IV. Educational Accountability

A. Summer Program & Americorp Support

J. Ciavarella provided an update on the Amani summer program in which at least four students from Americorp would provide one-on-one tutoring to Amani students during the summer. She she said the program would begin June 30 and run through August 7, noting that for some Amani students, these tutoring sessions would be mandatory and were designed to cover learning gaps.

Another two Americorp students would continue into the fall, focusing on small group instruction and sustainability.

B. K/1 Expansion

The principal also provided a brief overview of the elementary school curriculum, instruction and assessment. From Illustrative Math to Foundations to LLI Reading Intervention and F and P...

She also noted there would be special ed for K/1 and reading intervention support for elementary grades. The Go Foundation would also be involved in the upcoming fall program.

V. Finance

A. Update

S. Charioui provided the March financial update. She said she was working with D. Stern to transfer data to the 2026 budget, She said although cashflow was in a good situation, the school was still operating with a budget deficit, a deficit stemming from bills from previous years.

It was noted that CSBM was working with D. Stern on the budget until the new finance director came on board on June 2. The current finance director would be leaving at the end of May.

The finance committee reviewed the state controller's audit and asked for full board committee to approve the review.
