III. Executive Committee

A. Board Recruitment and Open House Event

- The Board Social will be October 27th from 5-7:30 at the Douglas County Chamber. Light bites and a short presentation will be provided.
- We will create a sub-committee for elections.

IV. Finance Committee

A. Finance Committee -

- The policy committee reviewed the policy surrounding purchases and expenditures.

Key Points

- The limit increase allows flexibility for approved, budgeted expenses such as facility, instructional, and travel costs without affecting expenditure thresholds.
- The cardholder reduction from five (5) users to two (2) centralizes accountability and eliminates shared custody of funds.
- Each cardholder will have an individual card tied to the school account for traceability.

- All purchases will continue to require itemized receipts, written purpose documentation, and reconciliation within 30 days.
- Monthly reports will be reviewed by the Treasurer and presented to the Finance Committee for transparency.

Recommended Committee Action

Potential Proposed Motion for Recommendation:

That the Policy Committee recommend to the full Governing Board the approval of (1) an increase in the Brighten Academy corporate credit card limit from $4,500 to $8,000; and (2) an update to authorized users, limiting card access to the Executive Director and the School Principal. These changes shall not alter existing expenditure thresholds or procurement procedures. All transactions remain subject to required documentation, reconciliation, and Board oversight.

Next Steps

1. Committee discussion and recommendation.
2. Inclusion of the recommendation in the next Governing Board agenda.
3. Upon Board approval, the Treasurer and President will coordinate with the financial institution to implement changes.
4. Policy manual updates will reflect revised limits and authorized user access.

- Cary submitted a motion to increase the cc limit from 4500 to 8,000 and to give access to only the ED and Principal. MOTION PASSED
