The board VOTED unanimously to approve the motion.

II. Committee Reports

A. Executive Committee Report

B. Finance Committee Report

Mr. Rivera provided the report of the Finance Committee, noting that all accounts were in order and enrollment was still above budget projections.

C. Education Committee Report

Ms. Russo provided the report of the Education Committee, noting that information had been flowing from the Academic Leaders as requested by the Committee.

Kevin Nesbitt arrived.

D. Family Life Committee Report

Mr. Nesbitt provided the report of the Family Life Committee, noting several events that had occurred in the month prior, including the Father-Daughter Dance, and advising of several events that were forthcoming. In particular, he noted the cooperation of the PFO with respect to planning and information sharing. Mr. Rivera noted his recent attendance at a basketball game and advised of how impressed he was with the level of enthusiasm and participation at the game, including the involvement of the Photo Club and the Dance Crew.

E. Development Committee Report

In Ms. Theodore-Greene's absence, the Committee discussed the upcoming Fund-Raising event and noted several areas of concern, most importantly a perceived lack of updates regarding the event. Ms. Theodore-Green then arrived and discussed the preparations for the event. She noted the failure of Board members to provide lists of 10 people each to be sent invitations and distributed charts for Board members to fill out with the names and e-mail addresses of their invitees. Ms. Theodore-Green also requested that Board members fill out a chart advising of the amount of hours they could commit to and potential tasks they could take on in the run up to the Fund Raiser. There was spirited debate as to likelihood of success of the event without the full participation of the Board, especially in the pre-planning and logistical stages. Mr. Tishuk advised the Board that he and the School Management Team could take on those logistical event responsibilities if they were asked by the Board to do so. The Board did so ask and the Chairperson then asked that the Development Committee meet after the Board meeting to engage with Mr. Tishuk on event planning.
