A. School Highlights - Presented by Heidi Gasca, Executive Director/CEO

Heidi presented to the Board of Directors, expressing excitement for the 2024-2025 school year. She shared that the school has 1,745 students enrolled—1,077 in Warner and 688 in Helendale—and highlighted the importance of staff development with a theme inspired by "Toy Story," emphasizing teamwork and each department's role in student success.

She introduced new staff onboarded successfully, thanks to the HR team, and mentioned ongoing initiatives across various paths within the school. Notably, there's a focus on preparing high school students for college and careers through an ACE program and enhanced special education support. Additionally, the school is utilizing Prop 28 funding to enrich art and music offerings.

Heidi also highlighted the new elementary homeroom structure aimed at better supporting grade-level education and shared details about a parent online academy designed to improve family engagement. The presentation concluded with excitement about recent back-to-school events, showcasing a strong community spirit with over 800 attendees at one event.

B. Teacher Testimonials - Karen Ottoson & Forest Muther

Karen Ottoson and Forest Muther shared their experiences as teachers at Excel Academy.

Karen expressed her gratitude for her role as a kindergarten homeroom teacher, highlighting the joy of working with young students on foundational skills like sight words and shapes. She reflected on her experience with a special education student, noting his significant growth and the positive impact of the SPED team. Karen also enjoyed reconnecting with students at a back-to-school event, reinforcing her sense of community.

Forest discussed the rewarding nature of his role as a secondary teacher, particularly the satisfaction of seeing students achieve their goals. He shared a success story about a student named Cynthia, who, after struggling initially, found her passion for reading through tailored interventions. This led her to excel academically, take dual enrollment courses, and ultimately prepare for a career in the medical field. Forest conveyed his excitement and emotional investment in his students' journeys, particularly as they approach graduation.

IX. Business/Financial Services

A. Approval of Unaudited Actuals for the 2023-2024 School Year

L. Alvarado made a motion to Steve Fraire.

S. Houle seconded the motion.

Joe presented the unaudited actuals for the 2023-2024 fiscal year to the Board of Directors, recommending their approval. He emphasized that these figures reflect actual results with no estimates involved, as the audit process is currently underway.

He outlined key financial details, noting total income of approximately $22 million, primarily from LCFF revenues, and expenses of about $19.9 million, with a significant portion allocated to salaries and benefits. The ending balance for the year is $9.7 million, representing a healthy reserve of 48.61%, which is notably higher than the average 24% across school districts in the state.

Joe highlighted the importance of financial diligence, as Excel Academy operates as a nonprofit without the same protections as public school districts. He provided insights into the organization’s cash flow management, reporting a cash balance of $10.2 million, sufficient to cover six months of expenses.

The presentation concluded with an assurance that the audit report will be finalized by December 15, 2024.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.

C. Approval of the Proposition 28 Arts & Music Grant Annual Report

L. Alvarado made a motion to Steve Fraire.

S. Houle seconded the motion.

Proposition 28, which established the Arts and Music in Schools—Funding Guarantee and Accountability Act, included an annual reporting requirement for local educational agencies (LEAs). As a condition of receiving funds, an LEA must submit a report approved by its local governing board to the California Department of Education (CDE), and the report must be posted on the LEA's website. Per Education Code Section 8820 \(g\)\(4\), the report must detail the following:

- The type of arts education programs funded
- The number of full-time equivalent teachers, classified personnel, and teaching aides
- The number of pupils served
- The number of school sites providing arts education programs with Proposition 28 funds

At its March 24, 2024, meeting, the Board of Directors approved implementing the Proposition 28 Art and Music in Schools program for the 2024-25 school year. As a result, no funds were utilized in the fiscal year 2023-24.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.

D. Approval of Proposal to Open a Checking Account for Associated Student Body (ASB)

L. Alvarado made a motion to Steve Fraire.

S. Houle seconded the motion.

Excel Academy Charter Schools currently needs an Associated Student Body account. This item proposes establishing a checking account dedicated to the Associated Student Body (ASB) at our school. This initiative aims to enhance the financial management of student-led fundraising activities and ensure that the funds raised are effectively utilized to support our students' co-curricular endeavors.

Financial Oversight: The ASB advisor will work closely with the Director of Business Services Director or his or her designee to ensure that all transactions are recorded accurately. Monthly financial statements will be reviewed and presented to the school administration, providing complete transparency and accountability.

Fundraising and Expenditure Guidelines: We will develop clear guidelines for fundraising activities and the appropriate use of funds. These guidelines will be aligned with the school's policies and the Board's expectations, ensuring that all activities support the educational and co-curricular goals of the school.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.

XI. Board Comments

A. Board Comments

The Board members expressed their appreciation for a successful meeting, highlighting key positive aspects.

Susan praised the uplifting video and mentioned her love for seeing the children, along with the easy access to global resources like ClassPass.

Larry acknowledged the addition of special education staff and stressed the importance of staff development. He also noted the school's strong financial standing, suggesting discussions on how to allocate surplus funds.

Further, the Board congratulated the team on a strong start, emphasizing the effective handling of challenges and the collective commitment of the staff. The Board members thanked the team for their hard work, appreciated the logistical support behind the scenes, and expressed their personal joy in attending and learning from these meetings. They particularly enjoyed the video and humorously referenced a desire to interact with the animals featured.

Overall, the comments reflected a strong sense of pride in the school's achievements and optimism for the future.

XII. CEO Comments

A. CEO Comments

Heidi expressed gratitude for the school's strong financial position, contrasting it with the challenges faced three years ago. She highlighted the importance of being able to focus on supporting staff rather than repaying loans. Heidi acknowledged the diligence and care that goes into financial discussions, crediting the Executive Team's weekly meetings for ensuring thoughtful decision-making. She emphasized the value of adding Jenny and Lara to these meetings, which has helped in planning for fiscal spending and staff incentives, like ClassPass.

Heidi also noted the school's growth and acknowledged the natural process of learning from both gains and losses each year. She conveyed optimism for a successful school year and expressed appreciation for the ongoing support from the board.

XIII. Closing Items

A. Adjourn Meeting

There being no further business to be transacted, and upon motion duly made, seconded and approved, the meeting was adjourned at 12:51 PM.

Respectfully Submitted,
S. Fraire
