Education and the Media

An off-the-record, non-partisan analysis of the state of elections, Congress and the White House, the impact on schools, and covering and reporting on education.

2018 Elections and What They Mean for Education

Gain insight and analysis into the latest mid-term election polling, what it could mean for outcomes and how it could impact schools.

E-Rate, School Connectivity and Schools

E-Rate represents the fourth largest stream of federal support to public schools. Learn how recent changes at both the FCC and the USAC have implications for the program and its leadership.

Supplement/Supplant and ESSA Fiscal Transparency

Discuss how, during the 2018– 2019 school year, ESSA's school expenditures reporting requirement and, potentially, new guidance on supplement, not supplant, will affect your district.

Higher Education Act and Teacher Shortages

Congressional reauthorization of the Higher

School Segregation: Federal, State and Local

Education Act, and the new bill's impact on teacher preparation, and how it will affect your ability to recruit and retain teachers.

Policy Solutions

How can local, state and federal policies support more racially and socioeconomically integrated schools? Featuring practitioners, researchers and policy experts.

Other opportunities include panel discussions with key Hill staff, a legislative breakfast featuring elected officials, the latest information on how to work with the current administration, and time for you to meet with your Congressional delegation.
