A. Finance / Fund Development Committee Report

Taína discussed the need for a stronger fundraising plan for the Rooted School Foundation, focusing on individual donors and corporate sponsorships. She outlined a series of action items, including identifying local champions for fundraising events and mapping their proof points to potential donors. Taína also emphasized the importance of building a network of contacts and aimed to raise their annual target to around 25K, with a long-term goal of 50K. She clarified that they are not seeking large donors initially but rather aiming for a range of support. Ach' Sheila asked for clarification on their fundraising strategy, and Taína explained their approach of first building a community and recognition before pursuing larger donations.

Steven Carney reported on budget progress, highlighting successful management of resources and under-spending, with a focus on maintaining adequate cash reserves.

Steven Carney discussed enrichment funding, mentioning RSF's grant applications and the recent legislation increase in funding.
