V. Development Committee

A. Committee Update

Vice Chair Carson updated the Board on the work of the Development Committee. He explained the connection between development and governance, including the recruitment and outreach of potential Trustee candidates and then work closely with the Governance committee's work in vetting and recommending Board candidates to the full Board.

Chair Simone's message to the Board included the following summary of goals for the Committee:

- Aligned on the need to clearly define the Development Committee's purpose and scope
 - Agreed the committee should lead board recruitment, with a focus on diverse representation across K-8, middle, and high school
 - Discussed community engagement events as a key driver of visibility and donor cultivation
 - Smaller teaser event in May
 - Larger open house in Fall 2026
 - Identified need to update and segment the local business list for more strategic outreach
- Agreed we need to strengthen donor engagement beyond thank-you notes and create more meaningful connections

Trustees should provide regarding these topics by March 27th.
