III. Discussion

A. Board Succession Planning

Purpose:

To strategize continuity and sustained leadership through board succession planning.

Current State of the Board:

- Noted vacancies following recent resignations (Taina Knox and Dr. Jennifer Hernandez).
- Discussion of potential bylaw amendment to expand board membership from nine to eleven.

Succession Planning Framework:

- Emphasis on incorporating diversity, equity, and inclusion goals into board recruitment.
- Identification of skills needed:
 - Technology expertise
 - Youth engagement
 - Fundraising and development
 - Mental health advocacy

Recruitment Strategies:

- Prioritization of representation from the Latinx, Pacifica, and Asian communities.
- Intentional recruitment through personal invitations to avoid tokenism.

Onboarding and Development:

- Plans for comprehensive onboarding and leadership development to ensure readiness for board roles.

Next Steps:

- Circulation of a spreadsheet for board members to list potential candidates and skillsets.
- Assignment of tasks to the Governance Committee for follow-up.

Outcome Goals:

- Alignment on the recruitment of candidates based on strategic needs.
- Consensus on developing intentional relationships with underrepresented communities.
- Agreement to revisit the topic and evaluate progress in the next meeting.
