Wendy Castaneda Leal, parent of a WCPA-Lost Hills student, expressed concern regarding the level of support provided to her child with special needs. Ms. Leal requested additional assistance and resources for her student. Board Chair Samer Mohamed thanked Ms. Leal for her comments and asked the staff follow-up with Ms. Leal.

II. Regular Agenda - Academics

A. Information Item: WCPA - Lost Hills Students at Resnick Aspen Action Forum

Chief Engagement and Partnerships Officer, Lupe Sanchez, introduced the WCPA-Lost Hills students to share their experience related to attending the Resnick Youth Aspen Action Forum at the Aspen Institute this past summer, sponsored by The Resnick Action Forum. The students shared how participants engaged in deep dialogue on equity, climate, and community leadership—building confidence, broadening perspectives, and amplifying their voices globally to advance WCPA's mission of developing future leaders and lifelong learners.

Board Chair Samer Mohamed called for a recess at 5:35pm

Board Chair Samer Mohamed reconvened the meeting at 5:46 p.m.

B. Information Item: Academic Program Update - Math Strategies Overview

Chief Academic Officer, Megan Palomo, reported on targeted math interventions for students below grade level, focusing on structured placement, instructional quality, and progress monitoring. Efforts include professional development, coaching, and data-driven student placement. Progress is tracked through regular assessments, with metrics on student growth, proficiency, and intervention participation.
