IV. Education

A. Report from the Education Committee

Ms. Russo wanted to thank the SMT for all their work during the summer. They are only missing 1 teacher for the beginning of the school year. The school is enhancing the class libraries. ELA will emphasize more across the curriculum writing in all classes (not just English, including Social Studies). The committee's main goal will assist the school in tutoring opportunities. The committee would like to have a program by the end of October. We have outgrown our location for graduation as we have 80 potential graduates. We are hoping to get the scores by the end of September. The hire of coaches will assist the teachers write curriculum as well as assist the teachers and students when necessary. The committee will be formally known as the Academic Committee.

Kevin Nesbitt arrived.
