IV. Correspondence/Proposals/Reports

A. School Highlights - Presented by Heidi Gasca, Executive Director/CEO

Heidi Gasca gave an overview of the school highlights for the month of September including enrollment, parent webinars, school community events, and counseling initiatives.

B. Student & Parent Testimonials

Parent Vanessa Castaneda and student Dante Espinoza shared their experience of being enrolled at Excel Academy.

C. iReady & CAASPP Data - Presented by Jenny Craig, Director of Assessment & Accountability

Jenny's presentation provided data on the school's academic performance over multiple periods. In the fall of 2022, 65.3% of students were at or above grade level in language arts, while 49.2% met the same criteria in math. The presenter then discusses the recent data, as of September 18th, 2023, showing a slight decrease in language arts, with 62.9% at or above grade level, and a comparable 48.9% in math. The school aims for at least a 2% increase in both subjects.

Excel Academy's focus will be on building vocabulary and comprehension in both language arts and math to boost scores.

Moving on to the CAASPP scores in spring 2023, Jenny noted that 64% of students are at or above grade level in language arts and 53% in math. Excel celebrates the distance from standard scores, particularly in language arts, and a 1% increase in math.

EACS is putting their efforts into improving scores, including building fluency and strengthening written expression.

D. Educational Services Update - Presented by Keri Schneeweiss, Director of Educational Services

Keri, the Director of Educational Services at EACS, aims to support teachers and principals at the school. Her focus is on simplifying paperwork and compliance requirements so that teachers have more time for students. Keri's presentation emphasized goals related to creating a positive school environment, student achievement and growth, partnership and connection, and ensuring that high school students have access to various pathways to graduation.

She also highlighted department-specific goals, including improving reading fluency in elementary grades, encouraging participation in secondary classes, and providing community opportunities for virtual path students. Compliance efforts involve ongoing documentation and training, with a focus on CalPADS reporting and attendance monitoring. The ultimate goal is to maintain a balance between meeting requirements and allowing teachers to focus on teaching while minimizing paperwork.
