

Shout out to Watsonville Prep!

Shout out to the entire WPS team for being creative problem solvers during a city power outage as well as a broken water main. Thank you for going above and beyond to ensure students stayed safe and continued to learn and thrive!

Special thanks to the leadership team for their quick action, to the office and Ops team for ensuring students were fed and safe, and to the instructional staff for coming up with engaging outdoor lesson plans.

