

CBK Update

March 19, 2019

Matthew Gordan (College Adviser)

By The Numbers:

- *1 Posse Scholarship winner (Puget Sound)
- *1 QuestBridge winner (Northwestern)
- *65 “Seniors”: 63 Seniors, 2 Juniors with hope of graduating early
- *60 applied to at least 4 UCs (1 Junior, 2 Seniors, 2 scholarship winners)
- *61 applied to at least 3 CSUs (2 Seniors with no interest, 2 scholarship winners) *63 submitted FAFSA (Junior, Senior)
- *25 applied to non-HBCU privates (all multiple applications)
- *Entire Senior class attended HBCU college fair
- *Have visited all 9th, 10th, and 11th grade classes to begin college conversations *Visited all 8th grade classes with Ms. Clark to begin high school conversation

Dates:

- *3/19: Private audience with Yale at Lakeview *3/22: PD @ Making Waves in Richmond
- *4/2: Financial Aid Workshop for Seniors
- *4/4: Community College Workshop for Seniors *4/25: Rejection Letter Pizza Party
- *5/31: Signing Day for Seniors

Still Planning:

*

Day trips to Davis, Santa Cruz, Monterey Bay, Sonoma St., and community colleges

Miscellaneous:

- *AIMS scholarship ready to be rolled out; $1500 STEM-related scholarship in memory of Alice *Spearmen, $1500 creative field-related scholarship in honor of David Chiu, and two $1K general scholarships. Financial need and two essays are required.
*AP ordering for high school complete
- *Paperwork filed for Mu Alpha Theta National Mathematics Honor Society *Big push for extracurricular and summer programs among all students