NOLA-PS:

- NOLA-PS has chosen Dr. Avis Williams as the new Superintendent. She will begin her position in July.
- NOLA-PS has publicly defended the charter system against SB 404.
- Dr. Askew- Clark has met with the Dr. Avis Williams, the new Superintendent, regarding charter school board.

LDOE: No updates at this time.

Facilities & Operations:

- The facility inspection report for Fischer was shared with us this week. It is 16 pages long.
- We have completed our facility project in regards to the stair repairs on the level one non-compliance. A follow up inspection was rescheduled but the inspector did not show. Our non-critical inspection day is on May 16th.
- We have transitioned to utilizing Genuine Foods as our food vendor as Revolution has dismissed all Louisiana accounts.
- We have received multiple RFPs in regards to janitorial services and in the process of reviewing the bids.

Human Resources:

- The majority of intent to return conversations have taken place with the team. We will present final retention numbers and an organizational chart at the May board meeting.
- We hired an RTI Coordinator for the remainder of the school year and look forward to having him along for a strong start next year (Mr. McBride).
- Ms. Pollard is currently serving as our interim Director of Scholar Support and will transition to Scholar Support Coordinator for the upcoming school year.

Partnerships & Resources:

- NSNO is supporting our work for strategic planning with Bellwether Consulting. We are awaiting a proposal to determine the scope of the work and a timeline for completion.
- Dr. Clark was asked to support NSNO's Novice Principal Collaborative by serving as a mentor to new principals in the city. She looks forward to supporting up and coming leaders.
- Élan has secured professional development for Dr. Clark, the School Leader Fellow, and the instructional coaches through the Relay School of Education.
- We have established a partnership with the Algiers Economic Development Foundation. This has led to the Foundation hosting a business mixer at the school along with a restaurant, Beside the Point, (owned by one of our scholars parents) to provide discounted meals and free meals once a month to a staff member of our choice.

The board VOTED to approve the motion.

III. Governance

A. Governance Committee Report - Darren Patin (Voting)

T. Lewis made a motion to approve the minutes from Governance Committee Report on Monday, April 25, 2022.
