Support for Personal Savings Customers

You can view your personal savings account online 24/7. Simply log in to manage your account, check your balance, deposit checks by phone, transfer money, set up alerts, reset your password, and more. Visit the Personal Savings Homepage to view call center availability and up-to-date hold times.

Here's how to manage your security during this time:

Update your contact information

Make sure we have your current email and cell phone number on file. We'll use them to get in touch if there's an issue with your account or if we need to confirm your identity. Log into your account to edit or update this information.

Be aware of scams

Unfortunately, scammers might try to use the COVID-19 crisis to defraud consumers through phishing attempts like suspicious emails or text messages. The end goal is to get you to reveal personal information, make purchases or donations on spoof websites, or download malware onto your device by opening a malicious attachment.

Here are a few things to keep in mind:

- We'll never ask you to verify sensitive information such as your name, account number, or password through email.
- If you think you've received a phishing email, don't click any links.
- Forward all suspicious emails to spoof@americanexpress.com and we'll take it from there.
- After forwarding us a suspicious email, we suggest deleting it from your inbox.

For more information on how to protect your account, visit our Security Center.

How to Dispute Charges

If you find a charge you feel was in error, you can dispute it online.

Here are a few things to keep in mind when disputing a charge:

- It's often easiest to contact the business or merchant directly. Many businesses have cancellation or refund policies related to COVID-19 that may apply to your charge.
- If a business or merchant has agreed to a refund, it might take a little longer than usual for the money to post to your account due to a high volume of disputes.
- If you haven't been able to resolve the dispute through the business or merchant, feel free to contact us directly. We may suspend the payment while we review the dispute.
- You won't be responsible for the dispute charge while we look into it.
- If you file a dispute with us and the merchant or business in question has already refunded you, just keep in mind that we'll rebill the charge to your account.

To file a dispute online, simply log in to your account and choose the transaction you'd like to dispute in your statement. Filing a dispute online can be faster and follows the same process as calling into customer care.
