V. Reports to the Board

A. Finance / Fund Development Committee Report

Fundraising Committee met on the 19th of January to go over finances and updated the fundraising plan.

B. Student Representative Report

Student representative shared that due to the snow students had another week off that caused some stress due to not being able to be in school. This caused students and teachers to get behind on schoolwork and lessons. A lot of students are behind on assignments, thankfully teachers have been very supportive in helping students get their assignments completed. Teachers and students are now working together to finish all work by the end of semester.

C. RSF Report

RSF is working with an external organization called Attuned to put together a strategic plan. Jonathan is going to look over comments and suggestions made by Steven and Adrienne after reviewing the plan. Still awaiting full report.

D. Director of CTE Report

Students are learning basic lighting techniques, simple animation and are applying these skill sin group projects. Students practice test results showed a pass rate of over 50% with a passing score set to 70% to prep for the unity certification exam using Gmetrix.
