II. Governance

A. Board Diagnostic Survey Results Review

Governance Committee Report and Debrief

Ann and Rachel discussed the governance committee report and its inclusion in the governance process. Robert provided an overview of the survey results and potential goals. The importance of maintaining a clear line between governance and management was emphasized.

Board Retreat and Strategy Discussion

The upcoming annual board retreat in June was mentioned, with a focus on data and school performance. The group discussed the possibility of presenting new strategies or goals at the retreat. Ann highlighted the usefulness of the survey in guiding the board's goals and agenda.

Survey Results and Academic Outcomes

Robert presented the survey results, noting that academic outcomes were a highly ranked category. There was a discussion about the importance of tracking academic success and outcomes. The need for effective documentation and evidence of academic progress was emphasized.

Board Leadership and Succession Planning

The group discussed the importance of regularly monitoring school leaders' progress and having a succession plan. There was a disconnect noted regarding the understanding of the emergency succession plan. The practice of annually reviewing and sharing the succession plan was highlighted.

Board Composition and Diversity

Rachel shared the board's current composition and the decision not to include current parents or staff members. The group discussed the sector-wide trends in governance and board composition.

The importance of maintaining clear boundaries and expectations within the board was emphasized.

Onboarding Process and Resources

Robert provided resources for building an onboarding process, including a guide and a recap.

The group discussed the need to strengthen their onboarding plan and engage mentors for new board members. The importance of setting clear board and committee recruitment goals was highlighted.

Strategic Planning and Community Engagement

The group discussed the need for a strategic plan and the challenges of defining community engagement. Rachel shared the school's approach to continuous improvement and the importance of clear communication. The importance of defining community engagement and its goals was emphasized.

Compliance, Resources, and Fundraising

The group discussed the need for board members to review certain documents and policies.

The importance of justifying the data and metrics being reviewed was highlighted. There was a discussion about the school's approach to fundraising and ensuring financial viability.

Policy Review and Equity

The group discussed the need for board members to review policies and consider their impact on different student groups. Rachel mentioned the school's focus on equity and the importance of disaggregating data. The group reflected on past discussions and the need for the board to ask policy questions around equity.

Board Meetings and Attendance

The group discussed the challenges of board member attendance and the potential benefits of remote meetings. Rachel suggested revisiting the attendance and engagement policy and setting concrete goals for attendance at the June retreat. The importance of maintaining in-person meetings for camaraderie and discussion was emphasized.

Advocacy and Charter School Support

The group discussed the need for board members to be equipped to speak positively about charter schools. Robert mentioned the availability of resources and PD sessions to demystify charter schools. The importance of advocacy and community mobilization was highlighted.

III. Other Business

Trustee Roles and Committee Assignments for 2025–2026
