Mr. David Hussey led the Pledge of Allegiance to the United States of America (USA).

D. Public Comments

Mr. Ryan Guinto explained the procedures for public comments, including the two-minute limit per speaker.

Public Comments are the following:

Cash Ellingwood stated that the Aquatic Program received a $12,400 donation from families, friends, and the community but the program was abruptly shut down. Ellingwood argued that it is unfair that they cannot use the equipment or access the donation money, emphasizing that they deserve both access and the ability to use the funds for other needs.

Alexander Saleh expressed disappointment with the hiring decision for the aquatics coach and allegations of inappropriate behavior.

Allison Wong highlighted the efforts to keep the Woodland Hills rec center open and the lack of support from the administration.

Anders Sundberg discussed the administration's handling of the aquatics program and the lack of communication. Sundberg argued that the donated funds of over $12,000 and the equipment should either be used for the students or returned to them.

Olive Sanders, shared her experiences with the aquatics program and the lack of support from the administration.

Sophia Hernandez stated that students secured reliable practice locations, including a community pool and two school facilities, but the program was abruptly shut down. She flagged concerns about the hiring of an unqualified coach and the failure to find a qualified replacement before the second semester.

Mr. Wright acknowledged the heartfelt comments and promised to look into the concerns, including the donated money. As a former athlete himself, he emphasized the importance of the students' efforts and hard work. He expressed hope that they would trust the management moving forward.
