IV. AGENDA ITEMS FOR INFORMATION

A. Superintendent Report

Summer School

P. Lee shared that we are having Summer School this year. J. Parks will tell us more about that. This is an exciting opportunity that just came up.

Grants - Early Learning and Wellness Center

P. Lee reviewed grant opportunities in process. The RRSD received a grant from the Cow Creek Foundation. We have received every grant applied for so far. M. Jacob and P. Lee will meet with a Board of Trustees tomorrow for another grant.

P. Lee reviewed an OCF grant, along with several more in process.

RRSD has already received $170k in grants for this project. Things are looking good. We are getting a lot of support from our community partners.

P. Lee sent out a Safety Communication last week about our building progress. He's really excited about the effort going into making our kids as safe as we can.

Legislation

P. Lee shared that the accountability bill was reviewed. Our performance is not within the threshold they are looking at now, so we appear to be safe.

P. Lee briefly reviewed the employee strike bill.

The Regional CTE Center, the Southern Oregon Career Center, is between the SOESD and multiple medical entities. Without the Phoenix-Talent SD and the Rogue River SD committing early on, this would not have happened. We are very proud of our efforts.

Art

P. Lee took a moment to provide a response, reporting that he sought legal counsel, and reviewed policy regarding the controversy around the student art show. His decision followed the advice of the district's attorney.

B. RRJSHS School Report

T. Kirkpatrick introduced S. Wicks, RRJSHS Academic Counselor, to provide an update on their AVID program. This was S. Wicks big interim leadership project.

- This is year 3 of AVID for the RR Jr. Sr. High School.
- S. Wicks tied her SMART goals with this project to the District Integrated Plan.
- She reviewed the on-track to graduate and on-time graduation.
- She also reviewed the AVID PD modules and calendar. They have a robust plan for their monthly strategies. They made substantial improvement from November to May, 47 percent to 90 percent.
- She reviewed the logo they designed and gave to staff on a binder, shirt, and stickers.
- She reviewed the quarterly progress. As of this morning, the freshmen are at 86 percent to graduate.
- Jr High ELA scores have improved. This year we are 14 points above the state average. They are really proud of this growth.

What's next

- Nine staff are going to an AVID event next week. This is in Beaverton, OR.
- S. Wick reviewed detailed planning.
- She also reviewed teaching the student to know how to review notes.

C. RRES School Report

A. James reviewed the IXL data, which shows an increase.

- Math saw an increase in proficiency scores in SBAC scores .
- Writing scores were previously the lowest. This year there has been an increase in scores. For 3rd grade we are above the state average.

- ELA saw an increase in proficiency in every grade. . P. Lee inquired whether the level of increase was for the cohort. A. James reported yes.
- In reviewing last years slide, there was a decrease in every area. This year we saw an increase!!
- Alignment, priority standards, and interventions continue to be worked on. Writing continues to be a priority, as well as math.

D. SVA School Report

J. Parks presented and discussed resiliency.

- J. Parks highlighted the SVA 2025 graduation. They had 24 students graduate out of 29. All but one fifth year graduated.
- SVA honored Cecil Felkins at graduation.
- Many students received scholarships.
- J. Parks reported that the Board was well represented with M. Jacob attending.
- J. Parks reviewed their last day of school fun.
- J. Parks highlighted their Oregon State Assessment participation. The assessment culture was not present. There has now been a 966 percent increase from 23-24. She now feels strongly about the data received. For context, from 3 students to 29 students is a 966 percent increase.
- Information going out to the public is increasing. They will have a big kick-off event. J. Parks announced a save the date for August 27th for their kick-off.
- Summer School is from 8:00 am to 2:40 pm each day. There is no summer school on Fridays. It goes to the 14th of August. They are partnering with Rogue Valley Farm to School. So much information goes out to families that they have had 100 plus requests.
