II. Board Committee Reports

A. School Update/Colombia Presentation

J. Santana provided an update to the board on the overall positive experience of the students who traveled to Colombia to present at ResearchEd.

B. Budget Presentation

J. Pichardo shared the budget presentation to the Board:

- The organization is projecting overall financial growth for FY 2026–27, with revenue expected to increase to approximately $28M.
- State funding remains the school's primary revenue source, accounting for the vast majority of total funding.
- Leadership identified maintaining financial stability, protecting reserves, and preserving high-impact student programs as the top budget priorities.
- Staffing continues to be the largest operational investment, with most expenditures tied to salaries and employee benefits.
- The FY 2026–27 budget is being shaped by increased per-pupil funding and planned investments in staff salary competitiveness.
- The presentation emphasized a structured, long-term budget planning process leading toward final board adoption in June 2026.
