III. Mission Challenge

A. Spotlight on a current challenge RVLA is facing.

Slideshow for staffing and human capital recruitment at the Tacoma Career Fair & UW Career Fair. Many interviews for possible candidates. We are looking for quality candidates. Send to our website or careers@myrvla.org

We are not settling-we want only very high quality, experiences, & mission aligned candidates.

Interviews have started for next year. Board Members are invited to participate. Scholars participate along with other staff members in the interview process.

IV. Mission Moment

A. Spotlight on a recent highlight for RVLA.

Slideshow from community event with Gholdy Muhammad event at RVLA in collaboration with Seattle University College of Education. Great turn out.

Also, had "The Unspoken Truths" traveling history museum. Powerful artifacts from our scholars history to hold and see. Inventions made by Black people from history also spotlighted.

V. Finance Update

A.

Review of the most recent RVLA financials.

Chastity Catchings (COO) reviews most current financial data for RVLA. Review of revenue, expenses, budgeting timeline, & personnel. Draft budget for board review in April. May-ask all your questions. June will be a robust conversation about budget with more data regarding scholar enrollment. August will be the budget vote.

VI. Academic Update

A. Review of the most recent academic data

Principal David Watson discusses current academic data: missing standards, attendance, commission goals, exclusionary data, testing information for parents.

VII. Enrollment Update

A. Enrollment Numbers

Review of enrollment numbers. Dean of Recruitment and Community Engagement discusses current enrollment numbers: current enrollment as of March 2023, re-enrollment summary data, enrollment goals & waitlist for SY 23/24, & enrollment goals vs applications to date.
