II. Board Committee Reports

A. CCS Presentation

Simone Smith, Director of College & Career Success ("CCS"), presented the CCS report:

CCS counsels with a tiered approach in order to cater to the diverse needs of the student body.

- So far, CCS has had 1,600 meetings which has helped tremendously support the academic success of many students.
- CCS also has many programming events throughout the year; so far,
  - 12 college representative visits
  - 2 college application night
  - 2 college trips
  - 3 Parent workshops
  - Alumni Week

College Applications:

- Over 1,400 applications submitted
- More than 301 acceptances so far; not including CUNY
- 4.8 Million in scholarships

Financial Aid:

- Applications opened 2 months late this year; opened in December
  - Information on funds, aid packages, and further details will be released by March

- Nationwide delay due to many changes the financial aid applications are undergoing

New Partnership:

- CARA partnership
  - Helping with maintaining a uniform curriculum for the college and career readiness class
    - This curriculum is aimed at establishing an infrastructure that fosters a supportive culture of post secondary access.
    - Their primary goal is to equip first generation college students, low-income, and students of color with all the tools to succeed
    - This curriculum provides training and professional development for staff on navigating the post-secondary world and addressing challenges faced by first generation college college students.

Spring event lineup:

- Parent workshops; in conjunction with Cara
  - They assisted CCS with coming up with a parent series
    - 4 will be held throughout the year
- 5 college tours
- I Decided Day

Hazel Torres, Alumni Manager, presented the following:

Alumni Week:

- Alumni come back to IAL
  - Teachers get to see their students again
    - Catch up on life and academic goals/progression

College Fair:

- Total success this year
  - Multiple colleges/universities and 12 different organizations were able to share about college support

College and Career Enrollment for Class of 2023:

- 73.7% of this cohort are enrolled in a 2-yr or 4 yr college
- 3 students have enrolled into the Military
- 4 students have enrolled into trade school

B. Facilities and Finance Report

Lottery:

- IAL has been targeting the Inwood neighborhood, neighboring neighborhoods, Fordham area, and Kingsbridge for students and families.
- 128 ELL applications; 32% of the total applications received
