debt-to-income-ratio is positive

Covered financials through the end of June.

Reginald commented that the board should start thinking about ways to close the $15,000-$30,000 gap. Asked that the board start brainstorming ways to raise money.

Parent suggested that we should start planning for the golf tournament now before large corporations start committing to other organizations.

Dr. Carter explained that we have a golf tournament committee already, but we encourage parents to join the committee if they would like to assist.

Reginald confirmed that the golf tournament will be on Jamilia asked how we can attract people to Brighten to attend our golf tournament. Discussed that the first step would be to lockdown large corporations before the smaller ones.

Question was asked if we want to consider doing multiple events. PTO is happy to collaborate with us on the events, as long as it doesn't interfere with their events.

Steps for Golf Tournament

- confirming the date
- confirming the sponsors from last year
- reviewing the calendar to see if there is room for another event

Kristen Moses will sit in on the PTO meeting on 9/10 to promote the Olympics Board Bash and the golf tournament.

The Give-or-Get initiative was discussed. The question of if we should continue it or remove it. The Board explained that we would need to look at the debt in more detail to determine the need/ask.
