D. Enrollment and Transportation Amendment to the TEACH LV Charter & Fiscal Notice of Concern

Matt Brown described the amendments to the contract, first the enrollment, which essentially reflects a one year lag in targets, the transportation amendment, delayed due to lack of funding. He also expressed that TEACH LV hopes to provide transportation in the future. He also described the Fiscal Notice of Concern, which was a result of the financial issues that have been covered at each board meeting. Board Member Sarisahin asked about the tone of the meeting with SPCSA and Mr. Brown stated that they were very supportive.

E. Tentative 2023-2024 TEACH Las Vegas Budget

J. Carver made a motion to Approve the Tentative Budget.

D. Horn seconded the motion.

Mr. McNeel presented the Tentative Budget and explained the timeline and process for finalizing the budget due June 10th. He explained the staffing ratios, and anticipated year end indicators. He also shared a longer term forecast that showed a healthier outlook but immediate cash flow will continue to be a problem in 23-24. Board Member Sarisahin asked McNeel to provide the SPCSA financial evaluation indicators in each report. Board Member Horn asked ED Moore how she felt about the necessity to reduce staff and she responded that her staff was dedicated to the students and would rise to the challenge of doing more with less.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.
