A. Discuss and Vote on Healthcare Benefits Proposals

Daniel Chang spoke on the Request for Proposal (RFP) process used to get bids from healthcare insurance providers. RFPs were sent to five providers: CharterLIFE (incumbent), Self-Insured Schools of California (SISC), Burnham Benefits, Bolton & Company, and Navali & Company. After review, the candidates were narrowed down to CharterLIFE and SISC. The proposals from each, as well as a comparison of the costs and a breakdown of the services provided and deductibles, co-pays, etc., was provided. Greg Wood spoke about the comparison in costs and the costs-savings associated with going with SISC. Similar plans are being offered under Anthem and Kaiser. Mr. Wood stated that we wanted to make sure that the same quality of coverage was being provided, while also exploring the cost associated with going to a composite rate versus a tiered rate. Mr. Wood noted that, under CharterLIFE an employee could opt out of getting insurance and would be provided a stipend for opting out. Under SISC, new members are not allowed to opt out; however, current employees who had previously opted out will be grandfathered-in and be allowed to continue receiving the opt out stipend. SISC has a very minimal, low-cost high-deductible plan; for new employees who select this minimal plan, they would still be given a stipend.

Beth Florek-Chiang spoke on the customer service issues that our HR has had with CharterLIFE, including difficulty in communications.

Ms. Chen asked about the quality of customer service that we could get through SISC; Mr. Wood noted that he had worked with SISC when he was with Palisades High, and found their customer service to be very good.

Mr. Wood also discussed the savings associated broken down by the type of plan. Taking into consideration the loyalty credit that CharterLIFE is offering and comparing the composite plans across the board, the total savings if we switch to SISC would be $249,816 for a 9-month period. Based on this, Mr. Wood is recommending that we change our provider to SISC.

Mr. Silverstein asked if the vision plan would be the same; yes, the plan is the same. As is the same for dental.

Mr. Lee asked if this information had been provided to staff; all this information that is included in the Board packet was provided to both labor organizations this morning. John Perez arrived.

Linda Ibach made a motion to change the healthcare plan provider to SISC starting January 1, 2021.

Kenneth Lee seconded the motion.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.
