II. School Status Update

A. Presentation by the School Management Team

Mr. Tishuk gave a brief update on school activities. The school will have its first winter concert on Wednesday, December 21 at the school at 9am and 6pm.

There will be a new version of the Saturday school program. The program will focus on additional assistance for students in 3-8. The program is now voluntary and staff will be asked to participate with a different pay structure. The changes are due to feedback from parents and staff.

The school is starting to see progress in the middle grades, building upon the strength from the summer. The changes are being utilized by the data the school is receiving.

The school was approved for the Charter School Collaborative, which allows the school to work with other schools in a specific area. BSNBCS focus is math, they will coach and train with various schools with on site visitations. Ms. Russo asked how the school is holding coverage for participation in the program.

III. Committees Reports

A. Executive Committee Report

B. Family Life Committee Report

Kevin Nesbitt gave a short report. The committee worked with the school to conduct an informative session regarding the PFO election process. Families requested that they would like more time to consider being involved in the school and commit to the process.

The family also requested more time and space where they can convene to discuss issues with the school. Patience and Silbia will have "morning sessions" with parents to discuss concerns and issues. With the PFO in place, they will be able to help the academic leaders structure the monthly agenda.

The election has been postponed to after the holidays.

C. Development Committee Report

D. Education Committee Report

E. Finance Committee Report

Nicholas Tishuk have a quick update on the financials. The school is a strong position financially but he will try to make changes to ensure monies are being utilized to the best ability for the students. The school is at 655 students, which is at full enrollment.
