We humbly acknowledge that Rooted School Vancouver stands on the ancestral lands of the Indigenous peoples of this region. We recognize and honor the historic and continued presence of the Cowlitz, Chinook, Klickitat, Yakama, Grand Ronde, Wasco, and Wishram peoples.

We acknowledge the trauma and injustice inflicted upon Indigenous communities through centuries of colonization, displacement, and assimilation efforts. As we seek to create a safe and inclusive learning environment for all students, we commit to learning from and partnering with Indigenous communities to promote healing and equity.

We also recognize the invaluable contributions and knowledge of Indigenous peoples to our shared history, culture, and identity. We are committed to integrating Indigenous perspectives and knowledge into our curriculum and ensuring that the voices and experiences of Indigenous students are heard and valued in our school community.

I. First Read Policy and Procedure 4220: COMPLAINTS CONCERNING STAFF or PROGRAMS

Background:

This policy is designed to manage complaints related to staff or programs in a constructive manner, while maintaining the board's trust in its staff and programs. Complaints received will be directed to the Executive Director for investigation, who will develop procedures to handle such matters. Issues related to instructional materials should follow Policy 2020. This policy adheres to legal references, including RCW 28A.405.300 and Chapter 42.30 RCW Open Public Meetings Act.

This procedure emphasizes resolving complaints through informal discussions and conferences, using restorative justice principles. If unresolved, the community member files a written complaint with the Executive Director, who involves the DOO and other relevant parties. The Executive Director then attempts to resolve the matter through conferences.

If still unresolved, the issue is presented to the board. Formal board actions must take place in an open meeting, and if a staff member's contract status may be adversely affected, they will receive written notice of their rights to a hearing.

All community members must use the approved process, and if the complaint remains unresolved or involves the Executive Director, the aggrieved person may file a written complaint with the board chair.

This procedure outlines a three-step process for resolving written complaints filed by staff members:

1. Step One: The staff member presents a written complaint to their immediate supervisor within 15 calendar days of the incident, detailing the facts, policy/procedure violations, and desired solution. If unresolved, the complaint may be appealed to the Executive Director/designee within 10 calendar days.
2. Step Two: The Executive Director/designee meets with the staff member(s) within 10 calendar days of receiving the appeal, and renders a decision within another 10 calendar days. If unresolved, the complaint may be appealed to the board within 10 calendar days.
3. Step Three: The board holds a hearing and presents its decision within 15 calendar days of the hearing. The board's decision is considered final.
