IV. Executive Director Announcements and Updates

A. Monthly Executive Director Update

- We started tours at the beginning of this month and they will run through February. They were all well attended.
- Quarter 1 report cards will go home on Friday. In addition, K-8 will distribute our beginning of the year benchmark data. We will host an informational webinar on Thursday to explain the relevance and how to interpret the data. The webinar will be mailed out if you can't attend.

- Our 4th graders recently took the CogAT. This is a test that measures cognitive ability. We use it as one factor in determining AIG qualification.
- We will be meeting with Dr. Lanier on Monday, October 31st . We are splitting into K-8 and high school groups this time.
- We have the Pre-ACT on Monday, October 31st . This test is a 10th grade requirement.
- Congratulations to our high school volleyball team on their undefeated season and conference championship! The News of Orange has done several write-ups on them. We are excited for the conference and state championships.
- We have Spirit Week this coming week and Trunk or Treat on Saturday the 29th !
- We will have our first honor roll ceremony of Monday, October 31st . It will be our first in-person ceremony post-Covid.
- Middle School will have fall fest on Monday, October 31st after the honor roll ceremony. It will be a fun opportunity for socializing and team building. This is an early release day.
