Board needs to decide whether or not to continue board meetings remotely or whether to resume meeting in person.
Law requires board to meet every 30 days to assess whether meeting in person is safe.

Mendocino county recommends that public entities continue meeting remotely at this time.

J. Ries made a motion to continue board meetings remotely via Zoom because meeting in person would pose a risk to the health and safety of the attendees during the ongoing pandemic in California.
E. Forster seconded the motion.
The board VOTED to approve the motion.
