The media center's audio system is expected to be finished next week, lighting upgrades have been completed, and the tennis courts have been redone. Additionally, the woodshop received new equipment, the student store was repainted, the music lab was upgraded, and new clocks and emergency systems were installed in all classrooms.

He also acknowledged the counselors and school-based therapists for their involvement in World Suicide Prevention Day.

F. Chief Business Officer Update

Mr. Wood provided the update highlighting the following:

Enrollment: The school is in week five of the academic year. As predicted, enrollment has dropped to 2,949 students, down by 204 compared to the previous year, but this decline was accounted for in the budget. Revised budget numbers will be presented at the September board meeting.

Cafeteria: It was noted that high temperatures have affected meal service, with only cold food served the previous day, and three food service employees falling ill, leaving only four staff members available.

Issues with the extractor fans were reported, which may need replacing at the school's expense. Mr. Wood reminded the Board that such expenses have been budgeted for - $15 million had been set aside for deferred maintenance to address such issues and to ensure compliance with OSHA standards while protecting employees.

Funding: There are no major updates since June, and the school hopes to stay within budget for the items approved in June. More updates will be provided at the regular September meeting.

Mr. Solkovits requested a report on the enrollment of nearby schools by the October meeting while Mr. Wright asked for an analysis of the reasons behind the enrollment decline, expressing interest in whether this is a broader trend affecting other schools or specific to El Camino

- Mid-December: The results of the surveys will be shared with the board of directors. These will serve as data points rather than a complete evaluation at this stage.
- Mid-January to end of January: Committee members and the executive board will conduct observations of Mr. Hussey, following standard practices for evaluating certificated employees.
- February: The evaluation team will meet with representatives of the stakeholder groups to gather feedback, building on the surveys conducted in the fall.

IV. Investment

A. Investment Update August 2024

Gregory Wood, ECRCHS CBO provided the Investment Update August 2024.

OPEB account: The OPEB account closed the year with $30.8 million, a significant increase from the starting balance of $25.3 million. Throughout the year, payments of $440,000 was invested directly into retiree accounts from the OPEB, bringing it to a total of $2.6 million in contributions. Investment gains were over 13%, and combined with the contributions, the OPEB account grew by 21.7%.

General investments: The total stood at $7.6 million, with a 4% return.

By the end of August, the OPEB account had grown further to $31.3 million. During July and August, $102,000 was paid directly to retiree accounts, and the account saw $1.2 million in gains.

According to the actuary report, the account is now fully funded, so no new contributions are planned.

The General investment account remained at $7.6 million, with a continued performance gain of about 2% over the first two months. He praised the investment advisor for maintaining strong performance within policy ranges.

Beacon Pointe/Mr. Breller report: Beacon Pointe follows specific criteria for managing the OPEB investments. As shown on page three of the report, the total OPEB investments amount to $30.8 million, with a 13% return for the year. During the year, some underperforming advisors were switched based on investment metrics.

At the bottom of the page, the report detailed the allocation of investments across various categories, including US equities, international equities, fixed income, alternatives, and cash. The investments are distributed in line with the board's investment policy, with all allocations being within 1% of the target levels. The investment advisor is responsible for managing these allocations and making adjustments when necessary, following board policy without needing a full meeting.

On page seven, Mr. Wood noted that the General investment account holds $6.8 million and had a 9% return for the year. This account is more conservatively managed, with a focus on fixed income. The investments remain within policy ranges, with some differences slightly exceeding 1%, but still aligned with the board's guidance.

B. Discussion and Vote on OPEB Account Actuary Review as of 6/30/24

Prior to the vote, Mr. Wood CBO and Brett Schwab presented the Actuary Review. Mr. Wood noted that Brett Schwab, the school's actuary with 30 years of experience working with educational and governmental entities, would present the report. Schwab has been conducting annual valuations and projections for El Camino since it began funding the OPEB in 2016.

Funded percentage: Mr. Schwab explained that the OPEB funded percentage had increased by 12.1% over the past year, reaching 105.2%, compared to 93.1% the previous year. This marks the first time the benefit obligation (APBO), which represents the present value of future benefits expected to be paid to participants, has been fully funded.

The APBO increased from $27.2 million last year to $29.3 million due to additional years of service from active employees and the fact that participants are closer to receiving benefits, reducing the discounting needed. The discount rate for 2024 was set at 5%, up from 4.85% the previous year, which contributed to lowering the APBO.

Asset value: Assets have increased by $5.5 million, with $2.64 million coming from cash contributions during the fiscal year. Starting in October 2023, premium payments for benefits began being paid directly from the OPEB trust, resulting in $441,000 being paid out of the trust.

Investment returns also added $3.3 million, resulting in the APBO being fully funded for the first time, with future returns and premium levels determining next year's status.

When asked by Mr. Wood about the percentage of charter schools that have fully funded OPEB accounts, Mr. Schwab replied that most of the districts and charter schools he works with do not fund their OPEB accounts, leaving their funded percentage at zero. However, a few, including some in the local area, have reached 100% this year, though their investment strategies differ-favoring fixed income or bonds over equities. Schwab praised the organization for achieving full funding in under 10 years, calling it a significant accomplishment.

Alexandra Ramirez made a motion to Approve the OPEB Account Actuary Review as of 6/30/24.

Gregg Solkovits seconded the motion.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

V. Finance

A. Review and Vote on June and July 2024 Check Registers

Prior to the Vote to approve, Ms. Arleta Ilyas, reviewed the June and July 2024 check registers

ASB checking account: Ms. Ilyas began by reviewing the ASB checking account for June 2024, detailing various checks issued, their sources, and purposes, with a total amount of $47,957. These items are usually discussed in finance and investment committee meetings. She then moved on to the July ASB check register, presenting a total of $7,865.

ASB trust balances: Campus groups like clubs and teams held accounts, with a total trust balance of $585,988 at the end of the previous year. ASB income, generated by the student store through snack and merchandise sales, amounted to $157,177, while related expenses, such as inventory and services, totaled $76,332, leaving a general fund balance of $80,000. The final ASB balance after all income and expenses was $666,834.

In response to a question about ASB spending $11,000 on consultants, Ms. Ilyas clarified that the expenses were for various services, such as flowers and balloon arches, rather than traditional consultants. These expenses were classified as "consultants" in the books because they involved external vendors providing services, not the purchase of supplies.

Vendor YTD June and July: Payments made in June totaled $2,055,136, with a YTD total of $22,864,603. For July, vendor payments amounted to $1,542,047, which was also the YTD figure as it was the first month of the school year.

General account June and July: This covers recurring payments such as benefits and payroll deductions. The grand total for June was $617,732, while the total for July, excluding OPEB contributions, was $570,715. It was noted that Charter Safe, the school's insurance provider, received a 20% deposit in the first month, with monthly billing to follow thereafter.

Fund raising account: Account had a total of $4,626 by the end of July, which was utilized to cover payments for teacher appreciation, and items like coffee and bagels.

Checking Register: This register is used for most expenses such as legal bills, utilities or Amazon supplies. The total for June was $1,389,448, while July's total, including textbooks and supplies to start the school year, was $958,840.

Alexandra Ramirez made a motion to Approve the June and July 2024 Check Registers. Gregg Solkovits seconded the motion.
The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

B. Review and Vote on June and July 2024 Credit Card Statements

Prior to the vote, Mr. Wood and Arleta Ilyas, reviewed the June and July 2024 bank statements.

June and July credit cards: The credit card is typically used when vendors do not accept checks. The transactions were categorized by vendor, purpose, requester, and budget category. The total for June was $36,097, while July's total amounted to $93,929. Sebastian Winter made a motion to Approve the June and July 2024 Credit Card Statements.
Steven Kofahl seconded the motion.
The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

C. Review and Vote on 2024-2025 Proposition 30 EPA Budget

Prior to the vote, Arleta Ilyas, presented the Proposition 30 EPA Budget and answer any questions.

The Proposition 30 Education Protection Act (EPA) is part of the school's LCFF revenue. The school is required to show how much it's projected to receive and how it plans to spend it.

The projected total revenue is $6,564,700, with $4,350,000 allocated to Certificated Salaries and $2,214,700 allocated to Employee Benefits.

In response to a question on how they determine which certificated salaries are being paid for Versus the entire staff, Ms. Ilyas explained that Certificated EPA technically counts an Unrestricted fund. This means it could be anybody, as long as it fits within the amount allocated.

Gregg Solkovits made a motion to Approve the 2024-2025 Proposition 30 EPA Budget. Alexandra Ramirez seconded the motion.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

D. Approve new Bank Account for Arbiter Pay

Mr. Wood explained that Arbiter Pay is a system used by many school districts to pay referees and requires opening a trust account at Cache Valley Bank. He vouched for the bank's charter-friendly nature and noted that the funds would be held in the school's name, with an estimated trust balance of $10,000.

The athletic director would manage referee payments, and the business office would oversee the trust account, ensuring full accounting.

Arbiter Pay handles tax reporting and referee prequalification through CIF, and other schools such as Birmingham and Granada are already using the system. Although the system costs $2,000, it reduces the workload of manually generating checks and could be terminated at any point if necessary.

Mr. Solkovits questioned the need to pay an external service to process checks and expressed frustration that the board had not been previously informed of any issues regarding referee payments. He stated he would not support the proposal since it was the first time the board had heard of the problem.

Mr. Wright acknowledged the system's potential benefits but asked if the $2,000 cost would result in actual savings. Mr. Wood responded by explaining that the system could save time by reducing the need to rush checks at the last minute and address union requests for quicker referee payments. He emphasized that the system could be piloted for one year and terminated if it did not prove beneficial.

VI. School Business

A. Discussion and Vote on Revisions to ECRCHS Employee Handbook for 2024-2025

Prior to the Vote, Vania Rodriguez, Director of Human Resources, led the discussion on revisions to the ECRCHS Employee Handbook for 2024-2025.

Ms. Rodriguez presented the revisions to the ECRCHS Employee Handbook for the 2024-2025 school year, highlighting changes marked in red.

Policy 3.3: Now requires that employees be given written notice regarding wage overpayments and the opportunity to respond before any recoupment action. If the employee disputes the overpayment, the school must initiate legal action before proceeding.

Policy 4.3: Effective January 1st, recreational cannabis use outside of work is now a protected class, and discrimination based on this is prohibited. Additionally, the language was added to clarify that any harassment, discrimination, or abusive conduct is against policy, even if it is not unlawful.

Policy 4.14: Now includes a "Workplace Violence Reporting Form" under appendix C for reporting workplace violence.

Policy 6.2: The correction was made to include 14 paid holidays.

Policy 6.5: Updated to grant part-time employees one hour of sick time for every 30 hours worked, capped at 40 hours per year, with accrued and unused sick leave carrying over to the following year and will be capped at 80 hours.

Policy 6.7: Updated to limit employees to one designated person per 12 month period.

Policy 6.10: Update to reproductive loss leave, allowing employees five days per reproductive loss, with up to 20 days per year, covering multiple events like failed adoptions, surrogacy, miscarriages, or unsuccessful assisted reproduction. This leave must be used within three months of the loss.

Mr. Solkovits raised a concern about how the use of 20 days of reproductive loss leave might affect employee evaluations. Ms. Rodriguez clarified that employees are protected from evaluation penalties when using this leave.

Ms. Rodriguez concluded by mentioning that both the classified and certificated unions were consulted and had provided feedback, particularly regarding the cannabis policy, and that their questions were addressed.

Mr. Wright asked for clarification about the definition of "under the influence" for employees using cannabis outside of work. Mr. Scott responded by acknowledging the challenge, noting that there are no specific guidelines at the moment, which complicates matters given state law.

Gregg Solkovits made a motion to Approve the Revisions to ECRCHS Employee Handbook for 2024-2025.

Sebastian Winter seconded the motion.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

B. Discussion and Vote on Revisions to ECRCHS Parent and Student Employee Handbook 2024-2025

Item was tabled to give the legal, other stakeholders and the Board enough time to go over the changes.

C. Discussion and Vote on Request for One Period Coach Authorization During 2024-2025

Prior to a vote, Mr. Hussey, Executive Director, led the discussion on the Request for One Period Coach Authorization During 2024-2025, including verification of request and consent for the following sports/courses and authorized Teachers/Coaches:

- * Camille King - Cross Country, Track & Field
- * Eric Choi - Girls Golf, Girls Soccer, Boys Golf
- * Jason Sabolic - Football
- * Jason Camp - Water Polo, Aquatics

This authorization would allow full-time permanent or probationary teachers without PE credentials to coach a sport for which students can receive PE credit. Similar requests have been made in previous years to ensure that students participating in these sports would still receive PE credit.

Steven Kofahl made a motion to Approve the Request for One Period Coach Authorization during 2024-2025.

Alexandra Ramirez seconded the motion.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

D. Annual Performance-based Charter School Division Oversight Visit Report for 2023-2024

Mr. Hussey, Executive Director, provided a summary of the report

Summary of ratings: The report was received in late June. Governance received a score of 4 (accomplished), student achievement a 3 (proficient), organization management programs a 3 (proficient), and fiscal operations a 4 (accomplished). He credited Ms. Rodriguez, the director of HR, for improving the organization management score from 2 to 3, and applauded the team for an excellent ESSA grade.

Student achievement: Mr. Hussey explained the school's plan to focus on professional learning communities and collaborative teams. The English Learner (EL) group, whose scores were below the state average, would be a key focus area. To address this, the school plans to hire an ELD teacher. The school's English Language Arts (ELA) scores were better than math scores.

Some areas where performance dropped, such as students with disabilities, Asian students, and those of two or more races, although African American students showed slight improvement. Some of the struggles in math were attributed to learning loss from the first year of the COVID pandemic and Mr. Hussey highlighted efforts to improve math performance, including a 24/7 online tutoring program and in-person tutoring during the school day, with support from CSUN to boost results.

E. Discuss and Vote on the Declaration of Need for an annual requirement of LEAs to obtain an emergency and limited assignment permit.

Prior to the vote, Vania Rodriguez, Director of Human Resources, presented the Declaration of Need. An annual requirement for LEAs to obtain emergency and limited assignment permits.

These documents allow qualified individuals to teach while they complete their credential requirements.

The Declaration of Need is an annual requirement for Local Education Agencies (LEAs) to obtain emergency and limited assignment permits. This would allow the school to secure provisional permits, short term staff permits, language and academic development permits, and variable term waivers for the academic year. She mentioned that the school anticipated needing two permits, which would have to be approved this school year.

In the "Areas of anticipated need for fully qualified educators," she estimated the need for two individuals with Bilingual Authorization and possibly two for Single Subject. Once approved, the school would submit the request to the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC), seeking at least two permits, including one local assignment permit and one ELA.

Gregg Solkovits made a motion to Approve the Declaration of Need for an annual requirement of LEAs to obtain an emergency and limited assignment permit.

Sebastian Winter seconded the motion.
