These were signed by secretary, Joanna Lopez-Inman.

II. Opening Items

A. Record Attendance

B. Call the Meeting to Order

S. Miller called a meeting of the board of directors of Intergenerational Schools to order on Wednesday May 14, 2025 at 6:02 PM.

C. Mission Moment

B. King shared with the school board that IGS invited 4 families to come on a Statehouse Trip, and explained how the day went. They met with representatives and shared the impact IGS has had on their student's life, along with their families lives. They were able to advocate for IGS, in hopes of getting more state funding for our non-profit charter school.

A. Ahmad shared with the board that one of his students learned how to crotchet at an Intergenerational Visit earlier in the school year, and she started a club for other students. The students had some participation in sewing at Kent State but do not have a sewing kit at TIS. The student who started the crotchet club applied to a grant for $500, and it can now be used to buy a sewing machine for their club.

A. Maimone shared that the Near West students have been reading greek mythology books for their research project in class, and that they created life size art pieces to go along with the stories. She invited everyone to go take a look at it before leaving.

III. Public Comment

A. Public Comment

S. Miller opened the floor for public comment, however there are no public comments at this time.

IV. Sponsor Reports

A. CMSD/ESCLEW Sponsor Report

M. Rado informed the board that CMSD will be doing their contract modifications in May, but they will now be pushed to June. He also mentioned that Near West was 1 of the only charter schools from the city to get an award from the state, and he has delivered the award to them already.
