VI. BOARD INFORMATION/DISCUSSION ITEMS

A. Financial Update

- Enrollment variance noted: Current 54 students vs. 70 budgeted, leading to a $81,000 projected revenue shortfall.
- Efforts to mitigate loss include community outreach and improved enrollment strategies.
- Financials remain stable, with 108 days cash on hand.

Received a $17,000 Ninth Grade Success Grant and a $28,000 Beloved Community Grant (BIPOC-focused).

B. Reports to the Board

Student Report:

Crystal Rauda and Samantha Sanchez highlighted:

- Spirit Week events.
- Plans for a Winter Formal pending venue and budget approval.
- Request for board support in fundraising and securing a venue.

Operations Report:

- Staff completed McKinney-Vento and multilingual language training.

Compliance requirements met, and January 14 student exhibition scheduled.

Executive Director Report:

Steven Carney provided updates on legislative, financial, and operational matters:

• Legislative Concerns:

- Highlighted a $12 billion state deficit and potential impacts on small school funding, noting that budget discussions may delay the school's budget finalization until August 2025.

• Partnerships:

- Engaged with Excellent Schools Washington and Gates Foundation to secure additional support for growing pains.
- Collaborating with Rooted School Network to support the opening of Rooted School Columbia, which will include $5,000 for hosting the new Executive Director and virtual debrief sessions.

• Certifications and Compliance:

- Rooted School Vancouver achieved full certification status by the State Board of Education, meeting all requirements for course offerings and activities.

• Events:

- Encouraged board participation in the iUrban Teen MLK Breakfast in January.
- Promoted attendance at the Watch Charters Conference in May 2025, emphasizing its networking and professional development value.

C. Reflection on the Johns Hopkins School Climate Survey

Steven Carney presented key findings:

- Strengths: Teacher-student relationships and clear expectations.
- Areas for improvement: Bullying concerns (staff-rated 2.8/5), student engagement (3.36/5), and equity issues.

D. Review of Fall 2024 Quality School Review (QSR) Notes

Steven Carney presented the findings and discussion points from the Fall 2024 QSR:

Academic Performance:

- NWEA assessments showed growth in reading proficiency (45% above the 50th percentile, up from 39%) but identified math gaps, particularly in Algebra I.
- Math intervention programs, including Math Nation, are underway.

Organizational Performance:

- Governance requirements, teacher credentials, and safety protocols are compliant.
- New leadership transitions are planned for the next academic year.

Financial Viability:

- Financial health remains stable, though enrollment variance (53 FTE vs. 70 target) poses challenges.
- Recruitment and fundraising efforts are in progress.

Next Steps:

- Focus on improving math and reading outcomes.
- Prioritize student connectedness and engagement via project-based learning and other strategies.
- Address long-term financial planning and facility needs.

VII. Committee Reports to the Board

A. Finance / Fund Development Committee Report

Adrienne Mason provided an update on the school's financial status and fundraising initiatives:

- Ongoing efforts to secure grant funding and private donations to offset enrollment-based revenue shortfalls.
- An audit update was provided, confirming compliance with RCW regulations.
