C. Approve Minutes

No quorum. moved to the next board meeting.

II. Establishing Veritas Prep as a Regional Leader and Influencer on Urban Education Reform

A. Background

R. Romano opened the discussion commenting on the grant submission she mentioned during her executive director report in the January meeting. She provided an overview of the the strategic planning session in June of 2014 and the key priorities for the next three years highlighting urban education influencer and dissemination.

B. Expansion Request Status

R. Romano commented on recent conversations with DESE. The decision on the seat requests for the current school has been delayed until Fall 2017. The requests for seats for a replication school will likely be denied.

C. Alternative Expansion Opportunities

R. Romano provided an overview of the opportunity to turnaround a school. Discussion around the DESE grant, timing, staffing, organization structure, and funding needed to move forward. Consensus from the board members is for R. Romano to continue on with her plan to explore the turnaround opportunity.

D. Janes left.

III. Facility Update

A. Authorize Executive Director to sign commitment letter from Peoplesbank for Facility Purchase

No quorum. moved to the next board meeting. M. Sweet suggested the Friends of Veritas Prep Charter School board to authorize R. Romano to sign the commitment letter to include final approval by the Board of Trustees in the March meeting.

M. Sweet provided an updated on the facility purchase. He commented that the appraisal for facility has comeback and is under our financial assumptions. The purchase of the facility is continuing to move forward with financing and a preliminary closing date has been DESE approved the request to finance a loan with terms longer than the charter term.

M. Landon commented on the research finance committee did regarding providing a down payment or keep the cash available, and funding the HVAC system repairs.

IV. Finance Committee Report

A. Review January Financials

L. Doherty commented on the review of a preliminary FY18 budget, turnaround discussion and current status of financials.

V. Other Business

A. Other Business

D. Janes asked about a one-pager for board members to give to people that explains the school.
