II. Finance / Fund Development

A. RSV Finance Update

- Key Updates:

- November marked the end of Q1.
- Payroll and accounts payable (AP) were in line with prior months.
- A $70,000 AP was deemed reasonable; $3,700 non-cash AP was flagged for reduction.

- Revenue:

- A $46,000 decrease in general apportionment due to enrollment shortfalls.
- Drop in English Language Learner (TBIP) funding due to fewer eligible students.
- $22,000 decrease in special education (SPED) funding linked to enrollment caps.

- Expenses:

- Most expenses tracked below the 25% benchmark for the fiscal year.
- Adjustments were discussed for potential reforecasting in Q2.

- Grants and Funding:

- $17,000 9th Grade Success Grant secured.
- $28,000 Beloved Community Grant (Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation).

Enrollment and Outreach Efforts (Led by Steven)

- Enrollment in November was 54 students, down by six from October.
- Efforts underway include yard signs, targeted ads, and door hangers during the holiday break.
- Positive interest from prospective families, with potential January enrollments.

B. Proposal Review – Fundraising Infrastructure

Fundraising Proposal Overview (Presented by Eddie Allen)

- Proposal focuses on developing grant initiatives and building donor relationships.
- Infrastructure support to include a new donor database and annual giving plans.
- Collaborative approach to identifying major donors and leveraging board and staff connections.
- Emphasis on recurring giving and engaging marketing strategies.
- Budget: $34,500, including grant writing, donor cultivation, and miscellaneous expenses.

Discussion and Questions

- Members sought clarity on progress tracking, database scalability, and board engagement.
- Key concerns: Alignment with the school's mission, leveraging existing resources, and ensuring cost-effectiveness.
- Advisory board formation and broader community engagement were briefly discussed.

Action Items

- Board Review: Proposal to be presented at the upcoming board meeting for discussion and approval.
- Follow-Up: Eddie Allen to provide additional details on potential grants and donor cultivation strategies.
