III. Reports

A. Head of School Report

Margaritte read a verse from the Rudolf Steiner's Weekly Meditations.

Student count is at 141.

Looking into more student supports - teacher aides and paras, as well as having the Family & Children's on site therapy starting plus the counselor intern.

Seeing how this teaching model and open concept classrooms are not the best for every child, and having those conversations with parents & guardians.

Successful fire and tornado drills. Tweaks are being made.

Stacey has been an awesome substitute for 3rd grade. And we are looking for more substitutes.

Partners in Wellness has started, speech path has started.

Met with the Regional Accreditation Officer and getting closer to having access to the state systems needed for the school such as EdPlan.

School flow is getting better.

Applying for the TSET (Tobacco Settlement Endowment Trust) grant and SPED grants.

B. Facility Report

Kristin discussed new meeting table, cafeteria & kitchen build out timeline, roof leaks, rain gutter concerns, and new floor mats to mitigate the mud and dirt on student's shoes.

Chain link fence repair to keep out neighborhood dogs.

C. Education Report

Amber thanked Stacey for her help as substitute.

Appreciated Stacey's perspective of the improvements she sees since substituting a couple of weeks ago.

Supporting teachers with their lesson plans.

Continuing to work on mitigating sound issues of the open concept rooms - walls on tracks.

Working on behavior policy with families and the right fit of types of schools, as well as being consistent with reward systems at home.

MAP testing is coming up for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grades. They will test in small groups, and the neighboring class will need to be outside. Or maybe the Music & Handwork room can be the test room and M & H will be in the classrooms.

Stacey said kudos to the teachers for keeping their calm and staying strong.

D. Governance/Legal Committee

Patrick sent the link to the videos regarding the new legislation in education.

IV. Discussion

A. Board Member Recruitment

Stan spoke about skills of future board members:

- grant writing
- fundraising
- treasurer

Stan said he would like to add 2 to 4 board members in the next 6 months.

Stacey spoke about the shifting needs of the board from founding year to growing of the school, and that new board members should share in the public Waldorf vision.

V. NEW BUSINESS:

A. Donation of Computers

Stan has received an offer from Community Care of a donation of 10 mini computers. HP Elite desk 705G4.

B. Clarification about serious student infractions

Stan asked about under what circumstances would serious student infractions lead to expulsion.

Discussion about using the term 'expulsion' and using a behavior plan after an incident to redirect a student's behaviors.

VI. Public Comments

A. Janet McKenzie spoke -

She loved to hear about the teachers in Amber's Education Report. She knows this is a very difficult process and experience, but you do it for all the right reasons, and you will look back on this time and will be proud. She said this school is going to be great and great for the community too.

B. Taylor Smith spoke -

She has gratitude for the efforts to create and build this school. Her daughter loves coming to school, she feels seen. Children are just children for a short time, thanking for slowing down and creating this space for them.

VII. Closing Items

A. Adjourn Meeting

There being no further business to be transacted, and upon motion duly made, seconded and approved, the meeting was adjourned at 7:46 PM.

Respectfully Submitted,
Kris Miller
