Our primary goal as speakers is to ensure that our audience receives the best possible presentation and that our time together goes smoothly, with no “glitches,” technical or otherwise. To that end, I’m providing a list of items that I will require on the day of my presentation:

- Rectangular table placed at front of the room and easily viewable by audience members.
- WiFi Access (I’ll provide my own laptop).
- Audio for my computer (standard 3.5mm headphone jack) connected to a sound system or external speakers appropriate for the venue space.
- Microphone (for groups of 30 or larger), preferably hands-free.
- Large screen and a projector that can be connected to my laptop. I can accommodate VGA or HDMI connections and provide my own dongles.

 Consultant will email you two weeks prior to training to gather any additional information and provide resources/handouts.
