V. Paredes-Colonia reported the committee's approval of successful annual audit reports. He discussed the development of the preliminary budget for Navigator Schools, including impacts related to COVID-19 funding, a cost of living adjustment (COLA), and competitive salary rates. He also shared that the committee had received an update on Proposition 39, school facilities, and related architectural services from K. Sved.

E. Academic Committee Report

K. Sved shared on behalf of the committee chair, Claire Grissom (who was present), that the committee had not met since the last board meeting. A related academic topic, Star interim assessments, would be addressed later in the current meeting agenda.

III. Topical Items

A. CEO Search Update

Committee members commended the expertise of the search firm, Leveled Talent. Several candidate interviews were completed, and more have been scheduled in the future. Members were impressed by the volume and caliber of applicants.

B. Star Interim Assessment Results Update

J. Dent reviewed levels of student growth and proficiency as evidenced in recent Star interim assessment results. He compared last year's summative, state testing results (the California Annual Assessment of Academic progress, aka CAASPP or SBAC) to current Star results, and used this correlation to predict outcomes for this year's summative CAASPP assessments in English Language Arts and math. He discussed school-level results and shared a sample classroom-level report. Board members asked questions about equity, successful math instruction, intervention strategies, and intervention attendance. Members expressed interest in increased access to assessment data, a potential Star data dashboard, and student group data. Staff and members discussed student homework, parent/guardian communications, tracking data through college, and college credit programs.

C. Preliminary 2023-24 Budget

A. Ortiz presented preliminary 2023-24 budget information for Navigator Schools, including discussion of three-year projections, COVID-19 funds, and additional state and federal funds. She answered clarifying questions, addressing topics of salary rates and a Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA); employee benefits; steps and deadlines of the budgeting process; and board next steps. Members requested a budget calendar to support board planning.

D. Authorization for 5% COLA and Salary Adjustment

COLA and salary adjustment topics were discussed during the time allotted to the previous agenda item.

Victor Paredes-Colonia made a motion to authorize the 5% COLA and Salary Adjustment.

Jaime Quiroga seconded the motion.

The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.
