C.	Land Acknowledgement	Adrienne Mason	1 m
-----------	----------------------	----------------	-----

We humbly acknowledge that Rooted School Vancouver stands on the ancestral lands of the Indigenous peoples of this region. We recognize and honor the historic and continued presence of the Cowlitz, Chinook, Klickitat, Yakama, Grand Ronde, Wasco, and Wishram peoples.

We acknowledge the trauma and injustice inflicted upon Indigenous communities through centuries of colonization, displacement, and assimilation efforts. As we seek to create a safe and inclusive learning environment for all students, we commit to learning from and partnering with Indigenous communities to promote healing and equity.

We also recognize the invaluable contributions and knowledge of Indigenous peoples to our shared history, culture, and identity. We are committed to integrating Indigenous perspectives and knowledge into our curriculum and ensuring that the voices and experiences of Indigenous students are heard and valued in our school community.

A. Second Read Policy and Procedure 3205: SEXUAL HARASSMENT OF STUDENTS PROHIBITED	Discuss	Steven Carney	1 m

Background:

This policy aims to establish an educational environment free from discrimination, including sexual harassment and extends to all students and activities. It defines sexual harassment, the creation of a hostile environment, and the legal scope. The policy outlines procedures for reporting, investigating, and resolving sexual harassment complaints, as well as disciplinary measures for engaging in sexual harassment, retaliation, and false allegations. It also emphasizes the dissemination and review of the policy and annual reporting to the board. Relevant cross-references and legal references are provided.

This procedure aims to prevent and address sexual harassment within the school environment. It outlines the definition of sexual harassment and explains the process for reporting, investigating, and resolving complaints. The procedure emphasizes appropriate discipline and sanctions for offenders, protection against retaliation, and consequences for false allegations. It also includes the dissemination and review of the policy, as well as age-appropriate education and training for staff, students, parents, and volunteers. Relevant cross-references and legal references are provided.

Recommendation: Approve Policy and Procedure 3205: SEXUAL HARASSMENT OF STUDENTS PROHIBITED

B. Second Read Policy and Procedure 3241: STUDENT BEHAVIOR, CORRECTIVE ACTIONS and/or INTERVENTIONS	Discuss	Steven Carney	1 m

Background:

This policy and procedure aims to provide a safe and conducive learning environment for all students. It emphasizes minimizing exclusion, engaging with families, supporting students, and ensuring fairness, equity, and due process in administering corrective actions. The policy requires the school to consider other forms of corrective action before imposing exclusionary measures and mandates collaboration with parents and students to resolve behavioral issues. Additionally, the policy outlines staff authority in administering corrective actions, the rights of students during the disciplinary process, and the importance of periodic data review to identify and address any disproportionality in disciplinary actions.

Key Points:

1. Aim to keep students in class and maximize engagement with restorative interventions when possible.
2. Engage with families and community and strive to understand and be responsive to cultural context.
3. Administer corrective action fairly, equitably, and with due process.
4. Provide educational services to students during suspension or expulsion and facilitate their successful reentry into the classroom.
5. Ensure a safe environment for all students and school employees.
6. Involve school personnel, students, parents, and community in data review and policy development.

	Purpose	Presenter	Time
7. Distribute policies and procedures to families, community, and school personnel.
Recommendation: Approve Policy and Procedure 3241: STUDENT BEHAVIOR, CORRECTIVE ACTIONS and/or INTERVENTIONS
C. Second Read Policy and Procedure 4220: COMPLAINTS CONCERNING STAFF or PROGRAMS	Discuss	Steven Carney	1 m
Background:
This policy aims to manage complaints related to staff or programs in a constructive manner, while maintaining the board's trust in its staff and programs. Complaints received will be directed to the Executive Director for investigation, who will develop procedures to handle such matters. Issues related to instructional materials should follow Policy 2020. This policy adheres to legal references, including RCW 28A.405.300 and Chapter 42.30 RCW Open Public Meetings Act.
This procedure emphasizes resolving complaints through informal discussions and conferences, using restorative justice principles. If unresolved, the community member files a written complaint with the Executive Director, who involves the DOO and other relevant parties. The Executive Director then attempts to resolve the matter through conferences. If still unresolved, the issue is presented to the board. Formal board actions must take place in an open meeting, and if a staff member's contract status may be adversely affected, they will receive written notice of their rights to a hearing.
Recommendation: Approve Policy and Procedure 4220: COMPLAINTS CONCERNING STAFF or PROGRAMS
D. Second Read Policy 5251: CONFLICT OF INTEREST (STAFF)	Discuss	Steven Carney	1 m
Background:
This policy aims to ensure that Rooted School Vancouver's board, staff, and community maintain a high-trust environment and legal compliance by preventing conflicts of interest. No employee may engage in activities conflicting with their duties or have a direct financial interest in such activities. The policy outlines specific situations where conflicts may arise and requires written permission from the Executive Director/designee or school leader in certain cases. Exceptions are allowed for the use of public resources of very little financial value with supervisor consent. The policy adheres to legal references, including RCW 28A.400.332 and WAC 181-87-090.

	Purpose	Presenter	Time
Recommendation: Approve Policy 5251: CONFLICT OF INTEREST (STAFF)
E.	Second Read Policy and Procedure 5270: RESOLUTION of STAFF COMPLAINTS	Discuss Steven Carney	1 m

Background:

This policy emphasizes the importance of resolving conflicts within the school community by empowering the leadership team to define a fair and equitable process for addressing issues. All community members must use the approved process, and if the complaint remains unresolved or involves the Executive Director, the aggrieved person may file a written complaint with the board chair.

This procedure outlines a three-step process for resolving written complaints filed by staff members:

- Step One: The staff member presents a written complaint to their immediate supervisor within 15 calendar days of the incident, detailing the facts, policy/procedure violations, and desired solution. If unresolved, the complaint may be appealed to the Executive Director/designee within 10 calendar days.
- Step Two: The Executive Director/designee meets with the staff member within 10 calendar days of receiving the appeal, and renders a decision within another 10 calendar days. If unresolved, the complaint may be appealed to the board within 10 calendar days.
- Step Three: The board holds a hearing and presents its decision within 15 calendar days of the hearing. The board's decision is considered final.

Recommendation: Approve Policy and Procedure 5270: RESOLUTION of STAFF COMPLAINTS

F. First Read Policy and Procedure 2020 Course Design, Selection and Adoption of Instructional Materials Background: The provided policy and procedure for the Local Education Agency (LEA) ensure an evidence-based, systematic approach towards course design and the selection and adoption of instructional materials. They stress alignment with state standards, student needs, and best practices. Topics range from adopting new courses, modifying existing ones, the role of Open Educational Resources (OER), technology-based resources, and the formation of an Instructional Materials Committee (IMC) for assessing core instructional materials. The policy and procedure also emphasize addressing diverse learning needs and ensuring equitable access to quality education for all students. They establish guidelines for continuous review, improvement, and field testing of materials, and include mechanisms for public input and objections.	Discuss	Steven Carney	5 m
G. First Read Policy and Procedure 2022 Electronic Resources and Internet Safety Background The combined "Electronic Resources and Internet Safety" policy and procedure establish the school's approach to safe and effective use of digital resources. The policy sets the overall direction and objectives for safe, productive online behavior. It empowers the Executive Director to develop procedures and guidelines, emphasizing the need for digital literacy, privacy rights, and responsible use of electronic resources. The procedure then provides the specific implementation measures for the policy, outlining the rules for network usage, the role of personal electronic devices,	Discuss	Steven Carney	5 m

H. First Read Policy and Procedure 3122 EXCUSED and UNEXCUSED ABSENCES Background: Rooted School Vancouver’s Excused and Unexcused Absences policy and procedure have been developed in the context of prevailing educational standards, state laws, and the school’s commitment to support the holistic development of all students. The policy aims to encourage regular school attendance, identify the factors causing absenteeism, and create solutions that promote positive student engagement. The procedure regarding excused absences acknowledges the occasional valid reasons that prevent a student from attending school and outlines a clear process for making such absences known to the school. It addresses the ways in which the school will support the student in catching up with missed work, thereby ensuring that excused absences don’t negatively impact a student’s academic progression. The aspect of the policy dealing with unexcused absences is driven by an understanding that persistent absenteeism can hinder a student’s academic performance and socio-emotional development. It sets forth a proactive, data-informed approach to reduce student absences, including conferences, assessments, personalized interventions, and, if needed, collaboration with a community engagement board and the juvenile court system. This policy and procedure underlines Rooted School Vancouver’s dedication to fostering an educational environment where every student is present, engaged, and equipped with the resources they need to succeed. It sets out the framework for effective communication between the school, students, and parents, ensuring that all parties are aware of their responsibilities and the steps that will be taken in the event of both excused and unexcused absences.	Discuss	Steven Carney	5 m commitment to fostering a respectful and supportive community that values the well-being of every individual.

	This policy defines "harassment, intimidation, or bullying" as intentional acts, including electronic communication, that physically harm a student or damage their property, substantially interfere with their education, create an intimidating or threatening environment, or disrupt the orderly operation of the school. It emphasizes that these acts can be motivated by factors such as race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, disability, or other distinguishing characteristics.
	The procedure outlines a clear and structured process for addressing incidents of harassment, intimidation, or bullying. It emphasizes the importance of reporting through an Incident Reporting Form, which can be submitted anonymously, confidentially, or non-confidentially to protect the targeted student from retaliation.
	Upon receipt of a report, school staff are required to promptly investigate the incident, ensuring the safety and well-being of the complainant. The investigation involves interviews with the complainant, alleged aggressor, and any witnesses, as well as a review of previous complaints. Corrective measures, ranging from counseling and education to discipline and involvement of law enforcement, are implemented based on the severity of the behavior and the individual's history.
	Prevention and education are integral components of this policy and procedure. Staff members receive annual training to understand their roles and responsibilities, while students are provided with age-appropriate information to recognize and prevent harassment, intimidation, or bullying.
	The policy acknowledges that it does not limit the school's ability to address other inappropriate behaviors through additional policies or rules. It also emphasizes the school's commitment to compliance with state laws related to harassment, intimidation, or bullying.
	Overall, this comprehensive policy and procedure reflect the school's dedication to maintaining a safe, respectful, and inclusive learning environment. By promoting awareness, intervention, and support, the school aims to ensure the well-being and academic success of all students while fostering a positive and thriving educational community
J.	First Read Policy and Procedure 3231 Student Records	Discuss	Steven Carney	5 m

Background: The combined Policy and Procedure on Student Records establishes the guidelines for the school's management and protection of student information in compliance with state and federal laws. The Policy emphasizes the importance of maintaining student records for educational guidance, operational efficiency, and legal requirements. It highlights that student records are the property of the school while ensuring access to students and parents in an orderly and timely manner.

The Procedure defines education records and provides examples of the information contained within them, such as cumulative folders, supplementary records, and other relevant records. It outlines the general rights of parents and eligible students under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), including the rights to access, seek amendment, and consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information from education records. The Procedure also explains the exceptions to consent for disclosure, such as disclosure to school officials, other schools, and for directory information.

Additionally, the Procedure addresses the process for amendment of education records, the retention of student records according to state records retention schedules, and the release of records to other school agencies or organizations. It clarifies the circumstances under which grades, transcripts, or diplomas may be withheld, such as outstanding fees or fines. The Procedure also acknowledges the need for parental or adult student consent for the release of records, with exceptions as provided by law.

Overall, the combined Policy and Procedure on Student Records underscores the school's commitment to safeguarding student information while facilitating appropriate access for educational purposes and legal compliance. It establishes clear guidelines for the management, disclosure, and retention of student records, ensuring transparency and protection of privacy rights.

| K. | First Read Policy and Procedure 4130 Title I Parent and Family Engagement | Discuss | Steven Carney | 5 m |

Background: The combined Policy and Procedure on Title I Parent and Family Engagement underscores the school's commitment to involving and supporting parents and families in their children's education. The Policy recognizes the diversity of family structures, circumstances, and cultural backgrounds, valuing families as important decision-makers in their children's educational journey.

The Policy highlights the school's adherence to federal laws governing Title I programs and emphasizes the involvement of parents and guardians in the development and evaluation of these programs. It acknowledges the critical role of coordination, technical assistance, and other support in effectively engaging parents to enhance student school performance and academic achievement.

The school's commitment to building the capacity for strong parental involvement is outlined, with an emphasis on conducting an annual evaluation of the policy's effectiveness and identifying barriers to greater parent participation, particularly for parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory children. The establishment of the Family Advisory Council (FAC) is detailed, with its integration into Title I program planning and evaluation processes.

The accompanying Procedure provides specific actions to ensure meaningful parent engagement. It outlines the annual meeting that informs parents of the school's participation under Title I, explains Title I requirements, and clarifies parental rights. The Procedure highlights the importance of flexibility in meeting times and ongoing involvement of parents in planning, reviewing, and improving Title I programs.

The Procedure further emphasizes timely information dissemination, including descriptions of the curriculum, academic assessments, and state academic standards. It emphasizes the need for regular communication between teachers and parents, frequent progress reports, reasonable access to staff, and opportunities for parent input and suggestions.

The school-parent compact is addressed in the Procedure, emphasizing shared responsibilities for improved student academic achievement. It outlines the school's commitment to providing high-quality curriculum and instruction while expecting parents to support their children's learning, volunteer in the classroom, and participate in education-related decisions. The importance of ongoing, meaningful communication between family members and school staff is emphasized.

The Procedure also addresses compliance with federal law, distribution of information in an understandable format and multiple languages, and the joint development of school-wide and individual school parent and family engagement plans. It underscores the involvement of parents in school review and improvement processes and the provision of resources and training to support parents in working with their children.

Overall, the combined Policy and Procedure on Title I Parent and Family Engagement demonstrates the school's dedication to fostering a collaborative partnership between school staff and parents. It promotes effective communication, shared responsibilities, and meaningful engagement to enhance student achievement and educational outcomes.

VII. BOARD ACTION ITEMS

5:32 PM

- | | | | | |
|-----------|--|------|---------------|-----|
| A. | Termination of PowerSchool Contract Granted / Powerschool Proposal Requested | Vote | Steven Carney | 3 m |
|-----------|--|------|---------------|-----|

Background: We have been actively pursuing the termination of our contract with PowerSchool due to their lack of responsiveness and failure to meet our needs. The timeline is as follows:

- April 7, 2023: Submitted contract termination request to PowerSchool.
- April 23, 2023: Conducted a meeting with PowerSchool regarding the termination request.
- No satisfactory resolution or clear communication has been received from PowerSchool.
- May 9, 2023: Demanded immediate action on termination request without penalties.
- May 9, 2023: Set a 24-hour deadline for PowerSchool to respond.
- May 9, 2023: A senior manager from PowerSchool acknowledged the urgency of the situation.
- May 9, 2023: Senior manager requested until early next week to provide a concrete update.
- May 18, 2023: Confirmation received that our cancellation request is being processed.
- May 18, 2023: A customer success manager will contact us about the next steps and required documentation.
- May 18, 2023: Expressed appreciation for the resolution and belief in the approved cancellation request without penalties.

Recommendation: Based on the progress made with the termination process, it is recommended that the Board take the following actions:

1. Direct the Executive Director to complete the termination request and sign the required documents with PowerSchool.
2. Approve the forthcoming proposal and adoption of Skyward as the new student information system for the 2023/2024 school year.

Next Steps: Once the termination process is finalized and the required documentation is completed, the Executive Director will provide an update to the Board. Simultaneously, necessary steps will be taken to proceed with the contract with Skyward through ESD 112.

Financial Implications: The termination of the PowerSchool contract and adoption of Skyward have minimum financial implications. We anticipate the proposal for purchasing Skyward to be similar or equal to the remaining costs associated with the Powerschool contract. The details and impact on the budget will be presented at the next board meeting.

B. Ribbon Cutting / Grand Opening Committee Vote Steven Carney 10 m

As the anticipated date for the grand opening and ribbon-cutting ceremony of Rooted School Vancouver draws near, we propose forming a dedicated committee to assist in the planning and execution of this momentous event.

The purpose of this committee will be to provide valuable input, support, and guidance throughout the planning process, ensuring the grand opening of Rooted School Vancouver is a resounding success. The committee will convene once every two weeks leading up to the event, enabling us to efficiently collaborate and address any challenges or opportunities that arise.

I believe that a committee composed of diverse stakeholders, including board members, school administrators, educators, community representatives, and relevant professionals, would bring a wealth of perspectives and expertise to the table.

The committee's collective efforts will help create an inclusive and impactful grand opening experience that reflects Rooted School's mission, values, and commitment to excellence in education. The proposed committee's primary responsibilities will include, but not be limited to:

- Strategic Planning: Developing a comprehensive event plan, defining goals, objectives, and key messages for the grand opening, and overseeing its execution.
- Program Development: Collaboratively designing the event program, including guest speakers, performances, and interactive activities that align with Rooted School's vision and ethos.
- Logistics and Operations: Coordinating logistical aspects such as venue selection, event setup, audio-visual requirements, transportation, and managing timelines to ensure a smooth and seamless experience.
- Outreach and Promotion: Implementing strategies to raise awareness about the grand opening, engage the local community, attract media coverage, and secure the attendance of influential stakeholders.

	Purpose	Presenter	Time
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Budget and Fundraising: Collaborating with the board to establish a budget, identify potential sources of funding, and explore sponsorship opportunities to support the grand opening event. • Post-Event Evaluation: Conducting a comprehensive evaluation of the grand opening, gathering feedback from attendees, and identifying areas for improvement to inform future events and initiatives.

We kindly request that the formation of this committee be discussed and voted upon. If approved, We are happy to work closely with the board to identify committee members, establish a meeting schedule, and define the committee's mandate and responsibilities.

I am confident that forming a dedicated committee will ensure the grand opening of Rooted School Vancouver receives the attention, collaboration, and expertise it deserves.

By engaging a diverse group of stakeholders, we can create an unforgettable event that showcases the transformative impact Rooted School will have on our students and community.

Recommendation: Approve the formation of a Grand Opening/Ribbon Cutting Committee
