II. Guest Presentation

A. Presentation from Old Algiers Main St. Corporation

1. Kevin Kellup and Eurydice Bush-Harris of the Old Algiers Mainstreet Corporation met with us in order to propose a partnership wherein a Makers Market Event will take place on campus on April 9, 2022.
2. The Corporation, which has hosted several events in previous years, will look to utilize our facilities, electricity and water sources in order to hold a Farmer's Market, of sorts, for the benefit of the Old Algiers neighborhood.
3. Their aim is the creation of economic opportunity via the showcasing of vendor products.
 1. They will insure the event for up to $2,000,000.00.
 2. We will have an opportunity for branding, marketing, as well as participation.
 3. We will continue to follow-up with the Corporation to hammer out the details and to determine what marketing opportunities exist for the Elan Academy community, including parents.

III. Head of School Report

A. Head of School Report – Melanie Askew (Voting)

A. Olatunji made a motion to Approve the minutes from the January Head of School Report.

R. Watkins seconded the motion.

NOLA-PS:

- NOLA-PS is in the process of selecting the next superintendent. Public forums and surveys are provided to gather input on the needs of the community and the education sector.

LDOE:

- Our Student of the Year candidate participated in her selection interview last week. We look forward to finding out the results.

Facilities & Operations:

- An additional boiler issue occurred as a result of the fix. School went virtual 1/21 and 1/24. Pre-K, Kindergarten, and 1st grade will remain virtual until further notice.
- No update regarding the facility for next year.

Human Resources:

- Recent Hires:
 - Director of Scholar Supports (Dr. Sanchez)
 - Interventionist (Mr. Boutte)
 - Talent Manager (Ms. Toney)
- Open positions:

IV. Governance

A. Governance Committee Report - Darren Patin (Voting)

R. Watkins made a motion to Approve the minutes from the Governance meeting on January 26, 2022.

T. Lewis seconded the motion.

1. Met 1- 9- 22, and discussed the following:
2. Building status - we are waiting on certain “dominoes” to fall before decisions can be made with regards to the facilities that we will utilize for the upcoming School year.
3. Strategic plan - we are waiting on the completion of the staff surveys and audit to reschedule the Strategic Plan, as a follow up to our recent board retreat.
4. Anniversary event - we discussed the Development Committee’s preparation of a 5th Anniversary/ Fundraising event. We are contemplating a brunch at a location on the West Bank. We are getting further details with regards to the locations.
5. AEDF - Daphine is proceeding to set up a meeting with the AEDF so we can further our discussed partnership.
6. New member - we discussed the letter of interest from Erin Marrero, seeking to become a new Board Member. Her interview was as impressive as her resume, and she was recommended unanimously by the Committee.
7. Head of School Evaluation - we will begin preparing the Head of School Evaluation at this time with an effort to have it completed before the March 2022 Board Meeting.

This is a departure from our prior practice of having it completed by the May Board Meeting.

8. Visit by officials - Jonathan Stewart is coordinating with our elected officials in order to schedule a visit to the school.
9. Bank services - we discussed the Finance Committee's recommendation that we transfer banking services from Liberty Bank to Gulf Coast Bank. It was recommended by the Finance Committee and the Governance Committee recommended it as well, based upon the desires of the administration.
10. Board term compliance - Dr. Rademaker is scheduled to complete his authorizer training on February 2, 2022.
11. Vendor list - Elan Academy is completing the creation of a vendor list amongst the Elan Academy Community, including parents, and for dissemination.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.

1. The Academic Committee did not meet in December, but are very much in the process of reconstituting the Board strategies as a result of the recent retreat.
2. They are working on standardize goals to measure strategies.
3. Committee discussed the development of standards for committee service.
4. Committee is looking to grow in numbers, and inquired as to any current board members who would be interested in service.
5. Committee also met with Board Ontrack recently in order to refine its agenda and reporting practices.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.

VI. Finance

A. Finance Committee Report – Roger Watkins (Voting)

- A. Olatunji made a motion to Approve the minutes form the January Finance report.
 - A. Shabankareh seconded the motion.
- Finance Committee Report.

1. November/December financials were presented.
 1. Balance sheet remained strong with forecasts of revenues and holdings to increase.
2. ESSER funds are being received and we will need to determine how they will be recognized from an accounting standpoint.

3. Discuss bank considerations with regards to the selection of Gulf Coast as opposed to remaining with Liberty Bank.
 1. Finance Committee recommended transferring accounts to Gulf Coast.
4. We would maintain the Liberty Bank line of credit and allow it to expire. We will check if there is an Operations Covenant contained therein;

The board VOTED to approve the motion.
