granted due to its failure to meet or make sufficient progress toward the performance expectations set forth in the charter contract, including enrollment standards, chronic absenteeism, academics, and overall fiscal fragility.”

The Maine Charter School Commission implemented the Charter School Closure Plan with Harpswell Coastal Academy in SY2022-23. This included notifications to parties, disposition of records, and financial filings/due diligence. The school continued to operate under the current program, school calendar, and conditions of the charter through June 20, 2023, when the current charter expired.

Where possible, the school provided evidence about performance in SY2022-23, the final year of the contract. The evidence is included in the Performance Framework below. Several criteria are not applicable, due to the school’s closure. Those categories have not been rated, and explanatory notes are included.

PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK OUTCOMES

----------------------	-----------------	------------------------	--------------------------

In the spring of 2023, the Maine Department of Education changed its state-wide assessment from the NWEA MAP Assessment to the Through-Year Assessment. As the assessment was new, the Commission asked schools to report the percentage of students assessed at each grade level, the percentage of students “at state expectation” and “above state expectation” on proficiency in both ELA and Math. Ratings would be developed once baselines were established.

Due to the Maine Department of Education’s delay in releasing data from the Spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment, there are no proficiency outcomes that can be reported at this time.

Subsequently, schools expressed a concern with the possibility of double testing students in the spring of 2023 (i.e., administering the NWEA MAP Assessment and the Through-Year Assessment). There were assurances made by the MDOE that the Through-Year Assessment results would show academic growth comparable to the growth results from the NWEA MAP Assessment and based on those assurances schools were allowed to apply for a waiver of the Commission-required NWEA MAP Assessment. ACADIA Academy applied for, and was granted, the waiver for the administration of the NWEA MAP Assessment in the spring. Because the data from the spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment has not been released, academic growth outcomes for students in grades 3-8 cannot be determined; nor can any subgroup analysis be done at this time.

An addendum to this report will be provided once the data are released and analyzed by school personnel and Commission staff.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Maine Charter School Commission is the authorizer of nine charter districts. Each charter district holds a contract with the Commission containing a Performance Framework of indicators and targets the district shall meet to continue operating in Maine. The charter districts are evaluated annually as required by state statute. Data are gathered through the Maine Department of Education, Charter Districts, and Site Visits, as applicable.

The Maine Charter School Commission has established a monitoring visit table for visit frequency and intensity. A copy of the Site Visit Manual can be found HERE. Maine Academy of Natural Sciences was on cycle to have a Site Visit at the end of the 2022-23 school year.

Key documents and other information reviewed to determine progress on the charter district’s performance framework and alignment with its mission are as follows:

Document is a major component of the Maine Charter School Commission’s monitoring process, which happens throughout the year. Charter districts are required to submit reports and data for review. The table below summarizes the charter districts' report and data submission completion throughout the 2022-23 school year:

2022-23 NARRATIVE

As a result of the 2022-2023 monitoring process, the charter district is encouraged to consider the following:

CHRONIC ABSENTEEISM: MEANS demonstrated a significant improvement in attendance, with the reduction of the percentage of students who are chronically absent to 35%. We recommend that the school continue to implement the attendance strategies with fidelity with the goal of continuing to reduce the percentage of students who are chronically absent.

TEACHER/STAFF SCHOOL CLIMATE: Out of the four required scales on the Panorama Survey, the school exceeded expectations in two, and has room for growth in two, resulting in an overall rating of “does not meet expectations.” We recommend that the school work to understand the root cause of teacher/staff satisfaction rates and implement strategies for increasing teacher/staff investment.

In school year 2022-23, Maine Academy of Natural Sciences was successful in the following areas of the Performance Framework:

- High School Completion: With 88% of students graduating in 4 years, MEAN's graduation rate is meeting expectations on the Performance Framework and exceeding the state's annual goal for 2023, a significant increase from years past;
- Academics/Postsecondary: Accuplacer results will not be included on the Annual Report until SY2023-24. However, MEANS already has 76% (reading) and 86% (math) meeting the goal;
- Postsecondary Activities: MEANS is exceeding expectations, with 100% of students participating in at least one postsecondary opportunity;
- Student and Family Satisfaction: The school is exceeding expectations as measured by the Panorama survey;

- Governing Board Meetings: The school has held the required numbers of meetings;
- Timely and Accurate Reports: The school is exceeding expectations in the percentage of reports that are delivered on-time and accurate to the Commission;
- The Facility: The facility is welcoming and supports programming;
- Student Persistence: The school is meeting expectations in the number of students that remain at the school throughout the year, as well as the number of students that plan to return next year; and
- Customized NWEA Goal: The school exceeded expectations in four of the customized goals; including students meeting individual attendance goals, the percentage of students who graduated, the percentage of students at campus and threshold who participated in NWEA testing. Additionally, the school met the customized engagement goal for students in threshold.

At the conclusion of SY2022-23, MEANS successfully completed an Intervention Plan on which the school was placed in SY 2021-22. The Commission reviewed the progress that MEANS had made on the criteria in the Level 2 Intervention Plan and determined that the school had met the majority of targets, specifically related to improving low graduation rates and overall student performance. The school made strong progress in decreasing the chronic absenteeism rate.

The school provided context to support the areas of demonstrated strength in the SY2022-23 Self-Assessment Report, including:

- Academics: “We implemented a strengthened planning curriculum that supports our academic goals. Teachers also incorporated Habits of Work into all classes and advisory as outlined in our intervention letter goals. Our Director of Curriculum and Instruction has worked incredibly hard to bolster the instruction during Intensives to very positive effect. Students cite Intensives as one of their favorite aspects of our school’s curriculum.”
- Assessment: “Testing participation was incredibly high, a trend that we have seen over the last few years, and achievement for our seniors on Accuplacer is already at MCSC goal levels.”
- School Climate: “Our Panorama data is strong across all three stakeholder groups and above average for all three criteria in the Family category. School Climate is in the 80% for students and reflects the hard work we have put into creating a strong supporting school culture. We have done this through focused meetings, advisory curriculum, and Restorative Practices. Students arrive enthusiastic and engaged.”

- Staff Retention: “Organizationally, MeANS is very strong. We have spent the year preparing for some changes at the administrative level. We will boast no staff turnover this year except for one Threshold Teacher retirement and the departure of our Business Manager. It’s safe to say that faculty and staff are largely very happy at the school and excited about the new additions we have coming next year (Title I ELA teacher, two AmeriCorp volunteers, new Assistant Head of School, etc.).”
- Governing Board: “We have had some shifts on our Governing Board, but the new members are very active and contributing positively. Of note, is the fact that our Academic Affairs Committee has made upwards of 10 school visits this year! They have attended classes, field trips, Threshold Mondays, Intensives, etc. They have provided detailed written reflections which have been shared with teachers after their visits.

MEANS has demonstrated areas that require growth on the Performance Framework in the following areas:

- Teacher/Staff School Climate: Out of the four required scales on the Panorama Survey, the school exceeded expectations in two, and has room for growth in two, resulting in an overall rating of “does not meet expectations.”
- Governing Board Effectiveness: The Governing Board did not complete the required number of online board trainings, and did not meet expectations in timely publication of board meeting agendas and minutes.
- Attendance: While MEANS show a significant improvement in attendance, with the reduction of the percentage of students who are chronically absent to 35%, the school still has room for improvement to meet expectations on the Performance Framework.

Of note, the school reported that “We are no longer using GWH (Good Will Hinkley) for Finance and HR and are moving to a purchased services agreement instead. We are also currently creating a contract for IT services.”

PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK OUTCOMES

----------------------	-----------------	------------------------	--------------------------

In the spring of 2023, the Maine Department of Education changed its state-wide assessment from the NWEA MAP Assessment to the Through-Year Assessment. As the assessment was new, the Commission asked schools to report the percentage of students assessed at each grade level, the percentage of students “at state expectation” and “above state expectation” on proficiency in both ELA and Math. Ratings would be developed once baselines were established.

Due to the Maine Department of Education’s delay in releasing data from the Spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment, there are no proficiency outcomes that can be reported at this time.

An addendum to this report will be provided once the data are released and analyzed by school personnel and Commission staff.

Below is a report that was written after staff visited with Maine Academy of Natural Sciences in March of SY2022-23. This visit was a chance to gauge the school's progress relative to the Performance Framework. This was a snapshot in time and is not reflected in the final year-end outcomes above.

MID-YEAR MEETING REPORT

2022-23 Mid-Year Meeting Maine Academy of Natural Sciences

April 7, 2023

On March 2, 2023, the Maine Charter School Commission staff completed a mid-year meeting in-person and via Zoom with Mike Muir, Maine Academy of Natural Sciences (MeANS) Governing Board Chairperson; Anna Perkins, Board Member; Evan Coleman, Director of Curriculum and Instruction; Beth Chistopher, Business Manager; Becky Dennison, Dean of the Threshold Program; Christine Sullivan, Director of Special Education/Assistant Head of School; Matt Newberg, Head of School; and Dani Best, Dean of Students. Topics covered included academic proficiency and growth, student attendance, projected graduation rates, finances, student enrollment and recruitment, facilities, and the governing board.

Recommendations

- College Readiness: As you track college-readiness with the Accuplacer assessment, consider adding to that tracker your students who are currently taking college credits successfully as an additional way to illustrate the number of total students who are demonstrating college readiness.
- Graduation: Consider reporting to the Commission your 5-year and 6-year graduation rates. Although it is not currently part of the Performance Framework, because of the unique nature of the Threshold program, those metrics would be helpful for the Commission to review.
- Threshold Survey: The Director of Curriculum and Instruction mentioned that you collected survey data about why students enroll in Threshold. Consider if it would be helpful to summarize some of this information for the Commission when reporting program success.
- Finance: Use the 3-Year Plan as a platform for the Board and school to develop a financial plan that minimizes the deficit, especially while carrying debt. Consider cutting expenses and raising funds before the end of the year to finish with a surplus.

Academic

During SY2021-22, 81.8% of students met or exceeded the state benchmark on the NWEA MAP Growth Assessment in Reading. The school was approaching the state average of 83.8%. At the mid-year meeting, MeANS demonstrated improvement in growth from the Spring 2022 to the Fall 2022 NWEA MAP Growth assessment, with 49.9% of 11th and 12th graders meeting their projected RIT scores in Reading, which is an increase of 3.9% from the previous year.

In SY2021-22, 73.5% of students met or exceeded the state benchmark on the NWEA MAP Growth Assessment in Math. The school was approaching the state average of 73.5%. At the mid-year meeting, MeANS demonstrated no change in growth from the Spring 2022 to the Fall 2022 NWEA MAP Growth assessment, with 53.3% of 11th and 12th graders meeting their projected RIT scores in math.

The school team reports that testing culture has improved dramatically at MeANS with a concerted effort from leadership and staff. The school notes that fall testing participation rates were all above 90% and that the Accuplacer participation rate on Campus was 100%. The school shared a grade-level growth data chart produced for MeANS from NWEA that showed the following high growth when comparing fall 2021 to fall 2022:

- 10th grade school conditional growth percentile in math: 31%
- 11th grade school conditional growth percentile in math: 98%
- 10th grade school conditional growth percentile in reading: 73%
- 11th grade school conditional growth percentile in reading: 89%
- 10th grade school conditional growth percentile in language arts: 96%
- 11th grade school conditional growth percentile in language arts: 97%

The leadership team reports that they attribute this growth to academic rigor increasing throughout the school, which has been the focus of the Director of Curriculum and Instruction. In particular, the leadership team has focused professional development on making Intensives, and project-based learning in general, more rigorous and likened this year's Intensives to be on-par with community college level learning. Additionally, professional development has focused on re-engagement with parts of their mission, such as outdoor learning.

The Dean of the Threshold Program noted that teachers use a variety of different modalities to help students engage in learning, such as projects, on-line courses, and direction toward areas of high interest. The Dean reports that seven Threshold students will graduate early this year, and one is currently taking 12 credits at University of Maine Farmington.

Attendance

In SY2021-22, MeANS's chronic absenteeism rate was 58.1%, a decrease of 17.7% from the previous year (SY2020-21). Campus chronic absenteeism was 61% as of mid-year and Threshold was 27%, a decrease from last year. The school is reporting a full school chronic absenteeism rate of 48%, a decrease of 10% from last year.

The school is focused on attendance, and is closely monitoring each student who is demonstrating attendance challenges. The school attributes the improvement in chronic absenteeism to engaging programming and community building including a renewed focus on advisory, a new coffee house, more community events to celebrate learning, meetings with each senior to address any learning gaps toward graduation, high staff participation in events, truancy meetings and cash prizes for strong attendance.

The school acknowledges that the rates of chronic absenteeism remain too high, and notes the following barriers to all students being in school consistently:

- Sickness, including COVID quarantines;
- Transportation, including a large catchment area where some students are on the bus for more than two hours each day;
- High anxiety among students and families.

Graduation

In SY2021-22, MeANS graduation rate was 56.6%. The school anticipates that 81% of seniors will graduate from MeANS this year (88% from Campus and 78% from Threshold), which would be a significant improvement over past years.

The school attributes this success to proactive meetings with students outlining clear pathways to graduation, strong staff investment in building positive relationships with students, and multiple 1:1 meetings between seniors and the Dean of Students about plans to graduate.

Financial Performance

As of the mid-year meeting, four out of eight of the financial criteria in the Performance Framework are calculated as higher-risk, two are moderate risk and two are lower-risk. The school noted that they are currently operating at a financial loss, but are working on it and are not concerned with the current expenses. They are in year two of a 5-Year Plan that includes operating at a deficit, which is diminishing each year. Historically, the school operated with financial support from Good will-Hinckley, but they are operating with more and more independence from that organization. The school team and Board noted that they are meeting soon to discuss how financial gaps could be closed more quickly than originally planned. We ask that the school keep us updated on their plans.

The Board Chair notes that they recruited a member with a strong development background and the school has started a fundraising campaign, with the entire board contributing financially.

The school team and Board reported that low enrollment is a major driver of the financial situation. The school reports that interest in the Threshold program is increasing, with a current waitlist to be admitted to the program.

Student Enrollment and Recruitment

MeANS currently has 158 students enrolled. They plan to submit a proposal to amend their contracted enrollment, with a goal of 120 Campus students/70 Threshold students in SY2023-24, increasing to 120 Campus students/80 Threshold students in SY2024-25. The current plan is to remain constant at a school total of 200 students.

The Head of School recently presented the plan to decrease planned enrollment to the board, noting that when the Community Regional Charter School expanded to include high school students, student enrollment at MeANS from their largest sending district - Skowhegan - declined significantly.

The school believes that the 9th and 10th grade cohorts will support a strong family-to-family recruitment effort. They plan to maintain a cohort model, with 30 students per grade-level.

The school acknowledged that they could expand Threshold easily given the demand, but because of the specificity of the program, an additional teacher is required for each 10 students, which would contribute negatively to the school's financial concerns.

Facilities

MeANS is currently expanding the outdoor programming offered at their campus and will soon unveil a new agricultural barn, built with support from a RREV grant.

Governing Board

The school reports that "we currently have 12 Board members. The board is extremely active and involved in the school. We had 100% Board participation in our annual fund, contributing over double the previous year. We have developed voluntary pre-board meeting training workshops that have been well attended on topics such as School Budget, Project Based Learning and Curriculum. Additionally, we have developed an exciting launch to renew our Strategic Plan later this spring.”

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Maine Charter School Commission is the authorizer of nine charter districts. Each charter district holds a contract with the Commission containing a Performance Framework of indicators and targets the district shall meet to continue operating in Maine. The charter districts are evaluated annually as required by state statute. Data are gathered through the Maine Department of Education, Charter Districts, and Site Visits, as applicable.

The Maine Charter School Commission has established a monitoring visit table for visit frequency and intensity. A copy of the Site Visit Manual can be found HERE. Maine Arts Academy was not on cycle to have a Site Visit at the end of the 2022-23 school year. Charter districts that are scheduled for “Document Review Only” are required to submit the same documentation as schools that receive an in-person visit.

Key documents and other information reviewed to determine progress on the charter district’s performance framework and alignment with its mission are as follows:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • School Calendar 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • School Leader Evaluation Tool

Document is a major component of the Maine Charter School Commission's monitoring process, which happens throughout the year. Charter districts are required to submit reports and data for review. The table below summarizes the charter districts' report and data submission completion throughout the 2022-23 school year:

2022-23 NARRATIVE

As a result of the 2022-2023 monitoring process, the charter district is encouraged to consider the following:

STUDENT SCHOOL CLIMATE: Because student satisfaction rates are below expectations on the Panorama Survey, we recommend that the school work to understand the root cause of student satisfaction and implement strategies for increasing investment.

In school year 2022-23, Maine Arts Academy was successful in the following areas of the Performance Framework:

- High School Completion: With 98% of students graduating in 4 years, MeAA's graduation rate is exceeding expectations on the Performance Framework and is higher than the state annual target for 2023;
- Academics/Postsecondary: Accuplacer results will not be included on the Annual Report until SY2023-24. However, MeAA already has 95.6% (reading) and 92.3% (math) meeting the goal, including subgroups of students;
- Postsecondary Activities: MeAA is exceeding expectations, with 100% of students participating in at least one postsecondary opportunity;
- Teacher/Staff and Family Satisfaction: The school is exceeding expectations as measured by the Panorama survey;
- Governing Board Meetings: The school has held the required numbers of meetings;
- Governing Board Professional Development: The Governing Board completed the required number of online board trainings;

- Timely and Accurate Reports: The school is exceeding expectations in the percentage of reports that are delivered on-time and accurate to the Commission;
- The Facility: The facility is welcoming and supports programming;
- Student Attendance: The school reports a chronic absenteeism rate of 16.4%, meeting expectations on the Performance Framework;
- Student Persistence: The school is exceeding expectations in the number of students that remain at the school throughout the year, as well as the number of students that plan to return next year; and
- Customized NWEA Goal: The school exceeded expectations in the customize goal that 85%-95% of MEAA students will have participated in at least two activities to share their art with the community such as performances, art shows, dance competitions, volunteer performances, fashion shows and other opportunities to share their passion for the arts.

The school provided context to support the areas of demonstrated strength in the SY2022-23 Self-Assessment Report, including:

- Arts Inclusion: “When our students engage in the arts, they develop confidence in their own skills that crosses into the academic classroom. Our students learn their value and their enthusiasm and self-assurance grows throughout their four years in high school. Our Arts Faculty Chair focused on guiding students in their progression through each program’s prerequisites and course offerings. Administration worked with arts teachers to help foster student exposure to arts in the community while also supporting MeAA students to share their talents and passion for the arts in the central Maine community.”
- Professional Development: “Great Schools Partnerships (GSP) was contracted to return and provide our teachers with continued professional development in both August and January. Previously, in spring of 2022, GSP coached teachers in creating grading rubrics and assessments that aligned with the Maine Learning Results. In the 2022/2023 school year, GSP worked with teachers on providing consistent and timely instructional feedback and differentiating teaching methods to reach all learners in the classroom. GSP integrated assessments that were created by MeAA teachers into the workshop and teams of faculty members examined and critiqued assessments using the School Reform Initiative’s protocol, developed by Gene Thompson-Grove. This continued focus in professional development empowers teachers in both delivery of content material and their ability to accurately assess and monitor student learning.”
- Enrollment: “Successful learners at Maine Arts Academy share their positive experiences with others in the community. Maine Arts academy has worked diligently to grow at a pace that is comfortable and manageable while maintaining an upward trajectory. Through word-of-mouth, social media advertising (Instagram, Facebook, and now TikTok), and newspaper and radio.”

- Community Partnerships: “Many key relationships that were sought out during year one have been sustained and/or improved with partners such as:
 - University of Maine at Augusta: Three of our faculty members are also adjunct faculty for UMA. Early college courses are offered through UMA, including dual enrollment courses, which are taught on campus.
 - Kennebec Valley Community College: Early college classes offered through KVCC.
 - Colby College: Three of our faculty members are also adjunct faculty for Colby. We hosted a visiting professor from Colby’s dance department to work closely with our dance students, which as stated earlier, led to continued opportunities for collaboration. MeAA dance students were the only dance students exclusively invited to perform on stage with Colby dance students at Colby Dance Company’s Break, Burn, Build at Colby’s Strider Theater. Students in our visual arts department were featured at Colby’s Youth Art Month exhibition held at the Ticonic Gallery in downtown Waterville.
 - Viles Arboretum is a new partnership for us! Students helped plant trees for them on the Day of Caring and Viles Arboretum staff spent a day with science and art teachers discussing methods to utilize their grounds to expand curriculum for the 2023/2024 school year. We look forward to a long relationship with them as our new property abuts their 224 acres of botanical gardens.
 - Windsor Elementary School’s 8th graders joined us to view our spring recital. Poland Bus Company graciously transported them to campus and back for no additional fee. Our admissions office also visited Windsor and presented information about Maine Arts Academy.
 - Maine Veterans’ Home partnered with us on Day of Caring. MeAA students performed for residents at the new veterans’ home in Augusta. We also discussed a long-term partnership with them inviting their residents to future recitals, exhibitions, and performances.
 - The City of Augusta partnered with us during the Day of Caring as well. MeAA students cleaned and groomed city sports fields. We look forward to a long relationship with them as they are our neighbors.

- MeAA partnered with United Way to participate in Day of Caring once again!
- MeAA partnered with the Colonial Theater in Augusta and met with them on several occasions for future opportunities to expand history and art curriculum. Photography students took pictures of antique doors for a future collaborative art show. The board president of the theater graciously offered use of the theater for potential classroom and performance space.
- MeAA is partnering with Stained Glass Express, the largest distributor of stained glass in New England, to offer stained glass courses next year at their facility in Manchester. Students will be bussed from campus to the Stained Glass Express expert instructors.
- School Climate: “The Panorama Survey showed that staff morale was in good standing once again. This is an area of strength for our school. 89% of staff members said the working environment at the school was positive. This score is up 14% from last year. 84% of faculty members stated they feel their input towards individualizing their own professional development opportunities is valued. This score increased by 17%. 68% of teachers reported having learned new teaching strategies, 35% more than last year’s survey. 74% of teachers responded favorably to learning about teaching from the school leaders, up 32% from last year. 95% of teachers feel that the school has been supportive of their growth as a teacher and 84% of teachers reported that school leaders set a positive tone for the school.

MeAA has demonstrated areas that require growth on the Performance Framework in the following area:

- Student School Climate: The school’s student satisfaction rates are below expectations in School Climate when compared to other like-schools nationally.

The school provided the following context for the student results on the Panorama survey: “Only 45% of students responded favorably to the physical space of our school. Because we have relocated to 310 Cony Road in Augusta, we believe that this percentage will increase in favorability. The previous space had many challenges.”

PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK OUTCOMES

----------------------	-----------------	------------------------	--------------------------

In the spring of 2023, the Maine Department of Education changed its state-wide assessment from the NWEA MAP Assessment to the Through-Year Assessment. As the assessment was new, the Commission asked schools to report the percentage of students assessed at each grade level, the percentage of students “at state expectation” and “above state expectation” on proficiency in both ELA and Math. Ratings would be developed once baselines were established.

Due to the Maine Department of Education’s delay in releasing data from the Spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment, there are no proficiency outcomes that can be reported at this time.

An addendum to this report will be provided once the data are released and analyzed by school personnel and Commission staff.

MID-YEAR MEETING REPORT

2022-23 Mid-Year Meeting Maine Arts Academy

March 28, 2023

On March 20, 2023, the Maine Charter School Commission staff conducted a mid-year meeting via Zoom with Sherry Gilbert, the Maine Arts Academy Governing Board Chairperson; Shelley Reed, Board Member; Heather King, Head of School; Jill Alves, Business Manager; Jasen Richardson, Dean of Students and Academic Chair; and Rachel Roberge, Principal. Topics covered included academic proficiency and growth, student attendance, projected graduation rates, finances, student enrollment and recruitment, facilities, and the governing board.

Recommendations

- FINANCE
 - Please provide details of the loan compliance covenants and other restrictions including audit delivery deadlines, minimum free cash flow for debt service, etc.
 - Please provide a reconciliation of borrowing authorized by MCSC and actual borrowing transaction(s).
- ACADEMICS
 - Please send the MCSC any NWEA state data, if you are able to receive the information from the state that is currently suppressed.

Academic

The Maine Arts Academy's SY 2021-22 end-of-year NWEA Map Growth data was suppressed at the state level. We do not currently have information about how the school is performing relative to the state average. The school reports that the state has not released the NWEA data to the school because of the small "n" size of certain subgroups. Moving forward, the school plans to administer the NWEA assessment to 10th grade, as required by the state, and possibly to incoming 9th graders. The school has shifted focus to the Accuplacer assessment, and reports appreciating the assessment shift to college readiness.

The school has administered the Accuplacer assessment and, while the reporting of results is not required this year via the Performance Framework, the school opted to report strong results during the midyear meeting. The school administered the assessment to all 11th and 12th graders, except for those that already passed last year during the pilot phase. The school reports that the assessment administration was “very positive” and “validating” for students. 92% of 11th graders and 93% of 12th graders met the college readiness bar on the Performance Framework, exceeding expectations on the Performance Framework. The school identified as a goal raising the percentage of students on IEPs who met the college readiness bar.

The School Leadership reported that teacher training focused on differentiation and teacher collaboration are current successes. The school aims to grow their photography and film studies programs, but note that funding is a challenge. The team reports that the interdisciplinary nature of their program is flourishing due to strong teacher collaboration.

The Leadership team noted that they aim to promote faculty independence and satisfaction by providing teachers autonomy, and balancing that autonomy with quick support when a teacher is struggling in class.

A Board Member noted that teachers on the Academic Excellence Committee speak easily about their goals and collaborate thoughtfully to improve teaching and learning.

Attendance

The SY 2021-22 chronic absenteeism rate for the school was 23.2%, putting them below the state average but not meeting expectations on the Performance Framework. The school reports that they believe the state reported number to be incorrect and are attempting to work with the state to understand the difference in the school's vs. the state's calculation. The school reported a 9.86% chronic absenteeism rate for SY 2021-22 based on Infinite Campus reports.

The school reports the mid-year chronic absenteeism rate as 9.86%. If the school maintains this rate they will exceed expectations on the Performance Framework. The school notes that they are nervous this will not be the state reported number based on historic discrepancies.

Graduation

Maine Arts Academy's SY 2021-22 graduation rate was suppressed by the state due to a low “n” value of students not graduating. The state has certified to the school that their graduation rate is above 90%, putting them in the exceeds expectations category in the Performance Framework.

For SY 2022-23, 97.7% of seniors are on track to graduate. One student (representing the 2.3% not on track to graduate) transferred to an Adult Education program.

The school noted that the state may report a higher percentage of students not graduating this year because of a cohort of students who briefly attended MEAA because they believed the school would not uphold the state's vaccination mandate. When they learned that the school does uphold the mandate the students left the school and are currently unaccounted for and may contribute to a higher "drop out" percentage for the school.

Financial performance

While the school is "lower risk" in most financial categories, they note that they are being careful with money because of their new facility purchase. The school has taken out loans with Kennebec Savings and Rural Development. The construction loan is approximately $500,000.

The school hopes to bring in additional revenue through increased enrollment, now that they have a larger facility, and have submitted a charter amendment to the Commission to be considered during the April meeting.

The school team noted that the changes to the EPS formula has provided a funding increase.

The school continues to be challenged by the relationship with their current landlord, who submitted a lawsuit claiming the school owes him additional funds. The school settled to pay him $100,000, or $10,000/month over the next ten months.

The school has applied for over $2,000,000 in Congressional funding and the board notes that they have an active Development Committee, including hiring a consultant to pursue grants.

Student Enrollment and Recruitment

Current enrollment at MEAA is 210 students. For next year, the school is reporting 240 students. They are comfortable going 10% over the projected 245 students for next year if there is student interest in attending the school. The school has added three new positions to manage the increased enrollment.

The school notes that they appreciated the partnership with Lincoln Barretta to help them increase enrollment. Because the contract is ending this month, they have decided to move recruitment in-house, as the contract was for $36,000.

The school is focused on student retention and maintaining their current student population as they move locations.

The school submitted an amendment to the Commission to increase enrollment 20 students/year for the next several years and plans to submit an amendment next year requesting a grade level expansion to 7th and 8th grade.

Facilities

The school reports that they are thrilled to be leaving their current facility, which limits the size of student enrollment. The new facility has the occupancy permit and the fire marshall inspection complete. The school is launching construction at this time and they plan to move in for the start of SY 2023-24.

Governing Board

The Board Chair reports that the board is well-rounded and includes a former Superintendent, financial expert, special education teacher, a former Charter Commission Member, an attorney and an arts expert. The board member in attendance reported that the board is “very cohesive and enjoys working together.”

Board committees submit agenda items to the full board that are discussed. The board reports that they are pleased with seeing school performance increase from last year to this year.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Maine Charter School Commission is the authorizer of nine charter districts. Each charter district holds a contract with the Commission containing a Performance Framework of indicators and targets the district shall meet to continue operating in Maine. The charter districts are evaluated annually as required by state statute. Data are gathered through the Maine Department of Education, Charter Districts, and Site Visits, as applicable.

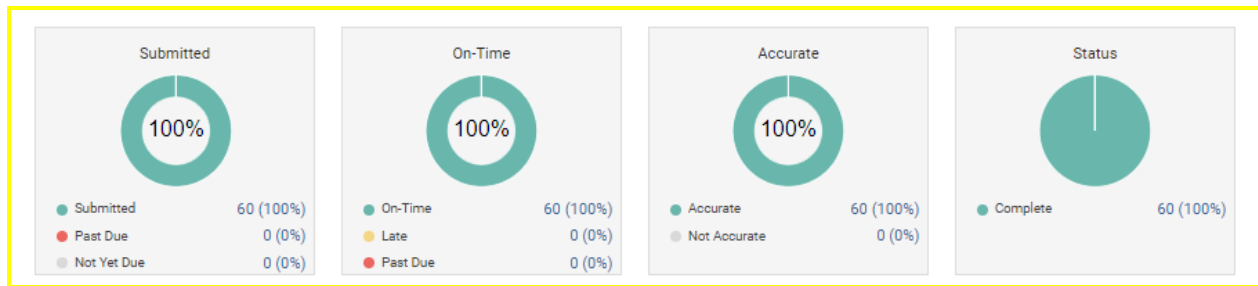

The Maine Charter School Commission has established a monitoring visit table for visit frequency and intensity. A copy of the Site Visit Manual can be found HERE. Maine Connections Academy was on cycle to have a Site Visit at the end of the 2022-23 school year.

Key documents and other information reviewed to determine progress on the charter district’s performance framework and alignment with its mission are as follows:

Document review is a major component of the Maine Charter School Commission’s monitoring process, which happens throughout the year. Charter districts are required to submit reports and data for review. The table below summarizes the charter districts' report and data submission completion throughout the 2022-23 school year:

2022-23 NARRATIVE

In school year 2022-23, Maine Connections Academy was successful in the following areas of the Performance Framework:

- High School Completion: With 89.5% of students graduating in 4 years, MCA's graduation rate is meeting expectations on the Performance Framework and exceeding the annual state target for 2023;
- Academics/Postsecondary: Accuplacer results will not be included on the Annual Report until SY2023-24. However, MCA already has 96% (reading) and 92% (math) meeting the goal. 100% of students met the ASVAB goal, and 58% (EW) and 50% (Math) met the SAT goal.
- Postsecondary Activities: 100% of students participated in at least one postsecondary opportunity;
- Teacher/Staff, Family and Student Satisfaction: The school is exceeding expectations as measured by the Panorama survey with all stakeholder groups;
- Governing Board Meetings: The school has held the required numbers of meetings and posted agendas and minutes in a timely fashion;
- Timely and Accurate Reports: The school is exceeding expectations in the percentage of reports that are delivered on-time and accurate to the Commission;
- The Facility: The facility is welcoming and supports programming;
- Student Attendance: The school reports a chronic absenteeism rate of 10.9%, meeting expectations on the Performance Framework; and
- Student Persistence: The school is exceeding expectations in the number of students that remain at the school throughout the year, and meeting expectations in the number of students that plan to return next year.

Not all Board members completed the required training modules during the 2022-23 school year; however, they are approaching expectations in this category.

Maine Connections Academy is currently in the penultimate year of the current contract. The Maine Charter School Commission will vote on the school’s renewal during the October 2023 Commission Meeting.

End of Year Meeting

On June 6, 2023, the Maine Charter School Commission staff met with Billy Thompson, Maine Connections Academy Governing Board Chairperson; Walter Wallace, Head of School; Lauren Thompson, Assistant Principal; Joy Kiely, Special Education Director; Connie Ronco, Board Member; and Amy Trunnell, Chief Financial Officer to review the MCA charter application timeline and to discuss updated data and information.

Attendance

MCA is reporting a 2023 chronic absenteeism rate of 10.9%, which is below the state average and meets expectations on the Performance Framework. MCA has consistently low chronic absenteeism and credits the success with their proactive tiered process whereby they identify students who are at risk of low attendance, and meet with them and their families to develop a plan. Students and families have regular check-ins with the MCA learning coach to problem-solve, and hear frequent and consistent messaging about the importance of attendance.

Graduation

MCA reports that 89.5% of seniors graduated in 4-years. This increase allows MCA to meet expectations on the Performance Framework and exceeds the annual state target for 2023, and shows a strong improvement in graduation data over time. MCA attributes this improvement to efforts to improve teaching and learning, which has led to increased course passing rates, which ultimately leads to a higher graduation rate as more students are on-cohort and mastering the required standards.

MCA’s passing rates reflect a positive trend across all grades and subject areas from 2019-20 to the first semester of 2021-22, as shown in the below table, noted from MCA approved application to increase student enrollment.

MCA 2021-22	94%	86%	90%	92%

MCA 2020-21	96%	90%	90%	96%
MCA 2019-20	92%	86%	88%	86%

Over the past several years, MCA has increased support staff in order to increase student achievement. Positions include a full time math interventionist, a full time reading interventionist, a full time staff member who oversees all academic and behavior interventions, a Multiple Pathways staff member to support students who are off-cohort, a special education teacher, an advisory teacher to support students and families with academic planning, a social worker and a full time staff member who provides academic and behavioral support to students on an IEP. Additionally, the school decreased the number of students in each advisory to increase connections and points-of-contact with families. MCA added a new intervention program to increase engagement from reluctant learners called Lexia Power UP. Finally, the school has focused staff professional development on increasing student engagement in a virtual setting and has hosted several Marzano Group trainings and staff Book Study.

PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK OUTCOMES

----------------------	-----------------	------------------------	--------------------------

In the spring of 2023, the Maine Department of Education changed its state-wide assessment from the NWEA MAP Assessment to the Through-Year Assessment. As the assessment was new, the Commission asked schools to report the percentage of students assessed at each grade level, the percentage of students “at state expectation” and “above state expectation” on proficiency in both ELA and Math. Ratings would be developed once baselines were established.

Due to the Maine Department of Education’s delay in releasing data from the Spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment, there are no proficiency outcomes that can be reported at this time.

Subsequently, schools expressed a concern with the possibility of double testing students in the spring of 2023 (i.e., administering the NWEA MAP Assessment and the Through-Year Assessment). There were assurances made by the MDOE that the Through-Year Assessment results would show academic growth comparable to the growth results from the NWEA MAP Assessment and based on those assurances schools were allowed to apply for a waiver of the Commission-required NWEA MAP Assessment. ACADIA Academy applied for, and was granted, the waiver for the administration of the NWEA MAP Assessment in the spring. Because the data from the spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment has not been released, academic growth outcomes for students in grades 3-8 cannot be determined; nor can any subgroup analysis be done at this time.

An addendum to this report will be provided once the data are released and analyzed by school personnel and Commission staff.

Below is a report that was written after staff visited with Maine Connections Academy in March of SY2022-23. This visit was a chance to gauge the school's progress relative to the Performance Framework. This was a snapshot in time and is not reflected in the final year-end outcomes above.

MID-YEAR MEETING REPORT

2022-23 Mid-Year Meeting
Maine Connections Academy

March 30, 2023

On March 8, 2023, the Maine Charter School Commission staff completed a mid-year meeting in person and via Zoom with Billy Thompson, Maine Connections Academy Governing Board Chairperson; Walter Wallace, Head of School; Lauren Thompson, Assistant Principal; and Amy Trunnell, Chief Financial Officer. Topics covered included academic proficiency and growth, student attendance, projected graduation rates, finances, student enrollment and recruitment, facilities, and the governing board.

Recommendations

- No recommendations at this time.

Academic

Maine Connections Academy (MCA) outperformed the state average in English Language Arts on the NWEA MAP Assessment with 90.4% of the students meeting or exceeding expectations (state average for SY2021-22 was 83.8%). In Reading, MCA's NWEA MAP projected RIT growth is 41.2%, which is below the national average (45%-55%). In Language, NWEA MAP Growth's projected RIT growth is 55.4%, above the national average.

MCA outperformed the state average in Math on the NWEA MAP Assessment with 92.3% of students meeting or exceeding expectations (state average for SY2021-22 was 81.3%). The percentage of students meeting school-wide projected RIT growth in math is 49.5%, meeting the national average for growth.

School leadership reports that they are focused on retaining students and supporting them to pass their classes successfully. The flexibility of the schedule allows teachers to spend time supporting students individually and in small groups to master standards needed for class completion. The school team reports that the passing rate has increased to 92% of students passing classes. The team notes that supporting all students has been the focal point of professional development. Teams meet to discuss students and put action plans in place to support them to succeed. Professional development has been more structured this year, which has been met with positive feedback from the teaching staff. The school recently completed a professional development cycle with the Marzano Group.

The school has determined that they will administer the NWEA in the state-required/ Commission-required grades and the Accuplacer or SAT in high school. MCA has administered the Accuplacer to all students in 12th grade and reports that they have already met the SY2023-24 participation rates and performance target. The students that elected to take the SAT opted out of the Accuplacer assessment.

The school team noted that their teachers are focused on increasing the academic performance of students in subgroup populations, specifically those on IEPs. Teachers use "Supervision Meetings" to discuss individual student data and to action plan. The school has four teachers devoted to special education who meet with the Special Education Director regularly to review performance data.

Attendance

MCA's SY2021-22 rate of chronic absenteeism was 7.9%, where they exceeded expectations on the Performance Framework. The school reports that their current rate of chronic absenteeism is 8.96%, putting them significantly below the state average. If their rate of chronic absenteeism continues until the end of the year, the school will again exceed expectations on the Performance Framework.

The school noted that students are required to be in school online each day for a minimum of five hours to be counted as present. Every live lesson is recorded and teachers require students to complete an exit ticket assignment at the end of each lesson. This allows students to make up schoolwork, if needed.

Graduation

MCA's SY2021-22 graduation rate was 73.9%, lower than the state average of 86.3% and not meeting expectations on the Performance Framework. The school team reports that they expect 79% of seniors to graduate this year. The school notes that their graduation rates have continued to trend upwards over the last three years, and continue to be lower than their goal. The school attributes the growth in their graduation rate to several factors, including hiring a teacher to assist students who are offtrack for graduation to form a credit-recovery plan. The school notes that their graduation goal is 86%, and while they do not anticipate reaching it this year, they plan to get close. The school team reported that they hold students to a high bar for graduation expectations, requiring students to accrue more than the minimum number of credits required by the state for graduation. Additionally, MCA accepts students throughout the year at all grade levels, unlike similar high schools. Supporting students who enter the school who are undercredited in 11th and 12th grades continues to pose a challenge.

Financial Performance

MCA is low risk in all financial criteria on the Performance Framework and maintains a strong financial position. The school has recently allocated additional resources to student support, creating new interventionist positions to support students in reading and math, a Social Worker, and positions to support students who are off-track to graduate. The school has invested in Pearson's electives courses, offering the students a vast and varied selection of optional online electives courses. The school team notes that funds are directed to positions that directly support students, and not to additional administration. The school is able to maintain an efficient administrative team because of the “extensive” administrative support from Pearson.

Student Enrollment and Recruitment

The school’s current enrollment is 457 students. MCA recently had a charter amendment approved by the Commission to increase their enrollment to 500 students next year. The school is confident that they will enroll 500 students in SY2023-24 due to their robust waitlist.

Facilities

Although MCA is a virtual school, they are required to maintain a facility from which teachers and administrators work. The school is currently analyzing facility needs and discussing options for facilities to pursue when their current lease ends in August 2024.

Governing Board

The Board Chair reports that the board functions well. There are currently no open seats on the board. The Board Chair noted successes of the board including a smooth transition of presidency, strong attendance at meetings, proficiency using Boardable software, and knowledgeable and involved members. The Board Chair notes that an area of improvement is encouraging all board members to complete the required Epicenter board training.

The Board Chair noted that they work with Pearson to determine board agendas and that they receive a financial update at every meeting. Teachers periodically present at Board Meetings to help board members gain a deeper understanding of the school program. Twice yearly the board discusses school and school leadership goals. The Board Chair named the stabilization of school leadership as the essential ingredient that has led to the academic improvement at MCA over the past several years. The Board Chair hopes that the virtual nature of the school can be used as a model for other schools, especially as it relates to students taking classes with like-minded students across the country.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Maine Charter School Commission is the authorizer of nine charter districts. Each charter district holds a contract with the Commission containing a Performance Framework of indicators and targets the district shall meet to continue operating in Maine. The charter districts are evaluated annually as required by state statute. Data are gathered through the Maine Department of Education, Charter Districts, and Site Visits, as applicable.

The Maine Charter School Commission has established a monitoring visit table for visit frequency and intensity. A copy of the Site Visit Manual can be found HERE. Maine Virtual Academy was on cycle to have a Site Visit at the end of the 2022-23 school year.

Key documents and other information reviewed to determine progress on the charter district's performance framework and alignment with its mission are as follows:

Document is a major component of the Maine Charter School Commission's monitoring process, which happens throughout the year. Charter districts are required to submit reports and data for review. The table below

summarizes the charter districts' report and data submission completion throughout the 2022-23 school year:

2022-23 NARRATIVE

In school year 2022-23, Maine Virtual Academy was successful in the following areas of the Performance Framework:

- Academics/NWEA MAP Growth: Students met expectations for projected growth in reading and exceeded expectations in math and language. All subgroups but one (male, reading) met or exceeded expectations;
- High School Completion: With 100% of students graduating in 4 years, MEVA's graduation rate exceeded expectations on the Performance Framework and surpassed the state's annual target for 2023;
- Academics/Postsecondary: Accuplacer results will not be included on the Annual Report until SY2023-24. However, MEVA already has 87% (reading) and 90% (math) meeting the goal, including strong results from all subgroups;
- Postsecondary Activities: 100% of students at MEVA participate in at least one postsecondary opportunity;
- Teacher/Staff, Family and Student Satisfaction: The school is exceeding expectations as measured by the Panorama survey with all stakeholder groups;
- Governing Board Meetings: The school has held the required numbers of meetings and posted agendas and minutes in a timely fashion;
- Timely and Accurate Reports: The school is exceeding expectations in the percentage of reports that are delivered on-time and accurate to the Commission;
- The Facility: The facility is welcoming and supports programming;
- Student Attendance: The school reports a chronic absenteeism rate of 3.42%, exceeding expectations on the Performance Framework;
- Student Persistence: The school is exceeding expectations in the number of students that remain at the school throughout the year, and in the number of students that plan to return next year;

- Customized Framework: The school is meeting the goal that the median student conditional growth percentile on the NWEA is in the 50th or higher for each grade level.

The school provided context to support the areas of demonstrated strength in the SY2022-23 Self-Assessment Report, including:

- Academics: “MEVA keeps a rigorous assessment calendar each school year that supplies current and longitudinal student achievement and growth data. Our ongoing analysis finds that students who stay enrolled make steady gains over time. MEVA is addressing students’ learning losses, due to pandemic-related disruptions, and expanding our academic support. Examples of universal interventions include on-demand, daily tutoring in any academic subject, and robust summer programming. The MEVA faculty get to know our students on a personal basis and from the standpoint of their academic gaps/needs. Teaching teams work closely together to review assessment data to inform targeted instruction and course (curriculum) maps. In addition to daily co-teaching team meetings, we keep the cadence of weekly department meetings and schoolwide faculty (process improvement) meetings, to share valuable information and to collaborate on projects and initiatives. MEVA encourages our faculty’s dedication and retention by hearing all voices.
- Professional Development: “We decide professional development at MEVA by reviewing needs, determined through structured conversations with faculty members. Our weekly process improvement meetings supply a venue for teacher presentations on relevant topics such as promoting literacy and running active, grade-level, advisory groups.”
- Educational Services: “MEVA continues to contract with K12/Stride for faculty IT, and student enrollment services, which cost approximately eleven percent of our revenues, a small expense with respect to our overall operations. K12/Stride’s ongoing support meets our needs.”

MEVA has demonstrated areas that require growth on the Performance Framework in the following areas:

- Board Professional Development: School Board Members did not participate in the minimum required online training modules.

PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK OUTCOMES

----------------------	-----------------	------------------------	--------------------------

In the spring of 2023, the Maine Department of Education changed its state-wide assessment from the NWEA MAP Assessment to the Through-Year Assessment. As the assessment was new, the Commission asked schools to report the percentage of students assessed at each grade level, the percentage of students “at state expectation” and “above state expectation” on proficiency in both ELA and Math. Ratings would be developed once baselines were established.

Due to the Maine Department of Education’s delay in releasing data from the Spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment, there are no proficiency outcomes that can be reported at this time.

An addendum to this report will be provided once the data are released and analyzed by school personnel and Commission staff.

Below is a report that was written after staff visited with Maine Virtual Academy in March of SY2022-23. This visit was a chance to gauge the school's progress relative to the Performance Framework. This was a snapshot in time and is not reflected in the final year-end outcomes above.

MID-YEAR MEETING REPORT

2022-23 Mid-Year Meeting
Maine Virtual Academy

March 27, 2023

On March 1, 2023, the Maine Charter School Commission staff completed a mid-year meeting via Zoom with Donna Pelletier, the Maine Virtual Academy Governing Board Chairperson; Stacey Blanchard, a Board Member and MEVA Parent; Melinda Browne, Head of School; Christina O’Grady, Curriculum Coordinator; and Don Fournier, Academic Administrator. Topics covered included academic proficiency and growth, student attendance, projected graduation rates, finances, student enrollment and recruitment, facilities, and the governing board.

Recommendations

- None at this time.

Academic

Maine Virtual Academy (MEVA) outperformed the state average in English Language Arts on the NWEA MAP Assessment (Spring 2021-2022), with 84.9% of the students meeting or exceeding expectations (state average for SY2021-22 according to the ESSA Dashboard was 83.8%). 44% of students in grades 7 and 8 met or exceeded projected growth from the Fall 2022 NWEA MAP Assessment to the Winter 2023 administration in reading and 54.6% in language for these same grade levels, placing MEVA within the range of meeting the national growth average. In Mathematics, MEVA outperformed the state average with 86.9% of students meeting or exceeding the state expectations (state average in math for the SY2021-22, according to the ESSA Dashboard, was 81.3%). 61.9% of students in grades 7 and 8 met or exceeded projected growth from the Fall 2022 NWEA MAP Assessment to the Winter 2023 administration, which is within the range of the national average.

School leadership presented information that supports the school's assertion that they are a high-performing charter school - academically, operationally, and financially. The school prioritizes data analysis and strong testing participation is important to the culture of the school. The school leadership presented longitudinal evidence to show that students that stay at MeVA are showing strong academic growth. In reading, the trendlines for all students who have been at MEVA 2-5 years are showing an upward trend. In math, the trendlines for all students who have been at MEVA 1-5 years are showing an upward trend and the longer a student is at MEVA the steeper the trendline, which indicates accelerated growth as students continue at the school. In language, the students who have been at MEVA for 4-5 years are showing the highest level of growth.

The students at MEVA reported a positive experience taking the Accuplacer assessment this year. Overall, MEVA is meeting this new performance measure in both reading and math. MEVA is meeting the subgroup comparison measures, except for the disparity between special education (SE) and non-SE students. The MEVA SE team is focused on closing the gap by offering individual and small group remediation during Specially Designed Instruction (SDI) sessions.

The school leadership named two main areas of success and concern. The successes include the school accomplishing its mission and vision and students meeting academic targets. A challenge includes maintaining the 95% testing participation rate as the state transitions back to in-person state testing. The school is mobilizing its faculty and resources to meet the challenge.

The teachers at MEVA design their own curriculum using the Chalk Platform. They report that great strides have been made in their curriculum mapping goal. Specifically, MEVA has completed 100% of the core content areas maps, maps for all of the Art courses, and some additional elective courses totalling 44 (73%) completed maps. The remaining 16 (27%) maps to be completed are for elective courses. These maps will add a more robust picture of all of the course offerings at MEVA.

The completed maps allow for vertical and horizontal alignment as well as identifying any gaps or redundancies within the curriculum.

Attendance

MEVA continues to have exceptionally low rates of chronic absenteeism. In SY 2021-22 the school's rate of chronic absenteeism was 3.5%, far below the state average. Currently, the school is reporting a chronic absenteeism rate of 4.86%. If the school maintains a similar rate until the end of the year, they will exceed expectations in this category.

Graduation

MEVA has recently demonstrated strong improvement and performance in high school graduation rates. In SY 2021-22, the school data was suppressed by the state, but the state certified a rate to school exceeding 90%. This year, the school is on-track for 100% of seniors to graduate.

MEVA credits their strong graduation rate to:

- Summer programming
- Extended school year for students on IEPs
- Asynchronous credit recovery courses during school year
- Targeted meetings with students and families
- Daily Helpdesk at the high school (daily from 2pm-4pm); on demand help in any subject; and
- A new Middle School Study Hub.

Financial Performance

MEVA maintains a strong financial standing and currently has the lowest risk financial metrics in the charter school portfolio.

MEVA reported the Quarter 2 FY 2023 financial summary by Jennifer Hight, CPA: “The new financial processes put into place in FY 2023 are running smoothly and effectively. We approved our FY 2022 990 at the Board Meeting in January. At the end of Quarter 2 for FY 2023 we show Revenue in Excess of Expenditures for the six months ending 12/31/22 of $443,362. Salaries and benefits remain our largest expense. At this time, we are fully staffed and do not expect a change in personnel as we continue into the 2022-2023 school year.”

MEVA reports that they are making progress on the Financial Plan and Budget Performance Target. They have hosted two planning and budgeting workshops. A third workshop is scheduled for 3/2/23 and aims to have the FY24 budget and 3-year financial plan ready for board approval at the May 16th meeting.

Student Enrollment and Recruitment

Current enrollment is 406 students. 97% of students enrolled on Oct. 1 are still enrolled. The school credits the Improvement to the faculty’s rapid reporting and outreach efforts, including a form that is completed and discussed at weekly meetings and immediate school outreach to families to offer support.

For the first time in the school’s history they may need to run an enrollment lottery this year. The school plans to enroll up to their enrollment cap (390 + 10%). The school leadership reports that they are happy with the school’s current size and aim to maintain a low teacher to student ratio.

Facilities

MEVA continues to rent space at the Ballard Center in Augusta. MEVA has a facilities plan, which is reviewed annually or as needed.

Governing Board

The school leadership and board report that the board of six members meets monthly and reviews finances, performance data and policies. The board has a strategic plan that prioritizes achieving the school's performance measures by providing access, instruction, remediation, postsecondary transition and service. The skill set on the board is diverse and the board sets annual goals based on a needs assessment.

November 2023

Commissioner Makin,

We are pleased to submit the SY 2022-2023 Annual Charter School Report for your review. This report fulfills our statutory obligation to provide the Commissioner of Education with an annual status report on the performance of charter schools in the state.

SY2022-2023 saw the departure of long-time Commission members Wilson Hess and Nichi Farnham, both of whom served as Commission Chair for a period of time. Although it was sad to see them go, the appointments of Brian Langley and James Ford have been welcome additions to the Commission and it's exciting to be at full membership once again.

SY 2022-2023 brought the smooth closure of Harpswell Coastal Academy. Commission staff, consultants, and a small HCA Team worked in partnership to ensure a smooth transition for students, families, and staff. 60% of students chose to transfer to a different Maine charter school, while several former HCA staff filled open positions throughout the charter school portfolio.

This is the first year that we have used the newly adopted Performance Framework and we are pleased with the results as a whole. You will note that the revised Performance Framework measures the components of school performance that the Commission values, namely:

- Academic Achievement: Is the school an academic success? Is the school adequately preparing students for their desired post-secondary outcomes?
- School Climate and Family Engagement: Does the school provide the conditions for students to be successful?
- Organizational Sustainability: Is the school an effectively run and sustainable organization?
- Financial Management and Viability: Is the school financially viable?
- Faithfulness to the Charter and the Law: Is the school faithful to its mission? Does the school ensure access for all students eligible to attend the school?

We are not able to measure academic outcomes yet due to the delay in the publishing of the spring 2023 results of Maine's Through-Year Assessment. Below is an overview of results from the portfolio:

- Seven (7) of the public charter high schools exceeded the 4-year high school graduation rate on the Performance Framework and all surpassed the state's annual target of 86%.
- All public charter high schools exceeded post-secondary readiness targets.
- Results on the spring administration of the Panorama School Climate Surveys varied by school:
 - Overall, families are happy with their child's school on the majority of scales, exceeding the national average for like schools.
 - Student satisfaction rates were school dependent: four (4) schools are outperforming the national average, four (4) schools are below the national average, and one (1) school showed mixed results between grade levels.
 - Satisfaction rates from teacher and staff surveys show most schools exceeding national averages, while one (1) is approaching, and three (3) are not meeting.
- Governing Boards are made up of volunteer members with a wide array of backgrounds and experience. New to SY2022-23 was a board professional development participation requirement that several boards did not meet.
- There was notable improvement in chronic absenteeism across the charter portfolio. 4 out of the 10 schools met or exceeded the target on the Performance Framework of less than 18% of students being chronically absent. 5 schools improved chronic absenteeism from SY 2021-2022.
- School year persistence, both during the school year and from one school year to the next, remains strong with eight (8) of the nine (9) public charter schools meeting or exceeding targets on the Performance Framework.

We look forward to another year of collaboration with the Maine Department of Education to ensure the best education for Maine's students and families and look forward to discussing the details of this report with you and your team.

Sincerely,

Lana Ewing, Executive Director

Performance

Charter school authorizers are responsible for maintaining high standards for school performance, upholding school autonomy, and protecting student and public interests. Using a performance contract as both a guide and a tool, the Maine Charter School Commission maintains high standards and manages charter school performance – not by dictating inputs or controlling processes – but by setting expectations and holding charter districts accountable for results. The Maine Charter School Commission engages in responsible and effective performance management by ensuring charter districts have the autonomy to which they are entitled and the public accountability for which they are responsible.

The Maine Charter School Commission's relationship with the charter districts it authorizes begins with a bargain for performance. The Maine Charter School Commission agrees to entrust a charter district's governing board with public dollars and public school students and to give it broad autonomy over how it achieves agreed-upon goals. In return, the school's board commits to achieving specified results, managing public funds responsibly, complying with its legal obligations, and providing a quality education to the students in its care.

In order for this bargain of autonomy in exchange for accountability to work, it is essential that the Maine Charter School Commission establish, maintain, and enforce high performance standards for all schools in its portfolio. This includes not only holding schools accountable for the academic performance of all of their students, which should always be the primary measure of quality, but also holding schools accountable for financial and organizational performance. The critical first step in effective performance management is to set and communicate clear and rigorous expectations for performance. Schools need clearly defined standards, so they know what is expected of them, and the Maine Charter School Commission needs to manage performance effectively by holding schools accountable for outcomes without attempting to control inputs.

The National Association of Charter School Authorizers' (NACSA) Principles & Standards for Quality Charter School Authorizing emphasizes that a quality authorizer establishes standards for school performance that are clear, quantifiable, rigorous, and attainable. NACSA also recommends that authorizers develop and formally adopt a Performance Framework that includes academic, financial, and organizational performance measures for use by schools and authorizers to establish expectations, guide practice, assess progress, and inform decision making over the course of the charter term and at renewal or revocation.

The three areas of performance covered by the framework – academic, financial, and organizational – form the backbone of the Maine Charter School Commission’s performance management system. This framework enables effective performance management and promotes school success by establishing and communicating performance expectations for all schools in the MCSC’s portfolio in a way that is objective, transparent, and directly related to school quality.

The Performance Framework benefits both the Maine Charter School Commission and charter districts it authorizes. The framework promotes transparency and objectivity in authorizing and protects school autonomy. It enables charter school performance contracting to function as intended by providing both charter districts and the Maine Charter School Commission with clarity about expected outcomes, objective evidence of achievement, and a comprehensive tool for evaluating results.

The frameworks promote transparency and objectivity by putting the authorizer on record and schools, parents, stakeholders, and the public on notice about the performance standards that will be used to evaluate whether or not a school is successful and is living up to its end of the charter bargain. The frameworks help to establish expectations at the beginning of the school’s operation so that there will be no surprises when a school is held accountable for meeting them over the course of the charter term and at renewal.

The framework protects school autonomy by clarifying in objective terms the performance data the Maine Charter School Commission will collect and the outcomes that it expects and will evaluate. The framework helps to establish the boundaries of the parties’ relationship and define the rights and responsibilities of both the charter school and the Maine Charter School Commission.

Below is a summary of how the charter school portfolio as a whole performed on the Performance Framework during the 2022-23 school year:

SECTION 1: STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

Student Performance: The school consistently makes progress in student academic achievement for all students.

FRAMING QUESTIONS:

Is the school an academic success?

Is the school adequately preparing students for their desired post-secondary outcomes?

In the spring of 2023, the Maine Department of Education changed its state-wide assessment from the NWEA MAP Assessment to the Through-Year Assessment. As the assessment was new, the Commission asked schools to report the percentage of students assessed at each grade level, the percentage of students “at state expectation” and “above state expectation” on proficiency in both ELA and Math. Ratings would be developed once baselines were established.

Due to the Maine Department of Education’s delay in releasing data from the Spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment, there are no proficiency outcomes that can be reported at this time.

In the spring of 2023, schools expressed a concern with the possibility of double testing students by administering the NWEA MAP Assessment, as required by the Maine Charter School Commission, and the Maine Through-Year Assessment, as required by the state. Assurances made by the MDOE that the Through-Year Assessment results would show academic growth comparable to the growth results from the NWEA MAP Assessment and based on those assurances schools were allowed to apply for a waiver from the Commission-required NWEA MAP Assessment. Four schools applied for and were granted the waiver – ACADIA Academy, Fiddlehead School of Arts & Sciences, Harpswell Coastal Academy, and Maine Connections Academy. Because the data from the spring administration of the Through-Year Assessment has not been released, academic growth outcomes for students in grades 3-8 cannot be determined; nor can any subgroup analysis be done at this time. Community Regional Charter School and Maine Virtual Academy chose to administer both assessments, and results are reported below (1.3a, 1.3b, 1.3c, and 1.4).

Once the Maine Through-Year Assessment results are available publicly, they will be analyzed by Commission staff and outcomes will be reported.

1.1a Student Academic Proficiency: MDOE Through Year Assessment, ELA

Target: Schools will report the percentage of students assessed at each grade level, and at the campus and district levels. Schools will report the percentage of students “at state expectation” and “above state expectation” on proficiency.

1.1b Student Academic Proficiency: MDOE Through Year Assessment, Math

Target: Schools will report the percentage of students assessed at each grade level, and at the campus and district levels. Schools will report the percentage of students “at state expectation” and “above state expectation” on proficiency.

1.2 Target: Students will read on grade level based on the school’s assessment tool by the end of third grade.

Three (3) public charter schools have 3rd grade students and reported the data as required. Here are the results:

Narrative

Progress toward the strategic vision

The Vision of the Maine Charter School Commission is that all of Maine's children will have access to a vibrant ecosystem of diverse schools so that all of them can become happy, healthy and thriving citizens. The Mission is to authorize, monitor and develop unique public charter schools that provide a dynamic, superlative education for every student. The work is carried out with the following Values in mind:

- Students at the center - Be aggressively urgent in pursuit of more effective schools
- Collective impact - Compassionally coordinate, collaborate and build trust to multiply the impact in the ecosystem
- Develop the people - Design and implement tools, systems and cultures that grow the capacity of the people doing the work so they are prepared for greatness
- Transparency for the sake of continuous improvement - Leverage available data and find new forms of measurement to cultivate truth in decision making and promote integrity in our processes and reporting.

The Strategic Priorities represent the focus of our daily work. From how we organize our time to how we build agendas for meetings, the strategic priorities allow us to boost the signal and reduce the noise. They provide us with an opportunity to make thoughtful decisions about what is important, what isn't, and the rationale that shaped our thinking.

Strategic Priority #1: Increase student achievement and social-emotional well-being. This priority will be driven by the following actions:

- Cultivate a culture of data-driven decision making at all charter schools and at the Commission. In doing so, we shift our culture away from leaving learning to chance to one in which we deeply understand how our inputs alter the outcomes.
- Develop school leaders through professional learning, networking, and collective problem solving to maximize efforts toward achieving missions. The Charter Commission has the ability to connect our school leaders in a meaningful way so that they can solve shared problems in collaborative ways. We can also use our national reach to connect school leaders to development opportunities that can support their schools' missions. This supports school leaders in taking healthy risks and creating innovations that are supported by their peers.
- Refine expectations through thoughtful revision and implementation of the Performance Framework that includes multiple measures of authentic achievement, revealing the superpowers of our students and orienting priorities around educational practices that matter most.

- Clarify the roles and relationships between operators and the Charter Commission so that we share expectations about how the Charter Commission holds charter schools accountable for performance.

Strategic Priority #2: Create the conditions for sustained excellence. This priority will be driven by the following actions:

- Serve as a model, high-performing governing board with procedures for evaluating its own performance and the ability to improve.
- Work alongside policymakers to support policies and practices that increase school quality and choice regardless of the type of school.
- Seek opportunities to build coalitions around shared goals.
- Coordinate common efforts to increase equity, innovation, and capacity building with our partners at the Maine Department of Education.

Strategic Priority #3: Develop effective governing boards. This priority will be driven by the following actions:

- Define expectations for interactions between governing boards and the Charter Commission and initiate quarterly board president meetings with the Executive Director with an emphasis on financial planning, assessments of school leader performance and board performance reflection.
- Develop and deliver a robust board training curriculum that includes annual board training, new board member orientation, and board president training in coordination with national experts and partners.
- Create and distribute exemplar, externally vetted documents and policies, including agenda templates, calendars, etc.
- Develop resources and tools that support board member recruitment, selection and retention.

Strategic Priority #4: Foster collaborative innovation. This priority will be driven by the following actions:

- Build a list of state and national partners that can support innovative school practices and connect charter schools with experts to facilitate implementation.
- Investigate funding sources that support educational innovation in rural settings including rural schools grants through the USDOE and other rural schools programs and foundations.
- Deepen collaboration with organizations that share similar visions to launch initiatives that support innovative teaching and learning practices.
- Design thoughtful ways to enhance the capacity of teachers to deliver effective instruction to their students, improving student achievement and well-being.
- Spread best practices through monthly leader meetings with charter school leaders and begin quarterly meetings with board chairs.

Strategic Priority #5: Engage and activate stakeholders. This priority will be driven by the following actions:

- Engage, inspire and activate our communities through vibrant storytelling in multiple media and on myriad platforms that reveals the power and promise of charter schools.
- Execute thoughtful and truthful reporting of charter school performance at a regular cadence so that our community can be aware of the progress charter schools are making.
- Set the table for parents to promote the value of a charter school education and empower them to speak on behalf of their schools.
- Support full enrollment at charter schools by better understanding the market conditions, demand, and available seats.
- Position charter schools as great places to work by branding for high-achieving, creative educators.

Status of the portfolio

During SY2022-23, there were ten (10) public charter schools operating in the state of Maine. As previously reported, the Commission voted in October 2022 to not renew Harpswell Coastal Academy's charter contract. The school closed on June 30, 2023.

In the spring of 2023, Commission staff began the renewal process with Maine Connections Academy. Visits with the governing board and school administration were followed by the issuance of a Year 4 Performance Report. The school submitted its renewal application over the summer. In the beginning of SY2023-24, Commission staff held focus group visits with the school's students, families, staff, administration and governing board. A public hearing followed and the Commission voted to renew MCA's charter contract for an additional five (5) years beginning 7/1/24 and ending 6/30/29.

Maine Virtual Academy and the Ecology Learning Center are currently in the fourth year of their charter contracts and we look forward to the renewal process beginning this year.

Services to support excellent performance

Panorama

Panorama's vision is that "Panorama helps schools and districts transform their approach to education, so that every student thrives in school, every student benefits from an excellent education, and every student graduates prepared with the knowledge, skills, and mindsets they need to thrive in the modern, ever-changing world. Through our work to improve education, we help create a world where every child has equitable access to opportunities in school and in society more broadly.” The Maine Charter School Commission began its partnership with Panorama Education in 2016 and survey participation rates for students, families, teachers, and staff are measured as part of the Commission’s Performance Framework.

NWEA

NWEA is a research-based, not-for-profit organization that supports students and educators worldwide by creating assessment solutions that precisely measure growth and proficiency—and provide insights to help tailor instruction. The Maine Charter School Commission began its partnership with NWEA in the fall of 2019 with the expectation that schools would administer the assessments in the fall, winter, and spring of each year. Both academic proficiency and growth are measured as part of the Commission’s Performance Framework.

Infinite Campus

Infinite Campus is a powerful student information system that supports student learning by ensuring school districts streamline educational processes, promote stakeholder collaboration and personalize learning. The Commission continued its partnership with Infinite Campus throughout the 2021-22 school year with 8 of the 10 public charter schools actively using the platform.

Epicenter

Maine’s public charter schools are held to a rigorous Performance Framework which measures academic, operational, and financial targets. Epicenter is a web-based platform that streamlines school operations, board governance, and school compliance activities and puts data and documents at the fingertips of authorizers and authorized schools 24/7/365. The Commission began its partnership with Epicenter in the fall of 2016 and the relationship is strong to this day. During the 2021-22 school year, the renewal application went online for the first time and a project was initiated to convert the Performance Framework into Epicenter’s online Scorecard component, which will make reporting more streamlined going forward.

Lotterease

Maine public charter schools must follow enrollment as outlined in Maine State Law (Title 20-A, Chapter 112, §2404). There are many different parts to enrollment and lottery, which can be complicated when using a paper process. The Commission sought a web-based platform that could assist schools in the management of the enrollment process from the initial contact with families through full enrollment of their child(ren) and partnered with Lotterease in 2020.

Website Enhancement

During the 2021-22 school year, the Commission engaged the services of InforME (Information Resource of Maine) – the Internet gateway for businesses and citizens to interact with the government electronically. Work has begun on a major overhaul of the Commission’s current website that will include graphics, easier navigation, charter school profiles, a section on charter school governing board development, and other enhancements that we are anxious to unveil in the coming months.

ACCUPLACER

ACCUPLACER is a powerful tool that helps colleges assess student readiness for introductory credit-bearing courses and make reliable placement decisions. Charter high schools are required to administer the Accuplacer, SAT or ASVAB to each student before graduation.

Financial performance

State law allows the Charter School Commission to draw up to 3% of the annual per-pupil allocation received by each public charter school under its authorization. In FY23, the Commission remained at the 2.35% allocation.

Based on the FY23 ED279s, the Commission’s revenue was $757,149.85 of which $666,788.72 was spent on monitoring performance and supporting the success of Maine’s public charter schools. The balance was carried over to FY24.

Please respond to the following questions:

1. Why do you wish to serve on the governing board?

Throughout my career as an educator, I have found decision making of the School Board's an interesting aspect of education. It connects community and educators, and often offers a different perspective on what is needed. School Board's offer a balance in decision making and accountability for the school. Being a part of a School Board would allow me the opportunity to continue supporting educators and students, no longer in the capacity of an educator but as a community member.

2. What is your understanding of the educational needs of students in the catchment area?

Technically, if a child lives in the State of Maine they can access any Charter School. Most Charter Schools have a catchment area connected to transportation support. Maine Virtual Academy has a large catchment area due to it being an online program. This allows for all Maine students the opportunity to attend if they chose too, without transportation concerns.

3. Please list any previous or present educational involvement; such as board member, budget committee, citizens committees, etc. List school(s) or district(s).
