These presentations are limited to three (3) minutes and total time allotted to non-agenda items will not exceed fifteen (15) minutes. II. Information: Board Comments and/or Administrative Reports

A. From the Board

Dr. Jennings spoke of meeting several donors who have supported Laurene Powell Jobs and the XQ Institute, and thereby, RISE High. She also spoke of supporting two students through A Place Called Home, and of attending the ExED luncheon and seeing DVLAC Board members Paul Escala and Brenda Freiberg there.

Dr. Johnstone wished everyone happy holidays, saying that he loves this time of year. It's a busy but very rewarding time of year.

P. Escala arrived.

B. From the CEO

Dr. Wunder expressed his gratitude to the Wiseburn Unified School District for their support of RISE High. He credited the work of Mr. John Fernandez, Facilities Director, and Mr. Vicente Bravo, Chief Administrative Officer, Operations, Equity and Compliance in preparing to move the site. RISE High Hawthorne's intended move date is early June.

Dr. Jennings offered the Board's support in helping with the move.

C. RISE High Update

Ms. Kari Croft gave an update on RISE High.

It has been a very busy few weeks, and she feels that the quarter is ending in a good place.

Current enrollment is 172, up 43 students from the same time last year. RISE High has experienced turnover; more detainments and more AWOL students, as well as more new enrollments. For the first time, the enrollments at both sites are almost equal.

The percentage of homeless and foster youth has increased dramatically. IEP students are holding steady at 25%; 92% are Free and Reduced Lunch Program students (not counting 10 outstanding applications); 16% are English Learner students. The number of students that RISE High always intended to serve has increased, and ADA has increased slightly every month.

About one third of students (58) attended the optional Fall Intersession, earning an additional 47 total credits. This was the best turnout yet. Spring Intersession will be two weeks long instead of one.

Mr. Escala asked about the courses offered during Intersession. Ms. Croft spoke of the mix of academic and enrichment courses, cross-site field trips, etc.

Fall Student-Led Conferences were attended by 99 students and their stakeholders (out of 160 enrolled), which was a wonderful turnout.

There were 77 Touchpoints in the months of October and November (contacts home from school staff).

There were also seven Family & Stakeholder Collaborative Meetings, similar to a PTA meeting, but more inclusive than just parents.

[BOARD MEMBER BRENDA FREIBERG AND CEO MATT WUNDER ARRIVED AT THIS TIME]

For the first time, a PBL consultant from CraftED worked with the RISE High staff to create a content-specific project for the spring quarter. The consultant is very familiar with Da Vinci. RISE High will continue working with her for the remainder of the year.

The primary recommendations from the Fall LACOE visit were:

Translation of Board Agenda to Spanish (done for the November and December meetings)

Updating Website (in progress)

Launch of EL Advisory Committee & Review of EL Master Plan

Scheduling of Health Screenings

Background Checks/DOJ Affidavits for MSW Interns and APCH partners

Posting of Evacuation Maps

Staff Attendance at LACOE Training on Chronic Absenteeism

Mr. Escala asked whether or not LACOE uses FCMAT criteria for their evaluations. Dr. Ring responded that LACOE has developed their own tools, which use FCMAT criteria. The Spring LACOE visit is more intensive.

Ms. Croft introduced and welcomed Dr. Rebecca Robertson, the new RISE High Assistant principal. She has over 20 years working with juvenile foster and homeless youth, 10 years of Administrative experience, and 10 years of working in juvenile probation.

B. Freiberg arrived.

D. Financial Update

Mr. Mayotte gave the Financial Update.

He briefly discussed the highlights of the Financial Audit performed by Christy White Associates. Now that Da Vinci Schools: L.A. County is a separate entity, it must conduct an audit separate from that of Da Vinci Schools.

The audit checks to see that the financial statements are free of material misstatements. The audit gave an Unqualified Opinion, which is what every organization strives for.

Mr. Mayotte spoke briefly on some of the audit's sections:

- Statement of Activities
- Statement of Functional Expenses, which includes CalSTRS funds, transportation, legal fees, personal & professional services.
- Statement of Cash Flows
- Schedule of Average Daily Attendance (this figure is higher than other schools because RISE enrolls students throughout the year)

There were no audit findings.
