I. Board Workshop

A. Board Workshop

1. Welcome & Check-In

Themes discussed:

Advocacy and leadership that balances truth with care.

Importance of intentional communication and inclusion.

Authentic relationship-building over time.

Student representative Crystal shared how board participation increased her confidence and sense of belonging.

2. Committee Review & Board Capacity

Committees Discussed:

Governance

Academic Excellence

Finance and Fund Development

Board Capacity Survey Results:

Financial Giving: Majority can give up to $500 annually.

Digital Reach: Collectively ~6,000–7,000 followers across social platforms.

Time Capacity: Range from leading regularly to occasional skill contributions.

Discussion Highlights:

Need to align board strengths with appropriate committees.

Financial giving is limited; focus on leveraging time, talents, and networks.

Recruitment goal: add members with fundraising access or capacity.

3. Marketing & Enrollment Growth

Current marketing noted as too traditional and not engaging youth effectively.

Suggestions:

Use student-led social media (TikTok, videos, trends).

Highlight student pathways and culture in content.

Potential for art class, advisory, or student council to lead branding projects.

Consider rebranding for stronger youth and community engagement.

4. Fundraising & Community Engagement

Strategies for increasing community and donor investment:

Define donor ROI (e.g., $100 = 1 student credential).

Create sponsorship tiers for visibility (e.g., website, events).

Leverage graduation and senior transition programs for fundraising stories.

Tap into local business relationships (e.g., banks, car washes, local shops).

Use student and parent competitions (e.g., classroom pizza prizes) to boost engagement.

5. Calendar Planning & Board Presence

Importance of calendaring key events in advance to increase board participation.

Opportunities discussed:

Assemblies featuring board members.

“Meet the Board” or Career Panels.

First day of school participation.

Clear coordination to maintain OPMA compliance (avoid quorum).

Suggestion: Add student engagement to new board member onboarding.
