III. Reports

A. Parent Network Representative

The group discussed the LCAP rewrite. Potential fund raisers to replace the circus in the 2016/17 school year. Also discussed graduation. A single graduation ceremony or two separate. They were leaning towards doing a combined graduation ceremony. Discussed new officers for the parent group. New officers will take over July 1st. The group is searching for ways to engage parents' interest in joining the group.

B. Student Representative

Student rep is K. Cottrell. Math issue for Algebra I. Location is in the class is in the storage container. Cold, and makes them feel like they are in a box. Noise from the kids on the playground and balls and disks hitting it make it distracting. R. Coy stated that the students need to bring this matter up to Ms. Walls and try to find an alternate location. The option of using the high school class room was discussed. Discussed Penny Wars to raise funds for the clinic in Nicaragua. End result was that Ms. Morgan's class won, but Ms. Shoptaw's class collected the most money. Total funds raised was nearly $950, which will allow the clinic to operate for nearly a year. Choosing year book themes. Will be narrowing down the options at the group's next meeting for submission for student voting.
