B. Board Items for 2020-2021 School Year

- After the vote for new Board officers, Mike O'Malley took over officiating duties for the meeting since he is the newly appointed Chair.
- Mr. O'Malley shared the ERA Board of Directors contact and term information with the Board for review. Once the document is finalized, the directory will be published for parent access.
- Mrs. Anspach then shared the Board's Annual Recurring Events and Goals Calendar with the Board. She asked that the Board review and share any edits/suggestions with Mr. O'Malley for final approval at the August meeting.
- The Board discussed about setting the meeting schedule for the year and when the best time for meetings may be while remote or in person.

- Mr. Tapper suggested that the time change may present challenges to working parents.
- Mrs. Anspach recommended having alternating meetings (day/evening) to accommodate schedules better for families. She also suggested using a hybrid for when face-to-face meetings resume.

- Mrs. Anspach asked that Board members send Mike O'Malley three points about roles/positions to have more detailed descriptions about those.
- Mrs. Anspach recommended not deciding the Board retreat date since we will not have a full Board until the August meeting.
- Mrs. Yagnow recommended having the retreat in September to help members acclimate to the Board.

VII. Old Business

A. Update on COVID-19

- Ms. Bair reiterated that ERA will have remote learning for the first four weeks of instruction and then re-evaluate as we see how the COVID-19 crisis stands.

- Athletics is still in flux for the fall. Fall sports teams may still hold practice, but the NCHSAA has said no games until after September 1. We will keep students and families posted once we know more details.

B. Future Visions Updates

- Future visions met the week of July 13
- Mr. O'Malley will send out a copy of the Strategic Plan to the Board for review and feedback including the school mission and vision.
